Fellowships Offered for 1980-81

College Press Release

Atlantic Christian College has established an Undergraduate Fellowship Program through which student "Fellows" may receive up to $8,000 during their four-year undergraduate studies at the college. The college has made provisions to award up to 20 undergraduate fellowships for the 1980-81 academic year.

The purpose of the fellowship program is to encourage academic excellence and campus leadership by providing special opportunities for students who demonstrate superior ability.

By placing the Fellows in advanced programs and requiring them to assume responsible roles in academics and campus positions, the college hopes to cultivate their potential and develop leaders of the future.

The college will appoint a faculty Mentor for each Fellow to allow fellowship responsibilities to be developed on a one-to-one basis. In addition a Program Coordinator will provide campus-wide opportunities and monthly leadership development seminars for the Fellows. Each Mentor will assist in planning the direction of each Fellow's academic pursuits with the Coordinator developing the leadership program at the college for the group.

To receive consideration for an "ACC Undergraduate Fellowship" students must make full application for admission to Atlantic Christian College and

Probation Policy Undergoes Changes

by F. Mark Davis

To continue to be enrolled at Atlantic Christian College, all students are expected to maintain satisfactory progress toward graduation. Satisfactory progress is defined as meeting at least the minimum required grade point average, as being enrolled on a probationary status, or as being approved to continue in enrollment by the Petitions Committee.

Minimum required grade point average is determined by the number of semester hours credit attempted by the student. Grade point average is computed by dividing the total number of quality points earned at Atlantic Christian College by the total number of semester hours attempted at Atlantic Christian College. Minimum grade point averages are:

by Jayne Peacock

All students, faculty, and administration are invited to attend a tea in honor of Dean Sarah Bain Ward, Dean of Women, sponsored by Women's Interdorm Association. The tea will be held on Saturday, May 3rd, from 3:00-4:30 in Hardy Alumni Hall.

Dr. Ward, who has been Dean of Women since 1944, will be retiring at the end of this academic year. We hope that this tea will be one small way of honoring her and thanking her for the many things she has done for the women and men of Atlantic Christian College. Please plan to attend this tea and help us honor this outstanding lady.
