Mrs. Gaither, Mrs. Miller examine fashions

Here is a photographic review of campus events that were "snapped" by the Bennett Banner "flash-happy," "trigger finger" photographers. It seems that a favorite was Bro. Howard Fuller. Our cameras caught him in the act of doing his thing for the Bennett Family.

Also interesting to our "lens" was the Clothing Department's tour of Africa. Though the emphasis was on the handiwork of the students, the theme was very timely and well carried out.

Our "snap-happy" photographer catches Cynthia Huntley as she regularly summons the "Belles" to class with the famous Bennett Bell.

Former Banner editor, Angeline Johnson and former Bennett student, Bertha Burris pose together in the foyer of the N.C. State Legislative Building where they are presently employed.

Backstage "shots" from "Barefoot in the Park" show exchange student, who is costume mistress for the Little Theatre Guild; Lois Ratliff, make-up mistress as she "works on" Alfred Jones to prepare him for the stage lights; Edgar "Butch" Murphy and Tyrone Miller as they "clown around" after the first night's performance; Hilda Freeman and Gregory Talley, leading characters, combine acting talents and photogenic abilities.

Our "camera bugs" have really been busy!!!
