

ELKIN MILL

SHOP, DYE AND POWER PLANT

We are sorry to report that Mr. Jim Lyons was sick over the week-end, but glad to say he is back at work.

Clyde Hall attended the ball game in Mount Airy Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burgiss spent Sunday in Yadkin visiting friends.

Dave Woodruff spent the week-end in Greensboro visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Harmon. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Harmon who will spend a few days.

Be careful folks, Walter Burgiss has tried to turn his Ford into a little silver roadster or "sumpin'."

Come on folks in this department, let's try to make this the most interesting part of the paper. You be sure to save all the news for me next time.

SPOOLING AND BURLING

Miss Mary Etta Laffoon spent last week-end visiting relatives in Kernersville.

Mrs. Fae Reavis and sons, Charles and Basil, have moved into the Groce property in Arlington.

Miss Nannie Parks attended the baptizing at Pleasant Ridge last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Broadus Renegar spent Thursday and Friday with their sister, Mrs. Willie Gough, in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. H. C. Davis entertained for her son Robert in honor of his ninth birthday at her home Aug. 25th. The following guests were present: Misses Romie Parker, Frances Sprinkle, Bettie Haynes and Masters Jimmie and Tommie Parker, Rannie Smith, Jimmie Hanks and the honor guest.

Mrs. Lena Hodge spent a few days last week with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Della Hodge and attended the revival at her home church.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Laffoon and family spent last Sunday with Mrs. Laffoon's mother, Mrs. J. R. Burch, near Rusk.

Mrs. Ophelia Day and family spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Day.

Charlie Long umpired the Elk-in-Mount Airy ball game at Mount Airy, August 26th.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mason spent last week-end with their aunt, Mrs. Clem Dowell, near Greensboro.

Miss Marie and Lucile Mock, of Toledo, Ohio, are visiting Miss Elizabeth Underwood, of Jonesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Eldridge and family, of Winston-Salem, were the week-end guests of Elmer Eldridge, on Elk Spur street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Haynes attended a chicken stew at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Myrtle Kcys, in Boonville, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Myers and family and Mrs. Jane Myers spent last Sunday at Pores Knob and Yellow Jacket Lake, near Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Ina Holcomb spent a few days last week sight seeing in Washington, D. C. She returned home by the way of the Shenandoah Valley and visited a few of the Caverns.

Mr. and Mrs. Massie Wilkins and family of Arlington, spent Sunday, August 25th with Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Wilkins and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Alston Boles and family attended the annual Boles reunion August 26th at the home of J. E. Boles.

Mrs. Bettie Mauldin spent Sunday with her neice, Mrs. Everette Darnell.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Freeman and family spent last Saturday in Greensboro visiting Mrs. Freeman's sister, Mrs. E. G. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Davis and family visited relatives in Taylorsville Sunday.

Miss Margurite Lowery spent the week-end at Mooresville visiting her brother, A. B. Lowery, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sparks took their small son to Statesville last Sunday where he is taking a series of treatments at the Davis hospital.

We are sorry to note that Mrs. Luke Darnell is a patient at the Hugh Chatham hospital.

Mrs. Fae Reavis and Mr. and Mrs. U. L. Renegar attended the Elk-in-Mount Airy ball game last Sunday.

Miss Collie Myers wishes to invite all her friends in this department over to her home to see their new twin calves.

SPINNING AND CARDING

Mrs. C. B. Stanley, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss Emma Hudspeth, left Saturday for her home in Bowling Green, Ky.

Miss Dorothy Penfield attended the ball game in Mount Airy Sunday.

Mont Jones spent the week-end in Raleigh.

We have learned that Miss Dorothy Penfield has become a man hater. What about this, Dorothy?

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Byrd spent last week-end at Roaring River.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Holbrook spent last week-end in High Point.

Mrs. Paul Reece visited friends in Mount Airy over the week-end

Charles Darwin Smithey spent the past week-end at his home in West Jefferson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Key spent last week-end with Mrs. Key's mother in Abingdon, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Gambill visited friends and relatives in Walnut Cove recently.

