See You There

The 1970 edition of Homecoming is drawing nigh. As the date approaches the typical rivalries over which bloc vote (not which candidate) will win the coveted crown have cropped up. Floats are beginning to take form as the final seconds before parade time put put an end to the misery of wondering if the enterprise will be finished or even worth the effort.

For the first year in a long string of unnecessary conflicts, ACC's Homecoming does not have to compete with State and ECU and Carolina although Chicago may put up a good fight Saturday night.

The promise of the most colorful parade in the history of ACC makes the affair even more hopeful. Warehouse problems threatened to put a crink in the proceedings but with a little last minute manipulation things worked out and ACC is in peaceful coexistence with "Wilson's Gold," tobacco. Remember to help make your organization a winner no matter where the trophies may fall. The Senior Class is providing transportation for its workers leaving the New Dorm at 7:00 tonight and 3:00 tomorrow.

Friday's concert may prove to be a faux pas as we once again have to sit through a concert by groups better fitted for a dance. The Intruders recently performed at Appalachain as a part of one of that school's side concerts receiving less than rave reviews. Where are all you other oddballs who, like me, appreciate Kenny Rogers, BST, and the big Fifth Dimension?

The Saturday night battle between the Duldogs of ACC and Fayetteville Sate promises to provide an excellent opportunity to see what the 70-71 squad holds in store for this season.

There you have Homecoming as I see it. The object of this madness is to remind you that you have to see it to make your own decision. See you there.

Postscript . . .

There is a sign in the Collegiate office which reads: "Certificate of Death...This is to certify that T.H.E. WORLD has been officially pronounced dead on UNKNOWN, 19??. The official cause of death has been attributed to SUICIDE." The certificate is signed by L. Cology and witnessed by P. O. Lution.

The certificate is hitting home. Take notice of the horrid pictures scattered throughout this issue of the Collegiate. They were not taken at Lake Erie or the Mississippi. These photographs do not represent some remote pollution problem in New York or Los Angeles. You are a witness to the atrocity which is taking place in Wilson Lake, Wilson North Carolina.

If we cannot see the trouble from the ecological point of view, remember this, Wilson Lake is a town reservoir, a storage area for water you and I drink, cook with and bathe in. It is a site for boating and skiing in the summer.

Wake up Wilson, your town is not above pollution.

Reader's Perspective

Dear Editor:

