Chatham

Blanketeer

Vol. 3

SEPTEMBER 7, 1935

No. 5

To Meet Buffalo Here For Championship

FIRST GAME OF SERIES THURSDAY

North Carolina Semi-Pro Champions

Will Be Played Here At Riverside Park; Buffalo Has Strong Aggregation

The first game of the champion series between the strong Buffalo, South Carolina team, winner of the Championship of South Carolina, and the Chatham Blanketeers, will be played in Elkin on Thursday, September 12th, at Riverside Park at 4 p. m.

Buffalo will bring to Elkin one of the outstanding teams in South Carolina, and will be headed by such star players as Molly Cox, George Rhynehardt, Glenn Short, Bruce Galloway, Sam Fowler, Russel Gillespie, Johnnie Wertz, and others.

Cox played Piedmont League ball and Southern League ball for a number of years. Rhynehardt is manager and played for Charlotte in the Sally League, and for Washington in the big league. Bruce Galloway played for Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics for a number of years at shortstop. Sam Fowler pitched for the St. Louis Cardinals a few years ago and spent a number of years in the Southern League. He is a left-hand pitcher. Johnnie Wertz pitched for the Chicago White Sox only three years ago and pitched in the American Association for a few years. Wertz is a right-hand pitcher. Russell Gillispie, left-hand pitcher, has

(Continued On Page Four)

Outing Held At Healing Springs

Eighty-five foremen, sub-foremen and office force of both the Winston and Elkin Mills, enjoyed their annual outing held at Healing Springs, near Crumpler, the week-end of August 30th. The week-end of August 30th. group went over on Friday evening and returned on Sunday.

This outing has become an annual affair. The week-end was spent hunting, fishing, swimming, etc. On Saturday night an oldfashioned square dance was enjoyed by the party.

This was declared to be the most enjoyable outing held by this group up to this time.

Pictured above is the 1935 edition of the Chatham Blanketeers, local baseball team, which, by virtue of its victories in the Charlotte Observer Semi-Pro Tournament, is semi-pro champion of North Carthe of its victories in the work of North Car-olina. The Blanketeers will soon meet Buffalo, S. C., for the championship of the two Carolinas. Left olina. The Blanketeers will soon meet Davis, outfield; Guy Clodfelter, shortstop; Eddie Weston, cen-to right, they are: front row-Clarence Davis, outfield; first base and cuttield to right, they are: Holly for base; Scott Fitzgerald, first base and outfield; second row-Hoyt Ham-ter field; Fred Hambright, third base; Stockton nitcher: Charlie Couch second row-Hoyt Hamter field; Fred halloright, hase; Harvey Stockton, pitcher; Charlie Gough, second base; Don Campbell, bright, manager and first base; Harvey Stockton, pitcher; Cornelius, loft field, Dot bright, manager and first base, field; third row-Corky Cornelius, left field; Delos Jones, catcher; Ab pitcher; Kermit Mackie, right field; Del Debbing, infielder Crater, utility; Shine Rumple, pitcher; Bob Robbins, infielder.

Pictured in front of the team are Avery and Monroe Hanes, bat boys.

Week-End Trip Is Enjoyed By Group

James Burcham entertained the employees of the Wool Room and several other guests with a trip to Bromine Arsenic Springs, at Crumpler, the past week-end.

The party motored over on Friday and returned Sunday. Boating, swimming, hiking and shooting were enjoyed. The guests enjoyed a square dance at the hotel Saturday evening. The following enjoyed this delightful Masten, Herman Laffoon, Herbert Graham, O. N. Harris, Luke Darnell, S. A. Masten and Banner Tilley.

trip: Mr. and Mrs. James Burcham, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. Bragg, Mr. and Mrs. Shine Rumple and daughter, Elizabeth; Misses Pauline Masten, Mary Etta Laffoon, Elizabeth Evans, Roette Cockerham, Leona Darnell, Myrtle Young, Sara Mae Renegar, Margaret Fleming, of Toledo, Ohio; Messrs. Russell Burcham, Jim Young, Ralph Fletcher, Noah Pardue, Herman Royall, Sam Brandon, David Masten, Jr., Rich Chatham, Dave half she wanted."

LEFT IN DOUBT

Policeman (after the collision): "You saw this lady driving toward you, why didn't you give her the road?"

Motorist: "I was going to, as soon as I could discover which