SENIORS TELL BENNETT TO GET ON THE GOOD FOOT

The union needs to reflect the personality of a woman's college.

No curfew for the seniors, and co-ed visitation.

Provision of more social activities for students.

More parking space for all students' cars.

When will the desk lamps be restored in the senior dorm?

Laundry and meals should be optional.

I really feel that the pool should be open every night, and we need more dances.

Some funds should be appropriated for complete renovation of the Infirmary and the Medical Staff, also the Administration building.

Eliminate the double standard, the fact that some students are getting over while others are working hard to make it.

Bennett should go co-ed.

We really need a re-evaluation of the general graduation requirements.

Some administrators should be expelled, for examples!!!!

Longer hours for the Snack Bar and the Post Office.

Bennett should get some adequate washing machines for all the dorms.

Get rid of tickets on the student cars.

It would be nice if the physical education dept. were a little more cohesive.

Senior women should be thought of as mature women and not someone that needs to be sheltered.

Dorms should remain a status symbol, and the senior dorm for seniors.

Bennett can improve on the food situation.

Bennett needs to have a rental service, example for refrigerators.

The science division should realize the potential of all of its students, and not a certain few.

Bennett should find a better way to inform students about opportunities that are available for jobs.

Certain electric appliances that are a necessity such as radios should not be an added expense to the students. For the price we already pay for room and board this should be included already.

It appeared that B.C. was going through a depression when the students arrived at breakfast only to find NO EGGS, just bread and meat.

ROVING REPORTER

What Is Your Opinion Of The XX Olympiad.

About the XX Olympiad, I feel that the judges were extremely harsh in decisions involving U. S. athletes. I may be prejudiced against them as an American, yet I feel that a neutral party would feel the same way. I do not look forward to future Olympiads; I only see them as getting more difficult for everyone involved.

—Gail Dickerson
Sophomore

I felt that at that particular time it was inappropriate for such a political murder. It is quite disgusting when you cannot have an organized game of sports without a political or racial undercurrent being involved.

—Darlene Rose
Junior

I think all the beauty of athletics was lost in this year's olympics. It became too political. Also I felt that the repressing of the gold medals from the black athletes was an injustice that should not be overlooked. If their gold medals were taken as a result of a common brotherly gesture then why weren't other medals taken as a result of the shedding of tears or the throwing of the peace sign. My conclusion from these actions is that the olympics should be discontinued. For as long as there is hate, war, and racism, incidents such as the previous ones will occur at the olympics or anywhere else that there is a world wide fussion of people and injustice will not triumph.

—Uyvonne McFadden
Freshman

All in all the olympiad was very dynamic even though there was tragedy involved. I felt there was a little unfairness too, but the basketball game was very much so. Mark Spitz was tremendous and of course Larry Black, Eddie Hart and their teammates.

—Jennifer Wilkins '73

I think it was nice this year. Next year, maybe the U.S. will be ready, and will win more medals, especially gold. The murders were terrible. The Olympics is a sign of peace. Hostility dies down at this time and the deaths ruined it. Even with the winning of medals, it didn't seem the same.

—Linda Wallace
Freshman

I liked the games, but not the deaths. After that, everything was better. I don't think they should have stopped he games. The U.S. track team concerning the Blacks was unfair.

—Denise Whittle
Freshman

I think everything was alright, until the murders. They should have stopped the Olympics until the disaster was solved. But then, they shouldn't have because of the people who paid. They could have stopped two or three hours of the games.

—Phyllis Carroll
Freshman

I think it was a complete mess and politically orientated.

POET'S CORNER
THEME: POLITICS VS. LOVE

LOVE

MISTAKES
Our love was all a mistake
I'm sorry we didn't realize it until it was too late.
We thought this was love, oh so real
We thought this until the shiny cover began to peel
I was happy to love you
How was I to know I was only making you sad and blue
All the heartaches were all my fault
I thought our love had the perfection of a store bought malt
It seems all my dreams and hope are going to crumble
Now I will know not to fall just because I've stumbled.
—Sandra White

A BED TIME PRAYER FOR HIM

As I kneel before my bed each night,
At the close of a weary day
I bury my head in my trembling hands
As tears fall as I pray
Dear God, as unworthy as I am
I ask one thing of thee
Bless the one I love tonight
Help him to remember me
Dear God, he's only human, you know
So when the day is done
He may be as lonely as I am now,
And turn to another one
Not always can I turn to him
And take him by the hand
But God you can go with him
And make him understand
Just help him to keep me in his heart
'Till soon we meet again
Although we are sometimes far apart,
I love him God Amen.

POLITICS

ON ELECTION DAY

Nixon or McGovern, that's what's happening man
They both gonna end the war in Vietnam
Gonna bring peace and harmony
Yea they are, to this racist country.
They gonna feed the poor, fatten them up
Don't mean nothing that they'll do it with what rich whites don't dump
They gonna do right by us dumb niggers
Gonna let us show that we can be more than chumps
Yea man, they're really what's going on
They gonna be nice and cool for us poor fools,
That is, until election day,
Then, my black brothers and sisters
Dig it, dumb dudes
They gonna tell you to kiss their ass.

THE POLITICS OF AMERICA

America will not sign the treaty banning genocide
Because from its own murders it can no longer hide.
The murder of millions of non-whites in this country
Their dirty ass scandals locked in the mind won't see.
Annihilation of all colored peoples in body and soul
In this country is a thing for all to behold.
The ghettos and slums built to oppress Blacks
The reservations created to give the Reds no slack.
Then whitey created the glorious word patriotism
To keep all those under his damn feet in colonialism.
Slavery is not gone, freedom has never existed
For people with the wrong color skin mind twisted.
So when the natives and black "immigrants" got restless
Whitey said we'll emancipate them but keep them manless.
Freedom was shouted to the high heaven but tripping to hell
Was the only way that this freedom would sell.
So whitey is still sitting in his White House office
Dealing a death hand to all those under his thumb
Until the Ace of spade comes up amiss
And is followed by guns and violence till the revolution comes.

WHO FOR PRESIDENT

Nixon For President!!
McGovern For President!!
Who's it gonna be???
My reply was
It don't make no difference neither one of them gona do anything for me!!
—Natlyn T. McGhee

FROM A BLACK PERSPECTIVE

Wallace for president his momma for vice president was scribbled
on the men's room wall on over the toilet Where it's supposed to be.
