Miss Roette Cockerham is improving after an illness of several days.

One rainy day not long ago a "charming" young lady of about sixty came into the wool room and asked Uncle Dave Masten to escort her home promising to let him carry her umbrella if he did so. Now we're not saying if he went or not, but shortly afterwards the gallant David was seen to grab his lunch basket and hat and "take off" in that direction. Woe is me.

L. H. C. Club of Elkin

On Thursday evening, June 7th, the Lucy Hanes Chatham Club began its summer program with a Weiner Roast held at Klondike Lake. Special guests included the ball team and Coach Hambricht and wife. Weiners and marshmallows were roasted over a huge bonfire, after which games and contests were enjoyed on the Lodge lawn. Around sixty guests enjoyed the hospitality of the following girls, who acted as hostess for the Club: Mary Brown, Fay Reavis, Opal Pinnix and Orabelle Wagoner.

The Lucy Hanes Chatham club enjoyed a delightful lawn party at the home of Miss Juanita Billings in East Elkin on Thursday evening, June 14th. Old fashioned games and contests were enjoyed on the lawn with Charlie Munday taking the day as "Cabbage", during one of the contests. The guests included the girls' boy friends. The party came to a close with the serving of a delicious salad course. Miss Billings was assisted by Misses Emma Burcham and Collie Myers, as joint hostesses.

Plans are being perfected for our camping trip to be held the first of July. Don your bathing suits, girls, we are planning the best time yet.

L. H. C. CLUB No. 2

A business meeting was held in the foremen's room on Thursday, June 7th, with Mrs. Beatrice Willard having charge of the program. The theme used was "Promises," which proved to be very interesting. A paper, "The Art of Keeping A Promise", was read by Tessie Stinson, following which an enjoyable talk was made by the president, Bessie Gilliam. During the business session the by-laws and constitution was read for the benefit of new members. The meeting came to a close with the use of the club benediction.

Thursday, June 14th, Mrs. Bessie Gilliam and Mrs. Gertrude Day entertained the Club at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Gilliam at Pleasant Hill. The guests found their places at the table by means of dainty place cards. A delicious four-course luncheon was served and between courses Little Misses Ruth Ray and Marie Wellborn sang and gave two readings. The luncheon was served by Misses Annie Lauria Ray and Beulah Couch, dressed in dainty costumes. The color scheme of pink and green, club colors, was carried out in detail. Guests included the members of the Club and the following friends, Gavin Dortch, Noah Darnell, Free Pardue, Brannon Day, Dallas Gilliam and Miss Vera Austin, of Winston-Salem.

IREDELL C. MONEY TAKEN BY DEATH

Funeral Services Held Saturday Afternoon at 2 o'Clock From Grassy Creek Church

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Grassy Creek Methodist church for Iredell Columbus (Bud) Money, 68, who died from a sudden heart attack Thursday afternoon at the home of his son, Worth Money, in East Elkin. The deceased had been afflicted with a heart disorder for some time. He was a member of long standing of the Methodist church and was a highly esteemed citizen.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Calvin Collins, of the Cool Springs community; four sons, Gene, Worth and Clyde Money, of Elkin and Joseph Money, of Lenoir.

The final rites were in charge of Rev. J. W. Bryant, assisted by Rev. R. H. Kennington, pastor of the Jonesville Methodist church, and Rev. J. L. Powers of Elkin. Interment was in the church cemetery beside his wife, Mrs. Parthena Collins Money, who passed away three years ago.

Tommy: "Father, my Sunday school teacher says if I'm good I'll go to heaven."

Father: "Well."

Tommy: "Well, you said if I were good I'd go to the circus; now, I want to know who's telling the truth."

Stunning and Stunned

Alyce—The bride looked stunning, didn't she?

George—Yes, and the bridegroom looked stunned, didn't he?