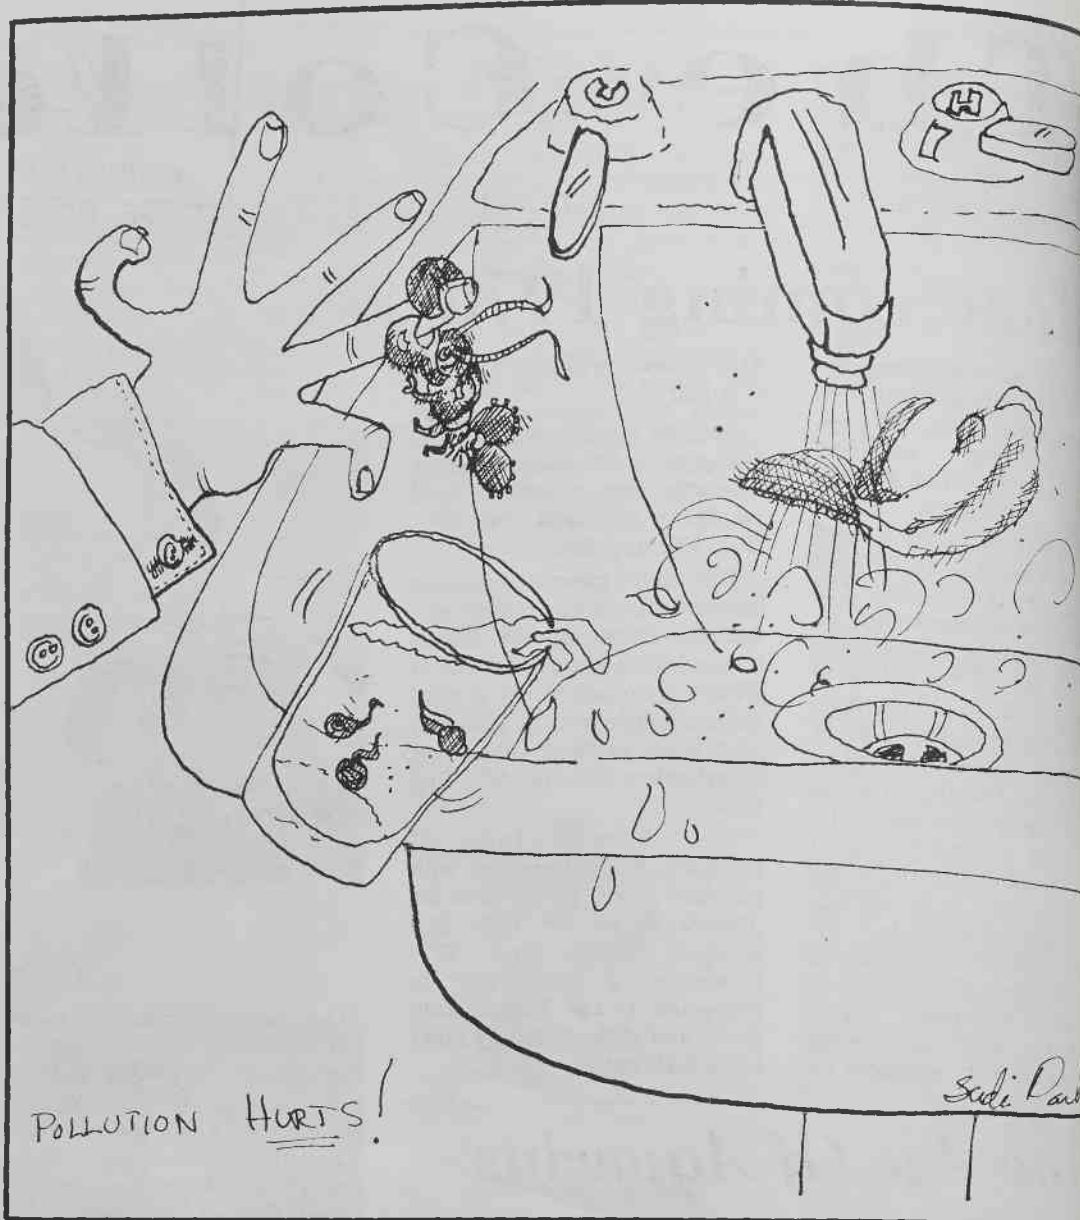

I was disappointed to read in last week's COLLEGIATE, of the SGA Executive Board's refusal to send $25.00 to assist in paying for the legal defense of the recently indicted Kent State students and faculty.

I hope that at Monday's meeting, the Board will reconsider the motion and will act affirmatively on it. Affirmative action on this matter could not be construed as condoning the actions of the indicted persons, but would instead offer evidence of this school's belief in our system of jurisprudence which provides for a fair trial and legal representation. Court appointed lawyers will probably not be available to represent the inditees because most of the charges are misdemeanors and not felonies. Consequently, the students will have to retain their own lawyers.

If the $25.00 is not available in the SGA's general fund, then perhaps each of the classes could donate part of the money.

Sincerely,
Jim Abbott

President's Report

The Board of Trustees of Atlantic Christian College met Wednesday, Oct. 28, in the new Conference Room of Hardy Alumni Hall. The petition that was circulated concerning the naming of the Student Center the C.H. Hamlin Student Center was presented in the Education Committee by me. The motion was discussed at length and was amended to put it into the Building Naming Committee of the General Board. Hopefully at the next meeting of the Board in February we will have some decision presented to us. There are plans to circulate additional copies of this petition throughout the Homecoming weekend for alumni wishing to sign this petition to do so.

Also during the meeting of the Board, definite plans have been made to air-condition the Science Building sometime this year.

The SGA and Collegiate have jointly decided to send all members of the Board a copy of the Collegiate as it is published weekly.