R. E. Bovender, of Thomasville, spent the week-end in Elkin on business. Estelle, we wonder if you can tell us what business?

We heard that Juanita Billings is planning to go north—that is, is Harvey doesn't go east.

The many friends of Mrs. J. L. Powers will be glad to learn that she is now able to go to her meals at the State Sanatorium where she is a patient. She will soon be able to come home.

WEAVING DEPARTMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Young, Mrs. Ina Holcomb and Mrs. Ada Swaim spent four days of last week sight seeing in Washington, D. C.

Rev. and Mrs. Johnnie Weatherman and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Haynes attended church at Fall Creek Sunday.

Mrs. Sherman Newman was absent from work last week due to the illness of her husband.

Mrs. Odell Palmer spent the week-end in King.

Among those attending the ball game in Mount Airy on Sunday from our department were: Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Long, Finn Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pittman, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brannon, Clyde Day, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stinson and Grady Day.

Etta Mae Long spent the week-end in Winston-Salem visiting Mildred Minnish.

Those visiting Mrs. Walter Swaim during last week-end were Mrs. Clent Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Darnell, Walter Swaim, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Willard. Mrs. Swaim is a patient at the Davis hospital in Statesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Foy Walls spent the week in Burlington, Durham and Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleat Simmons and children returned last week from Richmond, Va., where they visited Mr. Simmons' brother. They also went to Washington, D. C., while they were away.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Darnell and children returned Sunday after a week's stay in New York City visiting Mrs. Darnell's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Guy White.

(Editor's Note: We regret that due to lack of space part of the news from this department was necessarily omitted.)

WOOL DEPARTMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Holcomb spent the week-end in Thurmond the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Holcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hemric had as their Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carter, of Elkin.

Mr. James Burcham and son, Russell, spent Tuesday, August 14th in Mount Airy on business.

Sam Erannon, with a party of friends, spent Sunday the 19th, at Healing Springs.

James Burcham took his gang from the Wool Department on a camping trip to Bromine Arsenic Springs, Crumpler, during the week-end of August 10th. Those making up the party were Mr. and Mrs. James Burcham, Letty Burcham, Emma Groce, Roette Cockerham, Leona Darnell, Pauline Masten, Ralph Fletcher, Myrtle Young, Sam Brannon, Dave Masten, Sol Masten, Ray Russell and Morgan Hanks.

Rob Robbins, who has been employed here this summer, will leave August 28th to enter the University of S. C.

Charlie Munday moved his family here from Hickory. They have taken an apartment on West Main street.

Miss Ola Teal has been out sick for a week, but is much better at this writing.

Uncle Sol Masten has been seriously ill at his home on Elk Spur street for some time. We hope he will soon be well.

Mrs. Emory Lunday, of Galax, Va., is spending this week with Miss Roette Cockerham.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Munday had as their guests on last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Throngburg, of Hickory.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burcham spent Sunday visiting Mr. Grant Cheek, at Lomax.

Among those attending the ball game in Mount Airy last Sunday were Roette Cockerham, Sam Brannon, Russell Burcham and Herman Laffoon.

WINSTON MILL

(Continued From Page Two)

at a delicious dinner Saturday evening, August 18th.

Hugh Isaac Ladd spent the week-end as the house guest of Mr. Charlie Hanks, near Roaring Gap.

Lloyd Hensley and Freeman Tyler spent the week-end in Roanoke, Va., visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Tyler.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Bates spent the week of August 22nd in Pulaski, Va., as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Hill.

We are very glad to welcome to our wash room on the night shift, Bill Kimbill, a fugitive from Elkin, and we hope Bill has as good a time here as he did in Elkin.

Tom P. Strader spent last week-end at Lake Lure, near Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Bates were the recent guests of Elmer Eldridge and family, of Elkin.

Harvey Roper, of Georgia, was the guest of Luther Hanks Thursday night, August 26th.