Old SGA Quarters Will Bow To Dorm

By JIM BUSSELL

The Student Government Association Building, located on West Lee Street adjacent to Tweety's, will be razed sometime around the first of April to make way for a new girl's dormitory. In order to make way for the new dorm the student offices housed in the building will be relocated in the bottom floor of Hardy Alumni Hall.

Involved in the transition will be the SGA Cabinet offices (those of the president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer), the "Pine Knot" office, and the Collegiate offices.

Tentative plans for the new quarters call for the addition of an office to house campus group and club files, and a conference room in which the Executive Board can hold bi-monthly meetings. At the present time the board meetings are held in Hines Hall. Placement offices for the college will also be housed in the section.

According to Milton Adams, business manager for the college, the exact date for demolition of the present student office building cannot be determined until a bid is made and accepted for construction of the new dorm.

Dr. Robert E. Bennett, dean of students, and Adams met with representatives of the student organizations Tuesday morning and outlined present plans for the move. Both explained that the funds for remodeling the old Bohunk were to come from the college alumni. However, they said, adequate funds are apparently not available at the present time to undergo complete remodeling.

The two told the student representatives that it may be necessary for the organizations to move into temporary housing in the Bohunk. It is hoped that renovation of the area will be completed soon after the organizations move.

This Weekend Honors Parents

Students at Atlantic Christian College will honor their parents during the eighth annual parents' weekend on the college campus this weekend. Early response to the invitations sent to the parents of students indicates that attendance this year will be the largest ever.

The object of the weekend is to give the parents an opportunity to become better acquainted with the educational program of the college. The setting will be relatively informal.

On Saturday, the parents are invited to see the ACC Bulldogs as they go against the Campbell College Camels in Wilson Gym.

Registration will begin Sunday at 9:30 a.m. Worship services will be held in Howard Chapel at 9:45 and 11 a.m. Luncheon will be served at the Student Center cafeteria beginning at 11:15 a.m. This luncheon will be free to all parents.

An afternoon program is scheduled for 2 p.m. in Wilson Gym. Parents may consult with the faculty from 12:30 to 1:45 p.m. All college buildings will be open to visitors.

Dorm Residents Must Get Form

It has been announced by the offices of the Dean of Men and Dean of Women that all students desiring housing for the fall semester, 1969, should fill out a Housing Application by March 1, as required by the college catalogue. Applications are available in the deans' offices, or from any residence hall counselor. All applications should be returned to the deans' offices.

Students are reminded that the college catalogue states that "All full-time single students who do not reside with their own families (parents or relatives) are required to live in the college housing when available. Men students under the age of 21 may request permission of the Dean of Men to live in private homes in the City of Wilson when the dormitories are filled to capacity. Male and female students 21 years of age and older, who are unable to secure college housing, may request permission from the Dean of Men or Dean of Women to make their own housing arrangements."

ALICE BEASLEY

Mary Alice Beasley To Represent Wilson

Atlantic Christian College boasts another Miss Wilson among its coeds. Miss Mary Alice Beasley, an AC freshman, now holds the 1969 title. Miss Beasley received the crown Feb. 8, from the outgoing queen, Miss Irma Jewel Smith. Miss Smith is also in the line of winning AC beauties.

An accomplished musician, Miss Beasley presented selections on the flute and organ. She also competed in swimsuit and evening gown judging. In an impromptu response to a final judging question, Miss Beasley stated that she finds the most important thing about Wilson to be "its people, their sweetness and kindness," and takes pride in her town "because Wilson is wide-awake and has the world's greatest tobacco market."

Miss Beasley actively participates in various phases of AC campus life. She applies her musical talents to the college chorus and band. She is also a majorette, and Phi Mu Fraternity pledge.

Varied in interests, Miss

Beasley plays the flute, piano and organ, and is adept at baton twirling and swimming. She is also a leader in Wilson community activities.

Miss Johnnie Bissette, another AC coed, gained second runner-up honors in the Jaycee-sponsored event. Miss Dee Williford received the Miss Congeniality trophy. She was voted recipient by the other contestants.

Case Art Gallery Exhibits Contemporary Graphic Art

An art show entitled "The British Eye," is on exhibit in the main gallery of the Case Art Building during the remainder of this month.

The show is a collection of contemporary graphic art executed by artists working primarily in England. The show includes work in serigraphy, aquatint, etching, color wood block, lithograph, steel engraving, and in some cases a combination of media.

Some of the artists represented include Trevor Allen, Francis Kelly, Phillip Sutton, Ron Fullander and Peter Green. All work in the exhibit is for sale. Commission from all sales will go toward the purchase of original art for the permanent collection of Atlantic Christian College.

Gallery hours are: Monday, Wednesday, Friday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Tuesday and Thursday, 12 noon until 5 p.m., Tuesday, 7 p.m. until 9 p.m.

Tell It Like It Is!

The question this week is: "Do you think that a representative of the campus publications should be made an ex-officio member of the Executive Board?" Some of the responses of the students this week are:

"Yes, because they are a vital part of campus life and therefore should have a voice in the Student Government. They should be voting members due to the amount of money allotted them and their influence on the campus." — S. O. (student)

"Yes, because new ideas would aid our Executive Board." J.M.J. (student)

"Yes, because the Executive Board should represent the entire student body and the publications should be allowed a voice in the Student Government." B.F.L. (student)

"Yes, because a wider range of ideas would be presented to the Board." B.S.S.

"No, because they are there to report news not to make it." M.M.H. (student)

"Yes, they have to report the information so they should be on the board to be able to do it correctly." P.A.L. (student)

"Yes, everyone should have a say so in what is done with the money." B.R.D. (student)

"No, right now they get all they need." S.C. (student)

"Yes, they have a voice with the student body and the students get ideas from reading the paper." N.W.W. (student)

Bloodmobile Competition Is Won By Sigma Pi

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile ended a two-day visit at Hackney Hall Friday after having collected a total of 246 pints of blood.

Sigma Pi Fraternity won the fraternity competition with 95 per cent of their brotherhood donating. Other participating fraternities were: Sigma Phi Epsilon 37 per cent and Alpha Sigma Phi 24 per cent.

Mrs. M. L. Lang, executive secretary of the Wilson County Chapter of the Red Cross, stated that 126 donors went to the Bloodmobile Friday. Of that number 13 were rejected for medical reasons and 103 pints were contributed to the program. A total of 143 pints was donated Thursday, Mrs. Lang stated.

Competition among sororities and fraternities of ACC's Interfraternity Council spearheaded the two-day collection, the executive secretary said. Of the 246 pints of blood donated, 127 were donated by ACC students.

"In addition to ACC students," Mrs. Lang added, "we had a good response from the general public."

Receiving a one-gallon pin during the drive were Robert Hollar, Carl Hayes, Frank Hines III, and W. P. Creech. Thomas Yates Pittman received a two-gallon pin.
