

Campaigns Begin

The following are the campaign speeches of those persons seeking offices. Included in the list are not only those on the ballot, but those who are seeking write in votes. Elections will be held March 29 and 30.

In order for leadership to be effective in this day and age, the leader must work with the people as well as for them.

My name is Valerie Melvin and I am running for the office of president of the rising Sophomore Class. I am a music education major in the area of voice. My music is my life, but much more important to me is life in general and its involvements.

I cannot promise the class of 82 lots of improvements because one person cannot work grand miracles on this campus with out help from someone else. But our class working together can do some very big things in the upcoming year.

I would appreciate your vote for Sophomore Class president, so that together we can do bigger and better things.

"United we stand, divided we fall!"

My name is Kay Richey and I am a candidate for Sophomore Class president. While serving as a Freshman Class senator this year, I have noticed many things that I feel could improve the Student Government Association at A.C.

I know it has been said many times before but our main problem is apathy - this problem cannot be stressed enough. It is apparent in the students and many of the officers that we elect. It is a disgrace when a SGA senate meeting cannot be held due to lack of a quorum and important business is left hanging. I would like to see each officer take his job more seriously and not use every excuse possible to get out of senate meetings. We are elected officials who represent a great number of people. The SGA senate meetings are held on a regular basis that is known to the officers. Each officers should know in advance to schedule other meetings around Senate meetings. I would like to see less acceptance of such schedule conflicts unless there are unusual circumstances.

I feel it is important that the officers make an attempt to find out what the people we represent want from the SGA. And I feel each student should offer his or her opinion. Each student is a member of this organization. Things can be changed if we work together.

If elected I will look forward to next year. We have had new ideas coming forward at the end of this year that hopefully will carry over to next year. I plan to support the the Student Union concept that will consolidate many programs to offer more activities and opportunities to the students.

I hope to have your vote and support. Thank you.
Kay Richey

First, I would like to say that I was not planning to run for an office. However, after finding out that no one in the upcoming Sophomore Class was even interested enough in our class to run for the office of vice president, I decided to run. Although I am busy just like everyone else, I am very interested in our class and its involvement in campus activities; therefore, I did not want this disinterest to reflect upon myself or the class. Also, I have not been very involved in our class and its activities this year, because I never seem to hear about class meetings until they are already passed.

Now that I will be a write-in candidate for the office of vice president of the upcoming Sophomore Class, I intend to work with the elected president to increase interest and activities for the class. Also, I will try to make sure that the meetings are well publicized so that members of our class can become more involved.

Please write in Kathy Pearce for vice president of the Sophomore Class.

Thank You
Kathy Pearce

Dear Fellow Students,

On March 29 and 30 you will have the opportunity to select those people which you think are capable to lead Student Government for the 1979-1980 school year. It concerns me to see that in the case of most of the "races," including my own of SGA vice president, there is only one candidate. This apparent lack of interest is what I most strongly hope to change during the coming administration.

I feel that I am qualified for the position of SGA vice president. During the past year as Junior Class vice president and Clerk of the Senate, I have learned a great deal about how SGA functions. I have also seen the great potential which lies within Student Government to help the students. Student Government has the potential of being a loud voice in the affairs of the college. I feel that this voice should be that of the majority of the students instead of just a handful.

I sincerely hope that you will begin to make your voice heard by voting in this election. While voting, I hope you will vote for me as SGA vice president.

Sincerely,
David G. Webb

My Fellow Students,

Once again, it is election time. I have taken the opportunity to run for vice president of the Junior Class. Some may ask why; others do not care. Well, I care and this is my main reason for running for vice president. I want to see us do things together as a class for the good of A.C. and the surrounding community. I want us to have fun doing things together. If we decide once and for all to do away with this "I don't care" attitude, we can accomplish tremendous tasks. We would then be working together, not against each other. I know that I can not make promises about any particular activity; however, I know that given the job, I would do everything within my strength and power to fulfill the task.

Running for an office is a worthwhile endeavor because I do it not only for myself, but also for you, the upcoming Juniors. If elected, I would be here to listen to you and your ideas as well as your gripes. But let me tell you a secret, I cannot "listen" if you do not give me anything to listen to. So, please, work with me. After all, I will represent you; don't leave me "running on empty."

Sincerely,
Jo Anne Cavenaugh
