

ELKIN MILL

WEAVING DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Freil Pardue and daughter, Violet, spent Saturday, September 14th in Winston shopping.

Paul Crouse, of Ohio, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Tyra Cockerham.

Miss Sue Crouse left Thursday morning for Ohio, where she will be the guest of her brother, Paul Crouse and family.

Mrs. Minnie Wilkins and Mrs. Herman Day spent Saturday in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Walls spent the week-end in Winston-Salem visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hoots.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Tucker spent the week-end in Greensboro, visiting relatives.

Misses Irene Day and Bernice Wellborn spent last week in Greensboro visiting Mrs. Ed Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Couch and Mr. and Mrs. Edd Couch spent Saturday in Pinehurst.

Mrs. Kathryn Brannon, reporter for this department, is spending her vacation in Tennessee, the guest of a former classmate.

We are glad to report that the condition of Tom Parker, who is a patient at the Hugh Chatham hospital, is somewhat improved at this writing.

SPINNING AND CARDING

Miss Juanita Billings and Harvey Osborne spent last Sunday in Hickory and Lenoir.

Willie Childress and family are spending a short vacation in Martinsville, Virginia, the guests of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rose, of High Point, spent the past week-end the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Holbrook.

Mrs. Lillie Dunn spent the week-end in Danville, Va., and Greensboro, visiting relatives.

Jack Holcomb, James Freeman and Ed Boles spent the past week-end in Winston-Salem.

Freida, we would like to know who the new boy friend is?

We are glad to welcome Ralph Ray to this department.

Mrs. C. B. Stanley left Friday for her home in Kentucky after spending the summer with her father, S. C. Hudspeth.

Miss Alma Crouse, of Ohio, spent last week with her cousin, Miss Emma Hudspeth.

WOOL ROOM

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pardue announce the birth of a son on Friday, September 6th.

We are sorry to report the illness of Dick Minnish, who is a patient at the Hugh Chatham hospital.

Bill Brendle, of Winston-Salem, spent last week-end visiting Bud Masten.

Miss Roette Cockerham spent Sunday, September 8th in Statesville.

Ralph Fletcher and Noah Pardue spent last week-end at Healing Springs.

Russell Burcham and Bill Wellborn left Thursday, September 12 for State College, Raleigh, where they entered school for the winter.

Herman Royall spent last week-end at Traphill, visiting friends.

Misses Pauline Masten and Sue Crouse left Thursday for Ohio, where they will spend ten days visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Crouse and family.

Mrs. R. D. Roscoe, of Chapel Hill, is spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Masten.

Mrs. Eddie Weston is visiting her parents in Mayodan this week.

Jim Burcham spent Thursday in Raleigh.

SPOOLING AND BURLING

We welcome the following new ones to this department: Pearl Smith, Louise Cothren, Cecil Hayes, Mary Whitaker and Blanche Martin.

Miss Ruth Buelin is a patient at the Hugh Chatham hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Edith Freeman, Mrs. Clara Freeman and Miss Mary Etta Laffoon spent Saturday in Winston-Salem shopping.

Miss Fannie Myers spent last Sunday with Miss Mozelle Freeman.

Miss Collie Myers spent last week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Myers, of High Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Myers spent Friday evening in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. John Freeman says her husband isn't fond of chicken stew.

Mrs. Ora Bell Wagoner and Mrs. Daisy Vestal spent Saturday in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Bunnie Royal and Mrs. Edith Freeman spent last Sunday evening visiting Mrs. Bill Sparks.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Combs attended a picnic near Greensboro last week-end. The occasion was in honor of the Berea College alumni who live nearby.

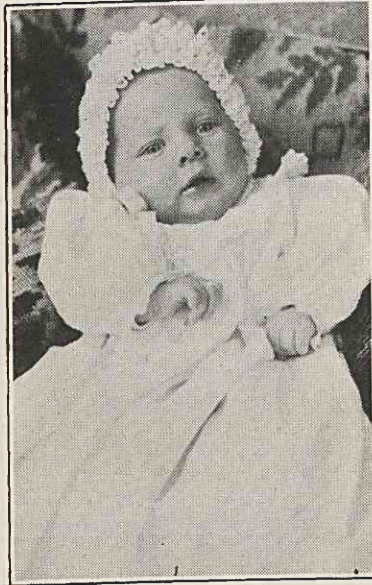

Miss Mary Brown visited in Statesville last week-end.

Miss Opal Pinnix spent last Saturday in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. Fae Reavis attended the Chatham-Greyhound ball game in Winston-Salem last week.

Let's work hard girls so we can catch up and not have to work on night time.

Guess Who This Is?

The above picture is the photo of one of our officials at the age of seven weeks. Can you guess who it is? The answer will appear in the next issue of the Blanketeer.

OLD MILL

Charlie Hanes spent last week-end in Winston-Salem visiting his parents.

Corky Cornelius spent Tuesday in Winston on business.

Wade Williams spent one day last week in Galax, Va., where he attended the Fair. He reports a muddy good time.

Quite a few have been on our sick list lately, including Montgomery Lyons, George Sparks and R. P. Barnett. We are glad to report that they are very much better. Mr. Barnett has been removed to his home from the Hugh Chatham hospital.

Odell Holcomb attended the circus in West Jefferson last Friday. How was it Odell?

W. F. Tulbert visited his mother in Statesville last week. She has been very ill at a Statesville hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Bates, of Spartanburg, S. C., spent the week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Newman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rycroft spent a few days recently the guests of Mr. Rycroft's parents in North Wilkesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Collins spent last Sunday visiting old friends in Concord.

J. H. White has moved to his new home in State Road.

Hugh Lyons and L. J. Porter and others had visitors over the week-end.

Raymond Vestal made a business trip to Winston-Salem recently.

A nickel contains more copper than nickel.

PLAY BUFFALO HERE TUESDAY

S. C. Team Evens Series By Winning Thursday; Play Again At Chester Saturday

With two games played in The Charlotte Observer semi-pro baseball tournament for the championship of North and South Carolina netting a win each for the Blanketeers and Buffalo, S. C., the Blanketeers will again meet the South Carolina team at Chester Saturday and will then return here for a game at Riverside Park Tuesday afternoon.

Winning the first game of the series here Thursday of last week 5 to 2, the Blanketeers the following Saturday defeated White Oak Mills, of Greensboro, 8 to 5.

In the second game with Buffalo Thursday at Chester, Buffalo won 2 to 1, each team scoring in the first inning and being held scoreless during the remainder of the game. Both Stockton and Fowler were in masterful form, yielding seven hits each and keeping them well scattered.

Cornelius netted Chatham's lone score of the game early in the first inning. Ezell and Hughey scored for Buffalo in the first.

In the initial game of the series here Clodfelter featured Chatham's attack, pounding out two hits in three trips. Chatham clinched the game in the seventh, bunching hits to score three runs.

Three Things

Three things to govern—temper, tongue and conduct.

Three things to cultivate—courage, affection and gentleness. Three things to commend—thrift, industry and promptness.

Three things to despise—cruelty, arrogance and ingratitude.

Three things to wish for—health, friends and contentment.

Three things to work for—security, independence and happiness.

Three things to admire—dignity, gracefulness and honesty.

Three things to give—aid to the needy, comfort to the sad and appreciation to the worthy.

Value of Health

It means that you will be in good spirits.

It means that you will be able to enjoy life.

It means that you will be an efficient worker.

It means that you can earn more money.

It means that you will have fewer accidents.

It means that you will save doctor's bills.