

Joe Wilkins Elected To SGA Presidency

By JOYCE COPELAND

A near-record turnout of voters chose Joe Wilkins as their new Student Government Association President for 1969-70. Approximately 66 per cent of the Atlantic Christian College student body participated in the election.

A native of Portsmouth, Va., Wilkins served as president of Sigma Pi Fraternity and is a member of the newly-created Student Rights Committee. Wilkins polled 535 of the votes while opponent Al Cooke drew 362 of the ballots cast.

Vice-President

Elected to serve with Wilkins was Joe Harwood in the office of vice-president. Harwood ran unopposed for the seat.

The race for secretary's chair was extremely close. Deborah Roberson of Elizabeth City defeated Johnnie Carol Bishop by a vote of 438 to 436. Miss Roberson served as president of Delta Zeta Sorority.

Kenneth O'Connell was elected to the office of the treasurer on an unopposed ticket. O'Connell served as the Day Students' president for the 1968-69 school year.

The only other office in which there was competition was the office of head cheer leader. Candy Moore defeated her opponent Myra Price to begin her second year in the position. The vote was 668 to 197.

Lee Martin and Harold Rogerson were chosen as editors of the Pine Knot and Collegiate respectively. C.C.A. officers on the elected list were: President, Robert Thompson; Vice-President, Susan Jaquith; Secretary, Martha Leggett; and Treasurer, Betsy Carroll. All four ran unopposed.

The victors in the March 10-11 elections will be installed during the April 15 SGA convocation.

Father Ian and Caroline Mitchell

Mitchell Concert Is Set Tuesday

The Campus Christian Association and the Concert and Lecture Committee in bringing to a close the Second Festival of Contemporary Arts, announce that Father Ian and Caroline Mitchell will be appearing in concert at 11 a.m. Tuesday in the New Wilson Gymnasium. They will present a concert of folk, pop and liturgical music.

Internationally known as the originator of the Jazz Mass, Folk Mass and — more lately — the Rock Mass idiom, father Uan Mitchell has been seen on NBC-TV, has performed in the largest cathedrals in the country, and is further identified with Steve McQueen and their work among the Navajo Indians.

Soon to be released are the Mitchells' two new albums in English, an adaptation of the "Folk Song Mass" and a "Folk Requiem" for use by the Roman Catholic Church.

Father Ian, an Episcopal priest, and his wife Caroline, both sing, while Father Ian accompanies on guitar. Reviewers have remarked on the "enraptured expressions on upturned faces as the audience sat enchanted" — on Caroline's "lyric voice, very pure and clear. She gives the Music life in the folk manner."

The Mitchells have toured Okinawa and Japan as well as the United States.

Reynolds Grant Totals $10,000

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. has contributed $10,000 to the second phase of the Atlantic Christian College Advancement Fund.

The college initiated a 15-year long-range development program in 1962. Reynolds contributed $5,000 to the first phase of the program.

The second phase now in progress is seeking $1 million from public subscription and $750,000 through government grants and loans. Funds raised through the second phase will provide a new 200,000-volume library, improvements to existing facilities, enlargement of the campus, and retirement of private obligations on recently constructed buildings.

Atlantic Christian College is one of 25 members of the North Carolina Foundation of Church-Related Colleges, an organization to which Reynolds has made annual contributions totaling $1,180,000 since 1955.

EVEN FACULTY MEMBERS DO IT. A member of ACC's faculty rolls the ball during one of the regular bowling bouts held by faculty teams. Obviously, however, she was so engrossed with the direction of her bowling ball that she failed to notice the ever-roving eye of staff photographer Ben Casey.

Rogerson To Assume 'Collegiate' Editorship

Harold Rogerson, a junior history major, was elected editor of the Collegiate in the student government balloting Monday and Tuesday. He will assume the post in April.

A Wilson native, Rogerson is a brother in Sigma Pi Fraternity and has served as Collegiate Greek editor for the past two years. He also served on the Public Relations Committee during the 1967-68 school session and was a photographer for the Pine Knot, campus annual, and the Collegiate.

Rogerson graduated from Ralph L. Fike High School in 1966. While a student there he served as photographer for the "Fike Hi-Zette," school newspaper; was a member of the track team for three years and was a member of the Key Club.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Rogerson and is a member of the Wilson First Christian Church.

Girls May Visit Men's Residence

With the opening of school after spring break, April 7, women may visit the lounge and television areas of the men's residence halls, Hackney Hall and Waters Hall.

The new policy, as proposed by the Student Life Committee and passed by the Administrative Council stipulates that between the hours of 12 noon and 11 p.m., women may visit the prescribed areas as guest of male residents of the halls.

It is the hope that the new policy will help decongest the lobbies of the women's halls, and by doing so improve the decor of the men's halls.

Tell It Like It Is!

The question this week is: "Are you in favor of the curfew changes (1 a.m. for upperclassmen, 12 midnight for freshmen) for women resident students?" A number of student coeds responded to the query:

"Yes. But I think seniors ought to have a different time. There is nothing to work for — no senior privileges." E.M.

"Yes. The way it is now, it's fine here in Wilson. But if you want to go out of town to a concert or something it's not good enough. There isn't enough time." A.O.

"Yes. Why shouldn't AC? Everybody else does. We ought to be old enough by now." C.M.

"Yes. There's nothing you can do before 11:30 — you have to leave in the middle of the movie. Twelve is not too late — if anybody wants to do anything they can do it within the present time." S.J.

"Yes, of course. So we can stay out later." R.M.

"Yes. I think you should have that long. Upperclassmen need the privilege." O.L.

"I think it should be extended. For concerts and all." L.M.

WHAT CAN A PRESIDENT DO? Byron Wyndham, president of the SGA, and Eddie Capel, senior class senator and elections chairman, supervise at the ballot box during the Monday and Tuesday elections. Wyndham watches cautiously to protect the validity of the poll tallies.