At the next Executive Board meeting the constitution of the German Club and Zero Population Growth will be presented for ratification. All interested persons are encouraged to attend. These two organizations have followed the guidelines set forth by the constitution of the SGA for recognition by the SGA as an official campus organization.

Remember this is Homecoming Weekend! Do you have your tickets for the concert?

designated Cancer, the Crab. Cancer is from June 22-July 22, and is ruled by the Moon, which explains his many moods and changing emotions. He is sensitive, imaginative, and compassionate. His features are very expressive. You can tell him secrets, and he will understand. He has very strong emotions, especially his deep love for home. He loves the water and has a maternal instinct.

Leo, the Lion, July 23-Aug. 22, has been assigned to Phi Mu. It is ruled by the Sun, and like the Sun, rules. He is egotistical, an extrovert, a good organizer, and a good host. He loves to teach. Few Leos never marry. They are forgiving, sympathetic, responsible, a fiercely loyal friend, or a powerful enemy. As in his emotions, there are no in-betweens in his dress—he is very neat or very sloppy. He is creative and original.

Virgo, the Virgin, has been assigned to Alpha Sigma Phi. It represents August 23-September 22, and is ruled by Vulcan. Virgo is a loner; he is uncomfortable in a crowd. He is gentle, dependable and sincere. He is a worrier and he dreams very few "impossible dreams." He denies habits and traits, and he is blind to his own faults. He is restless, prudent, healthy and gentle.

Libra, the Scales, has been given to the Freshman Class. It stands for September 23-October 23. It is also ruled by Venus. A Libra loves people and hates to be rude. He is pleasant, intelligent and loving. He is a good listener even though he talks a lot. He hates a large crowd. He is naive and restless, and seeks harmony. He loves books and has an artistic soul.

The Senior Class will depict Scorpio, the Scorpion. The dates include October 24-November 21. It is ruled by Pluto. He likes to travel in disguise and is usually successful at anything he attempts. He is a master at controlling his emotions. He is loyal to his friends; never forgets a gift of kindness. He is very interested in religion.

Sagittarius, the Archer, is taken by Sigma Pi. Ruled by Jupiter, it includes November 22-December 21. He is free of malice and loves animals. He is restless, truthful, and candid. He is an intelligent idealist. He is cheerful, happy but his temper can flare. He has a religious streak especially in his youth. He is gregarious and loves sports. He has a good memory but is a bad liar.

Capricorn, the Goat, has been given to Delta Zeta. Ruled by D.E.A. freshman: I wish I were the photographer for Playboy Magazine.

O.P.M., sophomore: I wish more people would stay at school on the weekends so we could have more worthwhile activities.

G.M.J., freshman: I wish I had an A in Religion.

J.A.J., junior: I wish the situation would improve so every man could live in peace and harmony with his brother.

A.J.F., freshman: I wish Freshmen didn't have to receive pink slips.

C.C.B., junior: Peace.

B.L.C., senior: If I had a wish I would wish for three more wishes.

J.E.D., sophomore: I wish I already had my master's degree.

Saturn, it dates are December 21-January 19. He is serious and melancholy yet he will not let his emotion blind him to the facts. He is shy and has a sweet smile. He is stubborn yet gentle and harmless. He is a true leader and is devoted to duty.

The Day Students have been honored by their theme, Aquarius, the Water-Bearer. Aquarius includes January 20-February 19 and is ruled by Uranus. The Aquarian lives to see a rainbow and has far away looking eyes. He enjoys defying public opinion. He is free, original and yet conceited and independent. He is diplomatic, gentle, timid, and sympathetic. He is a moody person and a natural rebel. He is a great analyzer and not trusting of others. He has few intimate friends and he seeks quality in quantity.

The last sign of the Zodiac is Pisces, the Fish. It has been assigned to Delta Sigma Phi. It is ruled by Neptune and covers the dates between February 19-March 29. Pisces represents death and consciousness of the soul. One born under Pisces has little worldly ambition. He is lazy and good natured. Little will excite him to violence. He has a sense of humor and a masterful satirist. He is a natural practical joker. He shows pity to the weak and his first instinct is to help.
