NUMBER FOUR

Jimmy Carter for President

Fellow students. As president of the Young Democrats of Atlantic Christian College I wish to urge each of you to give your support to Jimmy Carter, not only in the mock election at A.C.C. next week but also in the November election.

Jimmy is a former navy officer, nuclear engineer, farmer, state senator, and governor of Georgia. Jimmy has been labeled as being fuzzy on the issues. This is not the case. He has been more specific on the issues than his opponent. He has promised to reduce the taxes paid by lower income groups and increase those paid by the wealthy and corporations. Ford worked to protect tax loopholes while he was in Congress and has done nothing to remove them since becoming President.

The Ford administration has been a government by stalemate. As a congressman for 25 years, Ford should have been able to cooperate with Congress. However, Ford has vetoed 60 bills and secured passage of only 26 per cent of his legislation.

Although Ford stated in November, 1973 that he would not pardon Richard Nixon if the situation arose, he did so on September 8, 1974 with the excuse that Watergate was a tragic period in American history and it was time to put it behind us. However, the same reasoning does not apply to draft dodgers according to Ford. Although the Vietnam War was perhaps the most tragic period in American history, Mr. Ford is content to let 90,000 Americans remain overseas for the rest of their lives. Jimmy Carter has promised to pardon these young men so that this tragic period can at last be put behind us.

Jimmy Carter isn't afraid to take unpopular stands that he thinks are right. This is indicated by his stand on abortion. Governor Carter has refused to support a constitutional amendment to ban abortion. Mr. Ford now supports such an amendment although he did nothing about it in the 25 years he served in Congress or the two years he has served as President.

Mr. Ford is a fine man but lacks the leadership ability to be a strong President. In the turbulent times ahead we need a strong leader to guide this country as it seeks new direction and goals. Jimmy Carter is such a leader.

Instructor of Music Announced

James Powers has been named instructor in music at Atlantic Christian College, according to an announcement by Dr. Arthur D. Wenger, president of the college.

A native of Lumberton, he earned the B.M. degree from East Carolina University and the M.M. degree from Miami University of Ohio. Powers earlier served as a member of the Cincinnati Opera, sung with the Middletown Symphony Orchestra in Ohio, and debuted with the Whitewater Opera Co. during the past spring.

A full house is expected for K C and the Sunshine Band next week in Wilson Gymnasium. Security precautions will be in effect at the door: In other words do not try to sneak bottles or anything else into the gym or you might get nailed.

2nd of 9 Part Series

Study Shows Both Sides

Editor: The Self-Study stands at 368 pages; for this reason it is impossible to reprint it in its entirety, section by section. The Collegiate will provide a summation of all nine sections, or standards as they are called in the study. The recommendations and projections of each standard in question will appear at the end of each summation.

Standard II of the study deals with the organization and administration of the college. The college is governed by a thirty-six member Board of Trustees. Included on the board are one faculty and one student member. The board meets once a month. It is divided into four major committees: the Executive Committee, the Education Committee, the Development Committee, and the Finance Committee. This committee system was evaluated by the study, and was found to be effective.

Next, the study indicated the duties and responsibilities of all twenty-eight administrators, from the Dean of the College, down to the Executive Housekeeper. The administrators were evaluated and were found to be competent. There was however one weakness found in the workings of the administration; it was found that an equitable distribution of the work was not the case for the secretaries. It was advised that this problem should be remedied as soon as possible.

college is further carried out by twenty-four standing committees. Included in these committees are such as the Athletic, Homecoming, Admissions, Awards, and so on. This committee system was also seen as functioning effectively. It was further noted that the majority of students felt that they had an adequate voice in most matters concerning the administration of the college. This was especially true of the standing committee system.

Following are Standard II's recommendations and projections.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Name a Personnel Director to redistribute secretarial and clerical work on a more equitable basis.

