A GIRL'S DIARY—IN 1890

Dear Diary: William called for me this evening, and after much persuasion Mamma consented that I go driving with him—alone. Just think, dear diary, William and I together with only the stars and the beautiful silvery moon for company. Oh, I shall never forget it. We drove to Bird Center and I had a sarsaparilla. Coming home, William let Dobbin pick his own way, and put his arms around me. I am afraid to tell Mamma. And when Dobbin stopped at the creek to get a drink William kissed me. Oh, diary, I am so happy. It is eleven o'clock now, but I am still so thrilled I cannot sleep.—Exchange.

UNANIMOUS

I would I were beneath a tree,
A-sleeping in the shade;
With all the bills I've got to pay,
PAID.

I would I were beside the sea,
Or sailing in a boat;
With all the things I've got to write,

WROTE.
I would I were on yonder hill,
A-basking in the sun;
With all the work I've got to do,
DONE.
