WE BOMBED IN NEW HAVEN: Pretty Charlotte Franklin, above, is among those playing key roles in ACC's Stage and Script production "We Bombed In New Haven." Written by Joseph Heller, author of "Catch 22," the tragi-comedy promises to be one of the best productions of the season.

Heller Tragi-Comedy Will Begin Tonight

WILSON, N.C. — The tragi-comedy "We Bombed in New Haven," by Joseph Heller, will be presented by Stage and Script of Atlantic Christian College on March 12-14 in Howard Chapel on the college campus. Curtain time for performances will be 8:15 p.m.

In this unusual play Joseph Heller, author of the best selling novel "Catch-22," has created a devastating attack on the military establishment. Tinged with barrack room language, Heller's off-beat style employs adult humor and slapstick comedy to make his point with a hard hitting impact.

Directed by Paul Crouch, "We Bombed in New Haven" features Charlotte Franklin of Wake Forest as Ruth, Bob Noble of Kinston as Capt. Starkey, Steve Bassette of Richmond, Va., as the Major and Al Cooke of Wilmington as Sgt. Henderson.

Other members of the cast include Robert Thompson of Portsmouth, Va., as Corporal Sinclair, Robert Koelling of Virginia Beach, Va., as Pfc. Joe Carson, Larry Stowers of Beaufort, S.C. as Private Fisher, Mike Warren of Norfolk, Va., as Corporal Bailey, Dana Kaiser of Edison, N.J. as the Hunter, Bill Proctor of Rocky Mount as the Golfer, Larry James as Starky's son, and John Eastwood of Portsmouth, Keth Langston of Smith and Ken Holmes of Medford, N.J., as the Idiots.

The public is invited. Tickets will be available at the door.

The Iceman Cometh

"The Iceman Cometh to Wilson." That's right, A.C.C. will host the Jerry Butler Show as the annual spring concert.

The concert, sponsored by the Entertainments Committee, will be held Friday, April 3, 1970.

Butler will appear in Wilson Gymnasium.

Butler, better known as "the Iceman" is well known to anyone in tune with the popular music. He has appeared on the behalf of the Vice President of the United States, Senator Eugene McCarthy and Governor Winthrop Rockefeller. This talented performer, writer and producer has appeared on the Johnny Carson show, the Joey Bishop show as well as Upbeat and the Dick Clark show.

The "Iceman" is admired by members of his own profession as well as popular music fans. Henry Mancini and Johnny Mercer, collaborators on "Moon River," ran a full page ad in the trade magazines thanking Jerry for his recording and assistance in making the song.

"Only the Strong Survive," "Moody Woman," "Hey Western Union Man," "Never Give You Up," and "Mister Dream Merchant" are just a few of this young man's hits. Mark April 3 on your calendar as the date to see and hear "the Iceman," Jerry Butler.

Admission will be charged.

By KENNETH O'CONNELL
An ACC delegate to the State Student Legislature was elected to two top student legislature posts. Harold Herring, SGA student co-ordinator, was elected Parliamentarian of the Senate of State Student Legislature and he was named Public Relations Chairman of the state organization.

Over thirty-five North Carolina colleges and universities were represented at the 33rd annual session of the State Student Legislature. Atlantic Christian's delegates to this year's session were: Joe Wilkins, Kenneth O'Connell, David Finch, Lee Martin, Judi Brewer, Jimmie Lucas, Doug Brinson, Larry Messer, Robbie Steen and Harold Herring.

ACC's delegates arrived in Raleigh at noon Wednesday and immediately began politicking for their two bills. These delegates were welcomed to Raleigh that afternoon during the first plenary session by city officials. They also heard an address by State Representative Jim Holshouser, State Chairman of the North Carolina Republican Party, who urged all delegates to get involved in politics regardless of their party preference.

On Wednesday night, the delegates attended a reception at the home of North Carolina State University Chancellor John Caldwell. At the reception and back at the hotel ACC's delegates began executing strategy in an effort to seek support for their bills.

The first ACC bill entitled "An Act to Repeal The Tax on Cigarettes and Soft Drinks," was one of the most discussed and publicized bills at State Student Legislature. In the Senate, ACC's delegation accepted a friendly amendment to delete the section repealing the cigarette tax and the bill passed with only two dissenting votes. However, in the House the bill was amended to increase the cigarette tax to five cents per package after which it passed with only a few dissenting votes. The bill was then sent to a Senate-House Conference Committee which recommended the Senate version of the bill. The bill was then brought up at the plenary session on Saturday. The debate was heated and lasted nearly 90 minutes. With the tentative time for adjournment four hours past the body wearily proceeded to table the motion. The delegation felt that it has achieved a victory, however, because of the dialogue created and the publicity received.