2. Study the traffic patterns in the present Registrar's Office and equipment in the anticipated move from the present building.
4. Explore the possibility of granting voting status to student and faculty representatives on the Board of Trustees.
5. Monitor more closely the custodians in Howard Chapel, Old Gym, Hardy Alumni Hall, Caldwell Dormitory, and Hamlin Student Center.
6. Emphasize to present students through programs and exhibits, the importance of alumni participation.
7. Consider use of additional student help in Publicity Office.
8. Consider the employment of an attorney familiar with trust and grant development.
9. Consider the employment of a second professional in Publicity Office.
10. Examine more closely the Mt. Olive Experimental Program.
11. Establish a Development Council with representatives of the College community — administrators, faculty, students, and alumni — community, and church to act as an advisory group to Development Office.
12. List in Student Handbook the proper office to contact about specific needs.
13. Clarify the administrative organization of the Washington-Norfolk Ministers' Institute at Roper, N.C.
14. Review ACC-Scope.
15. Study the job description of the Director of Development.

PROJECTIONS

Based on these enrollment projections, there are no plans for major changes in administrative organization within the next decade. While some offices have minimal staff, the College is firmly committed to leanness in staff.

Stage and Script

Set Performance

Howard Chapel will be the setting next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights, October 7-9, for the presentation of The Lion in Winter. Directed by Paul Crouch, this will be Stage and Script's first play of the new season.

The action centers around the question of who will succeed Henry, king of England, upon his death. Eleanor, queen of England, has just been released from jail for the Christmas holidays, by Henry. Her release causes conflict; Henry is caught between his wife Eleanor and his mistress Alais, princess of France. This leads to cleverly sarcastic scenes between Henry and Eleanor, and Eleanor and Alais. Alais' brother Philip, king of France, arrives to force Henry to marry his sister, which further complicates matters. The struggle for power between John, Geoffrey, and Richard, Henry's three sons, adds more wit and humor to the comedy.

The performances begin at 8:00 p.m. All ACC faculty and students will be admitted free of charge.

EASTSIDE INCIDENTS

Aside from ashcans and halljohns and pigeon coops
the hot July stoops
There were those mad Valenti kids
who killed my cat
with an umbrella
There was Dirty Myra who screwed the Rabbi's son in the cellar
And there was Vito and Tony and Robby and Rocco
I see them now
eating poisoned mushrooms and vomiting air killing Mr. Bloom the storekeeper
and getting the chair
I see them now
but they aren't there

President Ford in 1976

Why should Americans elect Jerry Ford President in 1976? Just look at the record!

President Ford has put America on the road to sound fiscal responsibility. He has reduced inflation from 12 per cent in 1974 to an annualized rate of 7 per cent in 1975. The tide of unemployment has been stemmed since last spring and today, there are one million more Americans at work. His actions were bold and deliberate. He vetoed 55 bills that would have burdened tax payers with billions of dollars in excess of his budget. He saved the tax payers some $68 billion in the 94th Congress and $462 million in the 93rd. President Ford challenged Congress to join him in restraining Federal spending by deepening a $395 billion ceiling on 1977 expenditures. He requested a Federal spending cut of $28 billion in order to provide a $28 billion tax cut ... a tax saving of $412 for every typical family of four making $14,000. Consistently and almost single-handedly, President Ford has said "No" to spending bills that went beyond his budget.

President Ford is making government responsive to people. By pursuing one of his most important goals, President Ford has set about to cut government down to size ... "to make it more manageable, more responsive, more efficient, and less costly." President Ford has come to the aid of the American farmers, assuring them that the Soviet Union will be a more consistent buyer of grain at market prices ... prices which have fluctuated wildly over the past decade. He has directed the Secretary of Agriculture to increase the 1976 Wheat Allotment by 8 million acres, thus providing additional target price and disaster protection.

President Ford has declared a war on crime. He has called for an end to "Saturday Night Specials" that have no use other than against human beings. He has called for laws establishing mandatory sentences for persons committing violent Federal crimes. He has asked for an extension of the law enforcement assistance administration authorizing up to $68 billion of Federal aid to State and local governments to fight crime, and improve personal safety. President Ford believes that it is time for law to concern itself with the rights of the people it is designed to protect.
