Rehearsals Continuing for Stage and Script

Rehearsals are underway for the first Stage and Script production of the new school year. Inherit the Wind, by Jerome

Lawrence and Robert E. Lee, will be presented in Howard Chapel Oct. 10-13. Carl Frazier and Jim Poole portray the opposing lawyers in this dramatized version of the famous Scopes Monkey Trial. Kenny Smith plays the cynical reporter and critic H.L. Mencken. Rueggy Copen plays the defendant who is in love with the preacher's daughter, played by Karen Lewis Smith. J. Fred Pearce takes the role of the fanatical minister. Robert A. Farris, Jr. is taking time out from his busy Wilson law practice to try his hand at being a judge in this production. The Mayor of the beleaguered town and the local prosecutor are played by recent graduate John A. Stone and freshman Bob Poole, while the sympathetic bailiff is played by Jeff Mault.

The large cast of townspeople, jurymen, reporters and vendors also includes Cindy Moore, Eileen Woodard, Kay Ritchie, Patti Fahling, Diane Paulsell, Julia Fay, Kathy Denzler, Karen Ball, David Black, Geoffrey Davis, Micah

Christian, Tony DeCook, Ted Anderson, Robby Gray, Dana Daniell, Otis Coefield, Jesse Summerlin, George Murphy, Frank Silverthorne, Art Hughes, and Mark Trinkhaus.

BMI Competition Announced

A total of $15,000 is available to young composers in the 28th annual BMI Awards Composers competition sponsored by Broadcast Music, Inc., the world's largest performing rights licensing organization.

Established in 1951 in cooperation with music educators and composers, the BMI Awards project annually gives cash prizes to encourage the creation of concert music by student composers of the Western Hemisphere and to aid them in financing their musical education. Prizes ranging from $500 to $2,500 will be awarded at the discretion of the judges. To date, 245 students, ranging in age from 8 to 25, have received BMI Awards.

The 1979-80 BMI Awards competition is open to student composers who are citizens or permanent residents of the Western Hemisphere and are enrolled in accredited secondary schools, colleges and conservatories, or engaged in private study with recognized and established teachers anywhere in the world. Entrants must be under 26 years of age on Dec. 31, 1979. No limitations are established as to instrumentation, stylistic considerations, or length of works submitted. Students may enter
