MARY

Mary raised a flock of lambs
 To get some pocket money,
 She raised them very carefully,
 For each was a honey.

She shipped her pets to market
 And routed them all rail,
 Then made a little budget
 For the proceeds of the sale.

She bought a new Ford motor car
 A swell new gown and hat,
 And paid for each a dollar down,
 A wise little maid at that.

A letter came to her one day,
 Her smile changed to a frown;
 And Mary saw that she had been trimmed
 A nice dark shade of brown.

No check was in the envelope;
 It was no billet doux,
 But just a railroad freight bill
 Showing undercharges due.

The sheriff took the motor car,
 Also the gown and hat,
 Which left poor Mary in the raw,
 A sightly maid at that,

Then Mary smiled a sickly smile,
 And then a check she wrote,
 For though I shipped a car of sheep,
 I guess I am the goat.
 —The California Sheep Grower

Doctor: (to dog bitten patient)
 "You have hydrophobia—fatal
 you know."

Patient: "Give me a pencil and paper."

Nurse: "Shall I call a lawyer to assist in making your will?"

Patient: "Will nothing, I am making up a list of people I want to bite."

NAPPING DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Allie Pope entertained her Sunday School class with an Egg hunt and Weiner roast Easter Monday afternoon. She also had as her week-end guest, her niece Miss Gladys Eddinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Waller had as their guest during the Easter holidays, Mrs. W. D. Williamson and daughter, and Mr. J. E. Bradly, of Durham, Mesdames W. D. Davidson, R. F. Babs of Winston-Salem and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Butner, of East Bend.

Ruby Gough and Francis Jarvis attended a birthday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gough in Mount Airy, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hanks spent the Easter holidays in Benham, N. C. with Mrs. Hanks parents.

Miss Naomi Wooten spent Easter with her father in Harmony, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Zebb Cash visited Mrs. Cash's mother in Sparta last week-end.

Mrs. May Whitner and Mrs. Henry Trotter, Jr., were present at the Ledford Reunion which was held in Franklin, N. C. last Sunday. There were approximately 300 present, the occasion being in honor of their grandfather, who on May the 5th will be 89 years of age. Dinner was served in the Franklin school house.

Mrs. Dennis Norman and friends attended the Fiddlers convention at the Shady Grove school in Advance, Monday night April 22nd.

Emma Parrish spent Easter with her parents in South Carolina.

The girls in the cloth department are somewhat downcast since Buck Shore, the new man of the cloth department, has announced his marriage of last August.

FINISHING DEPARTMENT

Lillian Myers spent Easter in Hamptonville.

Margaret Hilton spent Easter Monday in Martinsville, Va. We wonder if she got married.

If we have had any weddings in this department during Easter its all a deep secret. I sure can't find out a thing.

Carma Harrold spent the Easter Holidays visiting relatives in Mt. Airy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hester spent Sunday in Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carter spent the week-end in Charlotte visiting friends.

Hattie Shugart is out to catch her a man. She seems to think she can do lots better with a car.

That's the reason she says she bought it.

This department extends its deepest sympathy to Mrs. Mamie Apperson due to the death of her mother.

SHIPPING DEPARTMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thompson have returned home from Washington, D. C. where they spent the Easter Holidays.

Mrs. J. M. Bell spent last week-end with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell.

Mrs. Margaret Taylor and son spent Easter Holidays in Durham with her father, Mr. O. J. Poe.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Baugess spent several days with his parents at North Wilkesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Banner and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Davenport spent the week-end at Sanford with their parents.

We think the reason "Berry" is getting so fat is because the boys upstairs buy him plenty of milk.

Welcome home, Miss Austin, we surely have missed you.

MOTHER

Oh, mother, sweet mother, there cannot be another
 Whose love is as true and as constant as thine,

In pleasure or trouble your love seems to double

God bless you, dear mother, sweet mother of mine.

Your love 'tis a mother's and is different from others,

It seems like a love which is truly divine,

Your hugs and carressing bring down divine blessing,

God bless you, dear mother, sweet mother of mine.

—Unknown.

Sunday School teacher—"Can you tell me something about good Friday?"

James—"Yes'm; he was the fellow that did the housework for Robinson Crusoe."

A Thought For The Day

Oh, let us fill our hearts with the glory of the day,
 And banish every doubt and care away;

For the world is full of roses, and the rose is full of dew,
 And the rose is full of heavenly love that drips from me to you.

—James Whitcome Riley.

Doctor: "Sit down sonny, you have shown good manners long enough."

Small Boy: "It ain't good manners, doctor, it's a boil."

Parks-Harmon

The marriage of Miss Ruth Parks of Friendship and Mr. Arthur Harmon of Elkin, was solemnized, Saturday evening, April 27th, at 5:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride near Friendship, with the Rev. T. S. Draughon, pastor of Friendship officiating. The ceremony was performed in front of an improvised altar in the living room. The color scheme of white and green being used throughout the lower floor. Lovely tulips, narcissus and dogwood were used in the decoration. The bride entered on the arm of her father, L. C. Parks, who gave her in marriage. Mrs. Harmon wore for her nuptials a suit of navy blue with white accessories.

The bride is the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Parks of Friendship and has a number of friends who will be interested in her marriage. She is a graduate of the Dobson high school.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Harmon, of Elkin, and is employed in the weaving department of the Elkin Mill.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding dinner was given in honor of the young couple by the brides parents. The dining room was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. The guest included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harmon, the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Woodruff, Miss Blanche Harmon, Mr. Hugh Harmon, Mr. Luther Parks, Mr. Morgan Greenwood and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Parks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon are at home to their friends at the home of the bridegroom in Elkin.

Day-Durham

Mrs. Nannie Privette Durham, of Jonesville, and Mr. Charlie Day of Elkin, announce their marriage on April 17, 1935, the Rev. Grant Cothorn officiating. Mr. Day is employed in the wool sorting department of the Old Mill.

A little boy whose grandmother had just died wrote the following letter, which he duly posted:

"Dear Angels: We have sent you grandma. Please give her a harp to play, as she is short-winded and can't blow a trumpet."
