

Exec. Board Holds Annual May Banquet

The 1966-'67 Executive Board met for the last time Monday evening as they convened at the Holiday Inn for the annual May banquet.

Members of the old and the new Board were brought together with honored guests including Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Mackney Jr., chairman of the Board of Trustees; Miss Sarah B. Ward, dean of women; Dr. Mrs. Arthur D. Wenger; Mrs. Milton Rogerson; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Purcell; Dean and Mrs. Robert Bennett; and Ross Albert.

Following the dinner, Professor Purcell spoke to the group. Purcell was followed by Dwight Wagner, president of the 1966-'67 Executive Board.

Wagner spoke on the accomplishments of his Board in such areas as academic studies, student-trustee relationships, student-faculty relationships, and the proposed pass-fail system. Wagner urged the new Board to continue working for a closer faculty-student relationship, while assuring those present that the prospects for the pass-fail system "are still good."

Doug Dexter, new president of the S.G.A. ended the round of speeches. He praised the retiring members of the Board, while promising them that "we (the incoming board) will do as well as you." Dexter also reminded incoming officers that "the honeymoon is over" and the work is ahead. In conclusion he stated, "Let us unite, keeping the ideals of our college foremost and resolve to represent and serve our constituents to the best of our ability."

Perkins Heads YRC For '67-'68

E. Clairborne Perkins of Petersburg, Va., has been recently elected president of the Atlantic Christian College Young Republican Club. Others named to office were: Patricia Wylie of Wilson, vice president; Jacqueline Baker of Norcross, Ga., secretary; Al Cooke of Wilmington, treasurer; and James Harold Herring Jr., of La Grange, parliamentarian.

The ACC Young Republican Club is affiliated with the N. C. Young Republican College Council. Jeff Lilley of Duke University is chairman of the college council.

Perkins is son of Dr. and Mrs. Spencer V. Perkins, 1616 E. Tuckahoe St., Petersburg, Va. A junior majoring in mathematics, he is a 1964 graduate of Petersburg High School.

Miss Wylie is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Wylie, 610 W. Nash St., Wilson. A senior majoring in biology, she is a 1964 graduate of Ralph L. Fike High School.

Miss Baker is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Baker, 1880 Robin Hood Lane, Norcross, Ga. A sophomore majoring in mathematics and English, she is a 1965 graduate of Lilburn High School.

Cooke is son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Cooke Sr., 225 Wallace Ave., Wilmington. A freshman majoring in religion, he is a 1966 graduate of New Hanover High School.

Herring is son of Mr. and Mrs. James Harold Herring Sr., P. O. Box 687, La Grange. A freshman majoring in political science, he is a 1966 graduate of North Lenoir High School.

The next meeting of the club will be at 4:15 p.m., Monday, in room 115 of Hines Hall. Mrs. Augusta Haberyn, president of the Wilson County Republican Women's Club will be the guest speaker. The public is invited.

DUTIES PLEDGED, FUTURE OUTLINED — Among the new campus officers to assume their duties on Blue-White Day was the new President of the SGA, Doug Dexter. Dexter is pictured above shaking hands with Dr. Wenger just after induction—er—installation into the office formally held by Dwight Wagner, pictured at left.

First College Bowl To Emphasize Academics

The first intramural College Bowl will begin first rounds Friday at 3:30 p. m.

Some eight teams from eight college organizations will be academically pitted against each other in an attempt to find a winner.

In the first rounds, Sigma Sigma Sorority will vie with the Women's Dorm Association in the science lecture room with Dr. Newton, moderator.

Sigma Pi will compete with Delta Zeta Sorority in the Choral room with Professor Folmsbee as moderator.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity will do battle with Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity in the band room with Dr. Paulsell of the Religion and Philosophy Department as moderator.

Professor Marshal of the Art Department will moderate the contest between the Men's Dorm Association and the Day Students.

The second rounds will be held around 4:30 Friday. The winner of the Tri-Sig vs. Women's Dorm will be pitted against the victor in the Sigma Pi - Delta Zeta contest. Their round will be held in the Choral Room with Dr. Hartssock as the moderator.

Crucible Available

The 1967 spring edition of "Crucible," a magazine of creative ideas published by the Art and English Departments of Atlantic Christian College is now available.

The issue will contain silk screen prints by the internationally known Sister Mary Corita; a series of paintings by Edward Dugmore, a noted New York painter and second generation abstract expressionist. The publication contains a full color centerfold by a local print maker, Thomas Marshall, of the ACC art faculty. There is included a number of other art works in

See CRUCIBLE Page 4

Campus Leaders Take Oaths Blue-White Day

Some 22 officers in student government and leading campus organizations at Atlantic Christian College took office, and four were presented special awards at annual Blue-White Day ceremonies held on the college campus May 2.

Presiding over activities was Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college, who administered oaths of office to incoming officials.

Officers of the ACC Student Government Association taking office for the 1966-67 academic year were: Douglas Dexter of Dudley, president; Tim Overman of Wilson, vice president; Beth Best of Dunn, secretary; and Ellis Kirkland of Kinston, treasurer.

