

The Collegiate

LIBRARY

NOV 1

ATLANTIC
CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

ATLANTIC CHRISTIAN COLLEGE, NOVEMBER 10, 1977

NUMBER NINE

ACC Library Dedicated: Atlantic Christian College's new library was dedicated and named in honor of the late Willis N. Hackney during homecoming activities held Saturday. Mrs. Elizabeth H. Hughey, left, chief, State and Public Library Services Branch, U.S. Office of Education, was the dedication speaker. Milton L. Adams, center, acting president of the college, presided. Bruce W. Riley, right, vice chairman of the board of trustees, officially named the facility.

A newly crowned queen, Cindy Hill, beams radiantly as she dances with her escort, Jones Fuquay. (Photo by Peter Chamness)

Hundreds Attend Homecoming

Hundreds of Atlantic Christian College alumni returned to their alma mater for Homecoming Day activities held here Saturday, Nov. 5.

Among the many events of the day was the dedication of the Willis N. Hackney Library, election of many alumni association officers, campus organization exhibits and entertainment.

Atlantic Christian's new library was named and dedicated in honor of the late Willis N. Hackney. Dedication speaker was Mrs. Elizabeth H. Hughey, chief, State and Public Library Services Branch, U. S. Office of Education.

Presiding was Milton L.

Adams, acting president of the college who introduced the speaker. Special guests were introduced by David L. Cleveland, director of development. Presentation of the new building was by William O. Paulsell, professor of religion and chairman of the special library committee.

The library was officially accepted by Lewis H. Swindell Jr., dean of the college; Otis W. Coefield, library director; and Jones Fuquay, ACC Student Government Association president. Naming of the library was by Bruce W. Riley, vice chairman of the ACC Board of Trustees.

In other action taken by the association, George T. Stronach III, of Wilson, was elected to a three-year term as alumni representative to the ACC Board of Trustees. Kay Cooper Dunn, Linda Sue Plesant and John C. Midgette, all of Raleigh, were named to two-year terms as directors of the association.

Bullard To Present Lecture

Dr. Roger Bullard, Professor of Religion, will present the second lecture in the 1977-78 Faculty Lecture Series on Wednesday, November 16, at 8:00 PM. The topic of the lecture is "ZEAL TO PROMOTE THE COMMON GOOD: The Historical Setting of the King James Version of the Bible." Dr. Bullard will discuss the circumstances that gave rise to the commissioning of the Version of 1611, as well as introducing the scholars who produced it, how they worked, how their translation was received, and what its later fortunes were.

The lectures, held in the Choral Room of the Roma Hackney Music Building, are open to the public and free of charge. The Atlantic Christian College Chapter of the American Association of University Professors, sponsor of the series, wishes to extend a special invitation to the students and the faculty.

Gene A. Purvis
Education Dept.

Coffee House

Tonight from 8 until 10:30 in Hardy Alumni Hall The Campus Christian Association will present a Coffeehouse featuring some of the best among Atlantic Christian College's musical talent. Come on over to Hardy for an evening of good entertainment. Free admission and popcorn. Drinks will be sold.

Crucible Competition Announced

Dr. James B. Hemby, chairman of Atlantic Christian's English department, has announced the opening of the 1977-78 CRUCIBLE writer's competition.

CRUCIBLE'S competition for writers is open to all North Carolina writers who currently reside in the State (including college students from other states) or who have lived in the State for a period of at least four years.

All entries must be completely original (never published), must be in manuscript form, and must not be currently involved in other competitions. Writers should send with their entries a short biographical sketch and written permission to use the submitted material if the editors choose to do so. Entries submitted without the above information will not be considered.

Manuscripts will be accepted through Jan. 20, 1978, only. Late arrivals will be rejected. Checks to winners will be included with notification.

CRUCIBLE will receive first publication rights to winning entries as an integral part of the competition, after which rights will revert to the author. Winning entries will be published in the spring issue of CRUCIBLE, a magazine of creative ideas published by the departments of English and Art at AC.

Prizes and categories of the competition consist of: Poetry — $150 first prize, $100 second prize; and Fiction — $150 first prize, $100 second prize.

Fiction must be limited to 8,000 words or less. No prizes will be given in other categories. unaccepted manuscripts accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelopes will be returned as soon as possible after judging has been completed. All other materials will be destroyed immediately following the judging.

CRUCIBLE'S Sam Ragan Poetry Prize is open to all poets. The above stated rules also apply to competition for this prize. Only one prize of $25 is awarded.

Send all entries to: Dr. James B. Hemby, Chairman, Department of English, Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, N.C. 27893.

Cindy Hill... Our New Queen

— Miss Cindy Hill of Colonial Heights, Va., was crowned as Atlantic Christian College's 1977 Homecoming Queen on Friday night prior to Homecoming activities being held here Friday. A senior majoring in commercial design, the pretty coed won out over 29 other contestants. She was sponsored by Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

She is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Hill, 147 Windsor Ave., Colonial Heights. First runner-up for the title was Miss Renee Jenkins, also of Colonial Heights. Second runner-up was Miss Donna Slaughter of Virginia Beach, Va.

Nineteen Students Named To "Who's Who"

Nineteen Atlantic Christian College students have been named "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities," according to Dr. Lewis H. Swindell Jr., dean of the college.

Recipients were chosen by a vote of the college's faculty and administration on the basis of scholarship, participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, citizenship and service to the school, and promise for future usefulness.

Named were:

Patricia Dale Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Adams, Route 1, Four oaks.

Margaret Barkley, 111 S. Dennis St., Enfield.

Pamela G. Batts, 36 Chandler Dr., Emerson, N.J.

Mary E. Beasley, daughter of Hugh Beasley, Route 1, Four oaks.

Dale Lynn Covington, 1011 7 W. Gold St., Wilson.

Elizabeth A. Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerald H. Dixon, P. O. Box 408, Robersonville.

Melba J. Etheridge, Route 1, Box 153, Oak City.

Marvin Jones Fuquay, 305 Belcher St., Farmville.

Cathy Hux, daughter of Walter I. Hux, Route 3, Box 159, Roanoke Rapids.

Darrell R. Jenkins, 408 Metcalf St., New Bern.

Ruth A. Jordan, 9407 Wynthurst Dr., Richmond, Va.

Stanley Iradi, Route 3, Box 494, Elm City.

Peggy D. Newton, 1727 Hillcrest Dr., Wilson.

Lester Southern, Box 739, 401 Cutoff, Raeford.

Laura J. Stephens, daughter of William Stephens, 12607 Knowledge Lane, Bowie, Md.

Barbara Lynn Stone, 406 Talbott Ave., Laurel, Md.

Penney Sumrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Sumrell, 514 N. Church St., Grifton.

Terry Jean Tucker, P. O. Box 446, Manson.

Rose Christine Wooten, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Wooten, Box 127, Robbins.