The first ACC bill reads as follows:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AMEND CHAPTER 105 OF THE GENERAL STATUTES OF NORTH CAROLINA BY DELETING ARTICLE 2A THERE IN REPEALING THE TAX ON CIGARETTES AND BY DELETING ARTICLE 2B THEREIN REPEALING THE

TAX ON SOFT DRINKS.

The State Student Legislature of North Carolina do enact:

Section 1. Subchapter 1 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes of North Carolina is hereby amended by deleting the Article immediately following Article 2 which is designated as Article 2A.

Section 2. Subchapter 1 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes of North Carolina is hereby amended by deleting the Article immediately following Article 2A which is designated by Article 2B.

Section 3. All laws and clauses of laws repealed by the enactment of Articles 2A and 2B of Subchapter 1 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes of North

Toffler Will Appear

A reader of the February and March issues of Playboy will find articles by Alvin Toffler. But who is Alvin Toffler? Alvin Toffler describes himself as a "social futurist." Alvin Toffler is a social critic. He's concerned with change. "Change is avalanching toward us, and most people are utterly unprepared to cope with it," he says in his forthcoming book, "Future Shock."

Alvin Toffler is from New York; Manhattan to be exact. He's written books. He's been a contributor to anthologies and many well-known periodicals such as Life, Reader's Digest, New York Times Book Review, Saturday Review and Playboy.

Alvin Toffler is coming to Atlantic Christian College to speak about the future. The men of tomorrow, Toffler says will "live faster" than we do today. They will move more often, and marry more often, will change their jobs, values and friends at a rate that would stun us today. Yet not all of us will be able to keep up with the accelerating rate of change. We face what might turn out to be the most devastating disease of tomorrow: future shock.

Alvin Toffler is being sponsored by the Campus Christian Association. He will be on campus Tuesday, March 17, 1970 for the 11:00 a.m. convocation.

Witty, authoritative, and brilliant, author Alvin Toffler's conversations about tomorrow are superbly researched, impeccably organized and devastatingly relevant.

Population Is Interest Application

The overwhelming rate of population expansion and growing concern for it has spawned many groups displaying overt concern for the problem of too many people. Among these is an organization known as "Zero Population Growth." ZPG's objectives center around the education and influence of a number of people significant enough to have a curbing effect on population growth.

A number of students have expressed a desire to form a local chapter of ZPG so that they might participate in alleviation of the problem. They are holding an organizational meeting in the Faculty Dining Room Tuesday, March 17 at 6:00. They have expressed a hope that many other students will join them.

Play Try-Outs

Stage and Script will hold tryouts for "The Taming of the Shrew" on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 17th and 18th of March, at 7:30 p.m. Approximately 15 men and 6 women will be needed. No experience is necessary. This will be an unusual production of Shakespeare's classic.

Elon Sets

Convocation seems to be a provocative topic on many campuses in reference to required attendance. Elon College seems to have come up with a fairly good solution to an age old problem.

The Feb. 26 edition of Maroon and Gold, Elon's campus press, contains an article relating to convocation attendance. Elon students are given the opportunity to earn credit by attending "a religious, cultural or intellectual ..." program. The student must attend a minimum of 30 events.

The college provides regular weekly programs as well as visiting lecturers, local plays, concerts and other programs of interest to the academic community.

Loan Available

The College Foundation Loan Applications are now available in the office of the Director of Financial Aid. All persons interested in this loan should contact the Financial Aid Office.

It has been announced by the offices of the Dean of Men and Dean of Women that all students desiring on-campus housing for the fall semester, 1970, should fill out a Housing Application by Friday, April 3. Applications are available in the deans' offices or from any residence hall counselor. All applications should be returned to the deans' offices.

Students are reminded that the college catalogue states that "all full-time students who do not reside with their own families, parents, or relatives are required to live in the college housing when available. Male students may secure housing in off-campus facilities when the residence halls are filled to capacity, but are responsible to maintain their conduct according to college policies and regulations. Female students 21 years of age and older, may request permission from the Dean of Women to make their own housing arrangements. Request for such permissions must be made prior to the beginning of the semester. Female students receiving permission to reside off-campus are expected to abide by all college policies and regulations."
