Unfortunately, the Fashion Show was for women only!

Were You There?

by Nancy Bridges

We hope you were, because if not you really missed a great show! What show? The Fashion Up-Date for the fall-winter season!

The Women's Interdorm Association (WIA) sponsored the event which was presented for ACC women by Belk's of Wilson, Tuesday, October 30, Hardy Alumni Hall was the setting. As the ladies piled in, the one male among us precluded the show with soft music. We were privileged to have Mr. Clif Harris providing the music throughout the show.

By 6:29 p.m., the models, excitedly nervous, stood ready. 6:30 p.m. and the show began! Mrs. Jenny Lee was introduced to preside. As she spoke, each model, with the poise of a professional, took her individual runway walk to present each beautiful garment. The beautiful models were ACC students: Bobbie Bullock, Cheryl DuRant, Bobbie Edwards, Karen Game, Teresa Lee, Dawn Mannion, Kim Matheson, Geno Soriano, Donna Spring and Shauna Taswell.

After the first group of fashions came a brief intermission during which music/song entertainment by Clif. The WIA then presented a lucky door prize winner with the first gift certificate.

The Show proceeded with another group of lovely array. Throughout the show, we were all to see everything from jeans to skirts to suits to coats to evening gowns to accessories and even to sleepwear.

Another intermission followed; one more melody from Clif; and another gift certificate awarded.

The fashions seemed to get better and more "mouth-wateringly" gorgeous! the final selection included evening wear from practical to dazzling!

The show completed, the ladies sat awaiting the final certificate. Then everyone joined in a time of refreshments and socializing.

WIA is glad that the show was enjoyable for those attending, and we want to thank you for joining! And sincere appreciation goes to Belk's and to Mrs.

Paper presented

Thomas G. MacLennan, assistant professor of English at Atlantic Christian College, presented a paper at the annual conference of the National Middle School Association held in Dearborn, Mich., on Nov. 1.

His paper, "Measuring Growth in Middle School Writing Programs," deals with diagnosing problems middle school students are encountering in writing compositions and devising more effective ways of measuring growth in writing ability.

MacLennan is the author of numerous journal articles dealing with the teaching of middle school and secondary English language arts.

Scholarship awarded

Deborah Lynn Atkinson of Fayetteville, has been named the recipient of a $500 Honors Scholarship at Atlantic Christian College.

A senior at Seventy-First High School in Fayetteville, she plans to enter Atlantic Christian College in the fall of 1980 as a freshman and plans to major in accounting.

Her high school activities include secretary of the Math

Club, a member of the national Honor Society, the varsity volleyball team; she also lettered in basketball and softball. She is listed in "Who's Who in American High School Students," participated in the Gifted-Talented Program for six years, was a marshal at her school's 71st graduation in 1979, and a member of the Spanish Club.

She is daughter of Miss Waltraut Atkinson, 314 Folger St., Fayetteville.
