L. H. C. Club of Winston

The members of the Lucy Hanes Chatham Club of Winston enjoyed a delicious steak supper at Washington Park on Monday evening, June 17th, at six-thirty. The guests gathered in the pavilion where games and contests were enjoyed until supper was announced. Following supper dancing was engaged in until a late hour. About thirty-five members and their guests enjoyed this delightful occasion. Special guests included the baseball team of the Winston Mill.

Mrs. Henry Trotter, Jr., Misses Earline Mayberry, Gypsy Smitherman and Ava Lee Williams acted as hostesses.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Mamie Dyer, 327 Gloria Avenue. This will be a business meeting for members only.

BLANKETEERS BEAT LYNCHBURG

a shutout game. He fanned five and forced seven others to ground to him on the mound. Allowing only eight hits, he kept them scattered so as to retain control of the situation at all times.

Mackie and Gough did the most damage for Chatham, each sending three runners home. The former cracked out a homer and triple and the latter got a homer with two aboard. Trent got a triple and a single to lead the Shoemen at bat.

The Blanketeers proved so popular with the Lynchburg fans who had been howling for a club that could decisively whip the Shoemen that their return for another two games at Lynchburg sometime in July was arranged.
