A "staff" meeting will be held in the SGA building at 4:00 on Monday, May 16, at which time the new editor, Janie McCormick, will present some of the ideas for next year's book. If you have the time and energy to devote, and the willingness to work, there may well be a place for you on the Pine Knot Staff, so why not come see? Previous experience is desirable, but not necessary.

Students Defeat 2 Amendments

Last Thursday, the student body voted on two amendments to the Student Government Association Constitution. The first amendment concerned the right sary to perform the functions of the Student Government Association. . . subject to approval by the Executive Board." The second amendment dealt with the appointments of the Editors and Business Managers of "The Collegiate" and "The Pine Knot." Both amendments failed to gain the needed two thirds majority to pass. The first amendment, dealing with the appointment of committees, had ninetytwo in favor and fifty-one opposed (lacking only two votes for passage); and the second amendment failed with forty-nine in favor and ninety-four opposed.

OUTSTANDING ATHLETE Shown above is Larry holding the two trophies which he received during the recent Athletic Awards Day program. He received both the outstanding Athlete Award for his excellent participation in basketball and track, and an award for being the outstanding member of this year's basketball team.
