

ELKIN MILL

WOOL DEPT.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hatch and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Parker motored to Charlotte, May 2nd.

Mr. John Claire and Fred Page spent Sunday playing golf at Roaring Gap.

Russell Burcham, a student at N. C. State College spent the week-end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. James Burcham on Elk Spur street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hemric were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hemric on North Bridge St.

Miss Roette Cockerham spent the past week-end in Martinsville, Virginia, the guest of Mrs. Virginia Hauser. She motored to Danville, Va. on Sunday.

The Wool Room gang thinks Luke Darnell is growing younger instead of older.

Old man weather decided that the wool dept. would not be able to have their chicken stew last Friday night. He made it rain and turn cold so there wasn't anything to do but say, postponed.

Sam Brannon is batching since his mama and papa went away. The only company he has is his dogs and cats.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harris, a daughter, Dorothy Mae, April 28th.

Mrs. Noah Pardue and Miss Hortense Darnell have been transferred to the Spooling Dept.

BURLING DEPT.

Miss Dessie Reeves spent last week-end the guest of her sister in Statesville.

Mrs. Myrtle Haynes and Mr. Hugh Myers spent the past week-end in Winston-Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Broadus Renegar visited in Bristol, Virginia recently.

We are glad to welcome Martha Freeman back to work after several weeks illness.

Added to this department recently are Mrs. Marguerite Walker and Mrs. Edgar Hicks.

Mrs. Lissie Wagoner and Misses Mozelle Freeman and Beulah Gregory went on a fishing trip last week. How many fish did you get?

We are glad to welcome Mrs. Gladys Mickle to this department.

Among those on our sick list are Mesdames Ina Holcomb and Pearl Haynes, and Miss Hettie Maudlin.

Mary, what is this we hear about your being so crazy about working in the Carbonizing dept.?

We know of a lad who likes country roads, and we believe the wedding bells are about to ring. What about it, Couch?

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hicks spent last week-end in Pilot Mountain.

Some of the women up in the Cloth Dept. would like to know just what shift Marvin Holcomb works on.

Pearl has been singing for several days that new song called, "My Darling Black Mustache."

We see Charlie Long has a new white cap. We hope you don't lose this one.

Tom McBride and Russell Tucker are going into the Movie business.

Elmer Sparks is in the base ball racket.

Theo Barber got the jack-pot Saturday night.

Its getting serious when Charlie Freeman stays out 'til 2 in the morning.

Daisy doesn't have the blues anymore, but she comes looking mighty sleepy.

WEAVING DEPT.

Mrs. Julia Wagoner who has been ill for sometime spent Tuesday in Statesville at Davis Hospital where she received treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith of Winston-Salem, spent the past Sunday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Long. They also attended the funeral of Isaac Holoman.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Davis and Mr. C. H. Davis spent Sunday in North Wilkesboro with Mr. and Mrs. Ward Pharr.

Mr. W. F. Masten and family of Charlotte were the Sunday guests of Mrs. Laura Masten.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pardue of Statesville were the Saturday guests of Mrs. Julia Wagoner at her home in Jonesville.

Mrs. Harvey Couch was called to High Point Wednesday due to the death of her cousin.

We welcome Mrs. Mary Darnell back to this department. We also welcome the many new faces that have come into this department recently.

Mesdames Nannie Lane and Rema Day have been transferred to the morning shift.

Mrs. Cora Day reports that she has been working too hard to go any place. We will all be up to see you one day, Cora, when you get that flower garden to blooming.

Mrs. Charlie Young and Miss Beatrice Newman shopped in Winston-Salem Friday.

We wonder what has become of Hal Boles. He used to come down to see us sometimes and invite us up to see the cloth. We are just too good for you aren't we Hal?

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darnell and Mrs. Ella Lawrence spent Sunday in High Point. They were accompanied home by Misses Louise, Lestine Lawrence and Iris Collins who had been attending the annual convention of the "Phla-Bra" classes of the Elkin Valley Baptist Church.

SCOURING AND CARBONIZING DEPT.

Mr. Loyd Porter spent last Sunday with friends in Boone, N. C.

Mr. Bob Robbins spent last week-end with his father and mother Rev. and Mrs. R. R. Robbins in High Point, N. C.

Mr. S. E. Newman was a business visitor to Winston-Salem on Tuesday.

Mr. J. W. Hemric and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cleave Armstrong at Cycle, N. C.

Mr. Graham Newman has resigned his position in this department and gone to raising sheep. He is now on a sheep ranch in Graystone, Colo.

Mr. Charlie Hanes spent the past week-end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hanes of Winston-Salem, N. C.

Another Recipe—If you would be happy, forget the good you have done to others and the evil they have done to you.

Mr. P. A. Hayes says he has stopped coming to town on Saturdays if the mill does not run. There isn't any place for him to loaf.

Mr. Fred Wilbert and a party of friends report a fine trip to Morehead last week. Here is one of the fish tales they are telling: They were out fishing when a sea gull came scouring overhead spied the minnow on the hook, made a five foot dive under the water, swallowed the small fish and was yanked to the bank by the party.

In Spring the average young man's fancy lightly turns to what the girls have been thinking about all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Helton of Asheville, N. C. spent Sunday with Mrs. Helton's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Swaim.

Men may be just as addicted as women to conceal their ages, but they are nowhere nearly so clever at it.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Porter are the proud parents of a fine baby girl.

Mr. Charlie King was a business visitor in Winston-Salem last Tuesday.

One wife can find more wrong with a man than a consultation of half a dozen doctors.

The friends of Mr. Geo. Sparks will regret to know that he had an accident at his hog pen late Wednesday. We hope George will get along nicely and soon be back to work.

SHOP

Spring is definitely here, how do we know, well we will let you in on a little secret. Jim Lyons was out with his new car last Sunday. Yes Spring IS here.

Mr. Vascoe Whatley has purchased the A. F. Yarboro home from Mr. H. D. Woodruff. The home is located just inside the city limits, in North Elkin. Mr. and Mrs. Whatley will be at home to their friends in their new residence, after June 1st.

Mr. "Buck" Furman Rogers underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital a few days ago. The last word we have from him, is that he is doing fine. It is the opinion of the shop boys that "Buck" couldn't possibly have picked a better time to get sick, in view of the fact that there was a big job on down in the Dye House, but we wouldn't accuse him of getting sick on purpose, but it is funny how handy an acute appendix can be some times. Well here's hoping that you will soon be back with us "Buck."

Curtis Couch is back, after a few days absence with an injured finger. Curtis says that outside of the fact that his finger was hurting, the anti-tetanus vaccine reacted badly, followed by a bad case of nettle rash, and the "breaking in" of a new set of "store" teeth he had a fairly decent vacation.

Lee Neaves was away last week end, visiting, but we have forgotten where, and we do not have time to ask him. Unless he comes down to see us.

Jimmy Booher was telling yours truly something about getting christened. But we have forgotten about the details, if any. But Jimmy is still awful proud of "The Kid in The Three Cornered Pants," eh Jimmy.

POWER PLANT

Albert Castevens has been on the "puny" list for the past few days. He is back at work feeling much better now that the "flu" has let go it's hold on him.

Did we mention christening somewhere before, or did we not. Well anyway, we know of one young man from the Power Plant that really got his, and boy, oh boy, how. It happened on the occasion of the first jaunt with the "Chatham Homespun" boat for this season. Jake Brown and Clyde Hall were putting her through her paces out on the Yadkin last Sunday afternoon when all of a sudden, Mr. Hall took his seat right where the boat had just been, only a split second before. There is nothing wrong with taking your seat where a

(Continued on page seven)