By HILL SMOAK

Last Monday evening the Atlantic Christian Bulldogs raced to a 48-39 halftime lead over the Pfeiffer Indians. This performance was perhaps their best offensive showing to date. With Carraway and Gilmore, hitting on the fast break, sparked a fine team effort. The Bulldogs hit for 55 points in the second half against Western Carolina but not as spectacular as Monday night.

Henry Logan performance Saturday night against the Bulldogs was the finest individual effort we have seen thus far this season. Logan hit for 18 points the first half and followed this up with 28 the final stanza. Standing only 6 ft., he is able to dunk the ball with ease.

The Bulldogs moved their record to 7-6 with their victory over Pfeiffer Monday evening. This victory total surpasses the entire number of wins recorded last year. Bulldogs have accomplished this feat with a lineup that has included two freshmen, a junior, and two sophomores. The reserves include a junior and three freshmen. The basketball future at Atlantic Christian is certainly on the upswing with this fine talent. Keeping this talent in school and available for play will be of utmost importance in Atlantic Christian basketball future.

Winstead Reward

The Winstead Reward, a treat at the College Coffee Shop, is awarded to the following players: Elmer Hobbs for the Cataba game as he hit for 12 points and 10 rebounds, Ed Carraway for the Old Dominion game as he hit for 8 points and had many steals to aid the second half comeback by the Bulldogs, Sonny Floyd for the Georgia Southern game — Sonny serves as team manager and in general Coach Norfolk's right hand man when on the road. Larry Jones, the rough and ready forward for the Bulldogs, was honored for the American University game as he hit for 11 points and 15 rebounds. Robert Gilmore, a freshman guard, receives the award for the Stetson University game. Gilmore led the scoring in this game as he hit for 18 points.

Pep Rally

The cheerleaders have asked that the student body be thanked for their "fine support" at the Pep Rally held last Monday and the fine turnouts at the home basketball games. Their special thanks goes to the pep band which was present at the rally. They are Steve Perry, Bill Griffin, John Cederburg, Ricky Richman, and Bill Vaughan.

The Atlantic Christian cheerleaders have not been content with just supporting the Bulldogs at home but have made special efforts to attend many away games. The trip to Western Carolina last Friday was made more enjoyable with the cupcakes furnished by the cheerleaders. A telegram was also sent to the team when the Bulldogs took part in the "Hatters Tournament." They are doing their job.

Intramural

The Intramural Program slowing down during the exam period will be at full steam on January 31. On this date play in the basketball league will begin. Play will be conducted Monday thru Thursday. Results of foul shooting held this week will be reported next week.

We have been informed that Rex Wheatley, a senior at Atlantic Christian, will not return next semester. Wheatley's enthusiasm and fine support of the Atlantic Christian Bulldogs, in every sport, will be missed. He has not missed a home basketball game in three years.

Let's end with this question provided by the AC Cagers. Who do we know that's 8 feet 2 and when you cut off his head he's smaller than you? Who knows!

Bulldogs Win One Of Two

Last Saturday evening the Atlantic Christian Bulldogs dropped a 113-93 verdict to the Logan led Cats of Western Carolina.

The first half can be told in the inability of the Bulldogs to hit from the floor. Hitting for only 35 per cent during the first twenty minutes, the AC team fell behind at halftime 53-38.

The Bulldogs, refusing to quit, rallied several times in the second half to cut this lead to ten points. The second half attack was led by Bob Gilmore with 22 points. Filmore, held to three points the first half but was hot in the second period as he finished the night with 25. Clyde Stallsmith, leading AC scorer, added 22 points in this losing effort.

Larry Jones led the rebounding as he pulled down an even dozen.

On Monday evening, the AC Bulldogs shooting 60 per cent from the floor defeated Pfeiffer 83-78 for their third conference win.

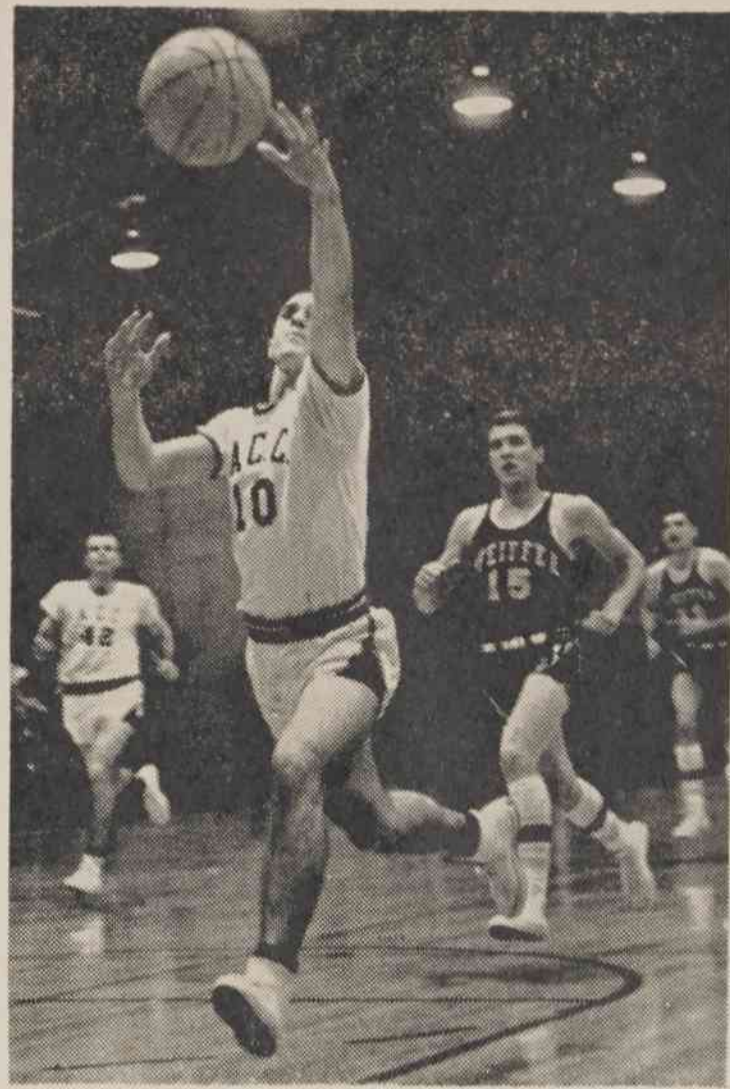

The Bulldogs with many steals were able to keep complete control of the game. In the first half using a fast break the Bulldogs jumped to a 48-39 lead.

Tiring in the second half, the Bulldogs lead was cut to the final margin, but the outcome never was in doubt.

Three freshmen, Bob Gilmore, Ed Carraway, and Clyde Stallsmith led the Bulldog scoring with 20, 19, and 17 points. Nick Serba and Larry Jones hit for 13 and 10 points as all starters scored in double figures.

Larry Jones leading conference rebounder, ficked off 17 rebounds to lead in this department.

Clyde Stallsmith is the leading scorer for the AC cagers with a 20.7 average. Larry Jones leads the rebounding with a 14.4 average.

HAULING IN A LONG PASS — Ed Carraway gathers in a long pass to score two points against Pfeiffer Monday night. Carraway scored a total of 19 to lead the Bulldogs to a 83-78 victory. (Photo by Gene Duncan)
