WEAVE ROOM

We are glad to have Minnie Wray back to work after three weeks absence due to illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Pittman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Huston Tucker.

Cleat Simmons is ill with a good case of mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Harris spent Sunday with Mrs. W. B. Harris.

Miss Deanie Holcomb spent last Sunday with Miss Zoldean Emerson.

Tom Parker has been transferred from loom-fixing to warp making. We hope he enjoys it.

Mrs. Mary Darnell is much improved after an operation at the Hugh Chatham hospital.

Marvin Mayberry says his "navy" is running much better.

Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Walker, of Mountain Park, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Foy Walls.

We are glad to have Lucy Layell back on the day shift.

The many friends of Rema Day will be glad to know she is improving after an operation.

The weavers who are making C. C. C. cloth say they hope the boys enjoy wearing the clothes as much as they enjoy making them.

Haste Swaim is suffering with an infected hand. We hope he will soon be able to return to work.

Mrs. Mae Collins is ill at the Hugh Chatham hospital at this writing. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Lola Hudspeth and Mrs. Gertrude Day are back at work after being absent from work a few days due to flu.

Hugh Madison is a patient at Hugh Chatham hospital.

Conrad Holcomb and Boyce Swaim, of Mooresville, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Gilliam.

Rat Darnell and Raymond Dowell made a special trip to see Dr. Nicks. Their trip was made to ask Dr. Nicks if a dog could smell an opossum if the dog had been vaccinated.

Joe Darnell, Dallas Gilliam, Rat Darnell, Harvey Carter and David Darnell motored to Winston-Salem Saturday evening and attended the fiddler's convention.

SPOOLING AND BURLING

Mrs. Bill Freeman has been out sick with a cold, but is back at work again.

We are glad to have Mrs. Mae Barber, Miss Reba Sparks and Miss Virginia Ray added to our Chatham family.

We have been having some excitement down in our department such as burning hats, etc. Well, Allen is a new son worth it?

Mrs. Marguerite Walker and

Mrs. Mary Wilkins are back at work again after a long absence due to illness.

Jack Freeman is sick with flu at this writing. We hope he will soon be able to return to work.

We girls are enjoying working on the C. C. C. cloth. I wonder what we will say after one hundred thousand yards are burlled.

Grady Linville and Wilson Broadstreet, of Kernersville, will spend the week-end at the home of Miss Mary Etta Laffoon.

Marvis Allred and sons, Jack and Earl, spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Ray.

Mrs. Della Shore, sister of Mrs. Fannie Mason, has returned from the Durham hospital. She is improving nicely at this writing.

Mrs. Bill Walker is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. D. Miller, of Boone, this week-end.

We are glad to have Mrs. Hazel Howell, Irene Judd and Zetta Lawis back in the Spool room.

Mr. Eldridge said he didn't have any news with the exception that it looked like work in his department.

WOOL ROOM

Misses Roette Cockerham, Leone Darnell, Doris Reece and Emma Hudspeth spent Saturday, January 26th in Winston-Salem shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burcham, Mrs. Hugh Brannon, Misses Pauline Masten, Myrtle Young and Sam Brannon shopped in Charlotte January 12th.

We are glad to welcome Mrs. Pat Osborne, Mrs. Gaither, Mrs. Juanita Steelman, Mrs. Sallie Morrison to the Spinning department.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Beeher, of Bristol, Virginia, were the Sunday guests of Miss Pauline Morrison. We are wondering why a certain young man in this department wants to know whether or not Freida Brown is married. She says no but she would like to be.

Mrs. Eugene Baugess, who prior to her marriage on January 25, 1935, was Miss Vera Briggs. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Briggs, of Sanford. Mr. and Mrs. Baugess are residing near the city on the Rural Hall road.—Photo by Anchor Studios.

Rev. J. T. Murray, of Winston-Salem spent Saturday night with Rev. J. L. Powers and family.

This is news! Jim Young went to church at East Elkin the other Sunday night.

Everyone is invited to attend Sunday school at East Elkin Baptist church every Sunday at 9:45 and to preaching services every third Sunday.

Misses Freida Brown and Mary Laster spent the week-end in Sparta recently. We wonder why.

Everett Byrd spent the week-end at Roaring River.

John Kelly spent the past week-end with his parents in Taylorsville.

We wish someone would teach

Jim Young a new song. For the past three weeks he has been going around singing "I'm Free Again". Please come to our rescue.

We wonder which name Strawberry likes the best by this time, Garfield, Sap, King, Noah, Jim or Johnny. Strawberry, have the boys stopped throwing tubes at you.

Anyone having a sick cow please call Noah Holbrook. He's a good doctor.

DYE HOUSE

We are glad to welcome Mr. Ode Travis to this department.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wright and son, of Mountain View, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Woodruff, in North Elkin.

Sam Atkinson said tell everybody he had been dyeing for a week. So sad, Sam.
