

News From Around The BC Campus

Shirley Thompson and Angela Carroll

Everybody is "steady" counting the days until December 22 when they will be "making it" home for the holidays, "but good" for days and nights together!

The spirit is in the air and if you are planning a "Swinging" Christmas, here is a poem by Clement Moore that will boost your morale: A Visit From Saint Nicholas.

'Twas the night before Christmas and all through the pad Not a hep cat was swinging, and that's nowhere, dad; The stove was hung up in that stocking routine, In hopes that the fat man would soon make the scene; The kids had all had it so they hit their sacks, And me and the bride had begun to relax, When there started a rumble that came on real frantic So I opened the window to figure the panic; I saw a square short that was makin' fat tracks, Bein' pulled by eight dogs who were wearing hat racks; And a funny old geezer was flippin' in his lid, He told 'em to "make it" and man, like they did! I couldn't help diggin' the scene on the roof, As I stood there just waiting for chubby to goof; They stood by the chimney in bunches and clusters 'Til tubby slid down, coming on like Gangbusters. Like he was the squarest, the most absolute, But face it, who cares when he left all that loot? He laid the jazz on me and fled from the gig, Wailing, "Have a cool yule and man later, like, dig?"

On November 28, from 9-1 a. m. the Bennett family had its annual Thanksgiving Ball. The lovely decorations entwined the theme, "Harvest Moon;" the attire was semi-formal. We were entertained with music by Charlie Morrison and his all-stars. During the intermission, refreshments were served in the foyer.

"The Blue Room" was the theme for Reynolds Hall dance held in the dance area of the Student Union. The guests included young men from neighboring colleges.

Wedding bells have rung for Zenolia Thorton, a member of the sophomore class. We wish for her all joys in her future.

The persons who are responsible for the recent movies must have had the Bennett girls in mind when they presented "Tammy and the Bachelor." Everyone enjoyed the "flick."

season. I would have you once again restore Christ to his rightful place of prominence and importance. I would have you adopt as your motto: "O come into my heart, Lord Jesus, there is room in my heart for Thee."

Sometimes it's hard to tell who's behind all that make-up.

Schools are running full blast now, and again the teachers in some rooms are making the little things count.

Holiday Fashions

They're homeward bound for the holidays. The season for these young ladies will be filled with festive happiness, carols, bells, gifts, snow, holly, mistletoe, and dresses, dresses dresses. They will look merry and be merry as they join the many party-goers in the early twilight hours.

Brenda Saunders, '62, of Gastonia, N. C., will set the tone of the season in a brilliant orange two-piece velveteen dress. Her dress is featured with an array of beautiful colored sequins and sparkling ships of rhinestones.

For the special holiday event, Shelia Caesar, '60, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has chosen a flattering green satin sheath with a cut-away look. Her outfit can double for another occasion once the matching overskirt has been removed.

Those in the New England area will catch Elizabeth Payne, '61, as she gathers with the party-goers in a crisp floral print balloon dress. Bod blue and green floral designs highlight a snow-white background. Liz is from Boston, Mass.

In sunny Florida, Sharon Mizell, '63, will be wearing a cheerful alluring, yellow organdy dress. Her dress is smartly designed with tiny shoestring shoulder straps and a spray of tiny orange, white, and green flowers, with a bright orange waistband. Sharon chooses matching orange satin pumps. She is from Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Evening hours will find Yvette Williams, '63, of Springfield, Mass. in a vivid, holly-red, lace sheath. A wide satin bow will enhance the bodice of the dress giving it a look of high fashion. Her accessories—black opera pumps and black jewelry.

The Story of Christmas

And there were it that same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which has come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds returned.

As bewitching and dazzling as Christmas are these lovely young ladies adorned in holiday bound attire, which will serve them, as the year turns toward January, half a winter of dances, dates, and big week-ends yet to come.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Laura Jackson was in for a big surprise when she entered her room and the room suddenly became lighted and many friends began singing "Happy Birthday." The party was given by her roommate, Shirley Bruton. The girls enjoyed refreshments of cake, potato chips, peanuts and soft drinks.

glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard, and seen, as it was told unto them.
