

"The Greeks Have Done It Again"

An eventful Greek Week began bright and early Monday morning, March 19th, with the sororities and fraternities participating in Jersey Day. Tuesday constituted Dress-up Day when the campus was swamped with three-piece suits and "Sunday-go-to-metting-dresses"--a sight for sore eyes on the A.C. campus! Another Jersey Day was held on Wednesday along with a Penny Drive sponsored by radio station Q-94. The winning sorority was the Phi Mu's and the winning fraternity was the Delta Sigma Phi's. They collected the most pennies which were donated to the charity of their choice.

The main event occurred on Thursday night with Greek Sing competition. There was a terrific turnout and all the Greeks extend their appreciation for the wonderful support.

The themes for the Fraternity division were:

Delta Sigma Phi...Vocal Selections from "West Side Story"
Alpha Sigma Phi...Presents "Oliver and Friends."

Sigma Pi "Goes Country"
Sigma Phi Epsilon...Presents "A Salute to the Top Two Comedy Albums."

First place was won by the Delta Sigma Phi's along with the Brother Scholarship Award.

Sorority Division themes consisted of: Delta Zeta...Presents "Ona Fiesta de Canciones"

Phi Mu... "Phi Mu's Land Of Oz."

Sigma Sigma Sigma... Presents "A Salute to the Clown."

The Delta Zeta's and Phi Mu's tied for first place. Delta Zeta won the Pledge Scholarship Award and the Sigma Sigma Sign's won the Sister Scholarship Award. Congratulations everyone!

An SLFC/Panhellenic Dance was held at Wedgewood on Friday night.

A fun-filled activities day was held Saturday morning consisting of a suitcase race, tug-o-war, pyramid building and the cracker eating contest. Delta Zeta won 1st place in the sorority division and Delta Sigma Phi won in the fraternity division.

The perfect end to a busy week occurred on Saturday night when all the Greeks participated in a floating party between the four fraternity houses. This was a great time for everyone to

A special thanks goes to Lauri McWilliams and Miles Stanley for their help and support.

The Greeks have done it again and they will continue to do so in years to come. GO GREEK!

Schoenbaum Presents Shakespeare

Dr. Samuel Schoenbaum, an eminent Shakespeare scholar, will deliver a lecture at Atlantic Christian, Monday, April 2, at 7:30 p.m., in the choral room of the Roma Hackney Music Building. Topic of his lecture will be "Shakespeare the Man."

Schoenbaum is currently Distinguished Professor of Renaissance Studies at the University of Maryland. He has published a biography, "William Shakespeare: A Documentary Life," and "Shakespeare's Lives." He is also assisting in editing "The Oxford Edition of the Complete Works of Shakespeare." He is considered one of the leading authorities on the life of William Shakespeare.

He has also published "Middleton's Tragedies: A Critical Study," and "Internal Evidence and Elizabethan Dramatic Authorship: An essay in Literary History and Method," as well as numerous scholarly articles on Shakespeare and literary biographical studies. Schoenbaum has lectured at universities and colleges around the world as well as at the Folger Shakespeare Library, the Huntington Library, and the Newberry Library.

Schoenbaum's lecture is sponsored by the AC Concert and Lecture Committee in conjunction with the Visting Scholars Program of the North Carolina Center for Independent Higher Education.

The lecture is open to the public free of charge.

Norbert W. Irvine, associate professor of art at Atlantic Christian College, has been elected president of the North Carolina Art Education Association (NCAEA) for 1979-80. His main area of teaching is in art education.

He has served on the executive council of NCAEA for the past eight years and has planned the programs for the organization's conference for the past two years.

As president of the organization, Irvine will serve as the official North Carolina delegate to the National Art Education Association's conference in San Francisco in April. He will represent North Carolina on the state assembly meeting, a group composed of the 50 state presidents. Through their deliberations, position papers will be developed for presentation to the NAEA board to suggest national policy.

He will also be the official North Carolina delegate to the NAEA Leadership Conference.

The division of Exceptional Children for the N.C. State Department of Public Instruction has requested Irvine to serve as chairman for the visual arts programs for North Carolina's "Very Special Arts Festival." The festival is funded by the National Committee, Arts for the Handicapped, and will be held in conjunction with the Division of Exceptional Children's Annual Conference in Charlotte, November, 1979.

Irvine has been appointed to a two-year term (1979-81) on the North Carolina Alliance for Arts Education. He will be participating in planning sessions for developing an arts education conference for North Carolina which will be called "Arts and the Child," to be held in Raleigh, in March, 1980.

He recently served as coordinator for the Eastern N.C. Scholastic Art Awards Exhibition which involved schools in a 46 county area.