Others installed included:

Senior Class — Steve Swinson of Mount Olive, president; Bobbie Ellis of Wilson, senator.

Junior Class — Sue Winstead of Wilson, president; Paul Land of Leaksville, senator.

Sophomore Class — Al Cooke of Wilmington, president; Paul Wilkins of Jacksonville, senator.

Day Students — Bobby Dunn of Kinston, president; Danny Price of Selma, senator.

Head Cheerleader — Linda Stallings of Wilson.

Campus Christian Association—Richard L. Harrison of Washington, N. C., president.

The Collegiate (student newspaper) — James Bussell of Columbia, S. C., editor; Karen Casey of Clinton, business manager.

Pine Knot (student yearbook) — Ben Casey of Wilson, editor; Frances Griffin of Wilson, business manager.

Men's Dormitory Council—Joel O'Neal of Fremont, president.

Women's Dormitory Council—Olivia Kaye Smith of Kinston, president.

Pan Hellenic Council — Dale Elaine Grissom of Courtland, Va., president.

Interfraternity Council — John W. Hyson Jr., of Plainfield, N. J., president.

Among other highlights of the day's activities was the presentation of top student awards. Named recipient of the David and Charlotte Blackwood Award was Betsy Nash of Winston-Salem. Making the award was Dr. Allan R. Sharp, director of ministerial education.

Stanley Herbert Keel of Goldsboro was presented the Rotary Cup. The presentation was made by Everett Blake Jr., president of the Wilson Rotary Club.

Paul K. Hamlin was presented the Chamber of Commerce Award. The presentation was by W. H. Thomas, president of the Wilson Chamber of Commerce.

Doris G. Greene of Kinston was presented the Dramatics Award. The award was presented by Cecil Willis of the ACC Department of English.

Shakespeare Remembered

Stage and Script, the dramatics organization at Atlantic Christian College, will climax the observance of its 50th anniversary with a production of Shakespeare's romantic comedy, "Love's Labour's Lost," May 10-12 on the college's center campus at 8:15 p. m.

The performance is a part of the activities of the North Carolina Shakespeare Festival which the college began in 1963. Since that time, the festival has included a Shakespearean play as well as special music and dance programs and lectures by well-known Shakespearean scholars.

Visiting lecturers have included Dr. Henry Popkin of New York University; Dr. Fredson Bowers of the University of Virginia, and Dr. Louis B. Wright of the Folger Shakespeare Library. This year, Suzanne Bloch presented a program of Shakespearean music as the first event of this year's festival.

The performance of "Love's Labour's Lost" is directed by Cecil R. Willis Jr., and is being sponsored by Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity. Tickets for the performances may be obtained from Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity (phone 237-9224), Churchwell's Jewelers, and the ACC Department of English.

Smith To Speak At Commencement

Dr. Harlie Smith of Indianapolis, Ind., president of the Board of Higher Education, Disciples of Christ, will be the featured speaker at Atlantic Christian College's 65th Annual Commencement to be held here May 28.

Born in Maryville, Mo., he received his early education in Missouri and Kansas. He holds an A.B. and M.A. from Transylvania College with further graduate work at the College of the Bible (now Lexington Theological Seminary), Lexington, Kentucky, and at Columbia University. He has received honorary degrees from Lynchburg College, Texas Christian University, Drury College, Culver-Stockton College, Transylvania College and Westminster College.

For several years he was Professor of Economics at Transylvania College, resigning to go into the investment business. Later he was appointed head of the Department of Education at Culver-Stockton College where he served until 1939 when he became the Executive Secretary of the Board of Higher Education, Disciples of Christ. In 1941 he was elected President of William Woods College and in 1950 resigned to accept his present position.

Dr. Smith was a member of the Executive Committee of the Crusade for a Christian World from its beginning, and is a member of the Board of Directors of Unified Promotion and a past president. He is a member of the Executive Committee of the Council of Christian Unity, is a member of the Commission on Church Union which is carrying on conversations with the United Church of Christ and is participating in the Consultation on Church Union. He is a member of the Central Committee of the Commission on Restructure authorized by the International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ).

He was Chairman of the Findings Committee of the first council of Agencies, and is presently a member of the Interim Committee, and for many years was chairman of the Committee on Brotherhood Organization and Inter-agency Relationships of the Council.

He is one of the Disciple representatives and a vice president of the National Council of Churches of Christ and is chairman of the Division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches of Christ. He is a past chairman of the Commission on Higher Education, National Council of Churches of Christ.

He was chairman of the Program Committee of the first two Quadrennial Convocations of Christian Colleges. He has served several times as a member of the Commission on Christian Education of the Association of American Colleges.

DR. SMITH

He was one of the founders of the Council of Protestant Colleges and Universities, and has been on its Board of Directors.

He is a past governor of Kiwanis International, is a member of Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity and is a member of several honorary fraternities. He is a member and elder of Central Christian Church of Indianapolis, Ind.