

ELKIN MILL

DYE HOUSE

The Dye House is getting to be one of the swankiest departments in the whole place. Just you wait until they get that new paint job finished, and then drop around to see us.

Sam Atkinson left last week for a stay of several days at Myrtle Beach and other points South. Sam expects to be away several days.

We welcome "Maizie" Hall to our department. "Maizie" says he likes the Dye House alright, except that he gets his feet wet. And he hadn't had them wet in years.

Guy Hinson says that the new water cooling rig is just fine, but if some big bloke doesn't keep his dirty paws off the top of that shiny white porcelain fountain he is going to squirt hot water at him instead of cold.

The new laboratory building is almost ready to be occupied. Your reporter strolled into it the other day, and almost ran out in a fright, how did we know the thing had to be painted dead black inside. Mr. Howard Hatch says that it is painted that way so he can match colors perfectly. Well, we will let it go at that, but personally we do not like black, and always will.

WEAVING DEPT.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brannon spent the past week-end in Charlotte the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard German.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Snow of Turnersville were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Foy Walls.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hudson announce the birth of a daughter, June 15th.

Mrs. Hugh Brannon and Mrs. J. H. Thorpe shopped in Winston-Salem Thursday.

We hear that Miss Beatrice Burcham likes Salmon. We wonder which brand she will choose, the Elkin brand or the Winston-Salem brand.

A revival will begin at Ebenezer church, Sunday, July 20th. Home coming day will be observed on this date, a picnic dinner will be served. Everyone is cordially invited.

Miss Laura Masten had as her Sunday dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fleet Masten, of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Basemore of Atlanta, Ga. and Mr. and Mrs. David Masten of Elkin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Young and Mr. and Mrs. James Burcham spent Sunday at Roaring Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Couch spent Wednesday in Winston-Salem shopping.

We are so glad to have Mrs.

Fannie Talley back to work following a few days illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Knight spent Sunday in Indian Valley, Virginia.

We are glad little Miss Frances Day is very much improved. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Day.

Myrtle, we offer you our sincere congratulations, and wish for you much happiness.

We think we can hear more wedding bells ringing in this department. We wonder who will be next.

Mr. Freel Pardue is on the sick list at this writing. We wish for him a speedy recovery. He is a patient at the Duke Hospital, Durham.

We regret very much an error which occurred in the last issue of the Blanketeer, in recording guests at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Darnell of North Elkin. Among those present were Mrs. S. C. Byrd, Mrs. Lon Byrd and daughter, Mrs. Fred Shonnon, Jr. all of Pineville, West Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Noah Darnell of Elkin. Mrs. S. C. Byrd is a sister of Mrs. T. M. Darnell, Mrs. John Walls, Mrs. Gill Couch, Mrs. Will Gilliam and Mrs. Sarah Tucker. Mrs. Byrd makes a trip to North Carolina once a year to see her sisters.

We welcome Miss Beulah Lawrence back to work following several week's illness.

Mrs. Noah Darnell is on the sick list this week. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. El. Burcham spent Wednesday in Winston-Salem.

Messrs. Pearl Chappel, Clyde Shugart, Mae Vestal and Hazel Madison shopped in Winston-Salem last Saturday. We think Hazel bought herself a plate lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrus Gray spent the past week-end in Winston-Salem the guests of relatives.

Messrs. David and Joe Darnell and families, and Miss Mordell Walls spent the week-end of the 12th in Wilmington, N. C.

Mrs. Will Hudspeth and daughter, Mary Jo, spent Sunday, June 13th in Winston-Salem. She was accompanied home by her mother who visited in Jonesville for a week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Henderson, a daughter, Joe Ann, June 15th.

Mrs. Lela Collins visited Mr. and Mrs. John Smith on June 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Couch were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bahnson Couch.

Rev. and Mrs. R. P. Corum,

Chums

Pictured above are Frances Mae Hemric, 8, and Hattie Lou Chilress, 8, as they appeared in the costumes they wore in an operetta recently given at the North Elkin school. Frances is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hemric and is in the fourth grade at school. Both her parents are employed in the Elkin Mill. Hattie Lou is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Childress, of State Road, and is in the third grade. Mr. Childress is an electrician in the Elkin plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Enos Stinson and Misses Katherine and Nadine Burgess of Boonville, had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stinson.

Mrs. H. B. Osborne, of Lynchburg, Virginia, is visiting Mrs. John Holcomb at her home in Jonesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gwyn Baugess and family spent Sunday, June 20th in Mt. View and Stone Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. George Emerson and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Vestal motored to Roaring Gap and Sparta Sunday.

Mrs. Loyd Pardue has as her guests, Mrs. D. E. Powell of Bedford, Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Era Ross were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrus Hemric visited the latter's brother in Winston-Salem recently.

Miss Edna Walls of Sparta is visiting her brother, Lawrence, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Walls have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilliam of Charlotte.

Bill Pardue and Curtis Hall spent Sunday afternoon at Roaring Gap.

CARDING DEPT.

George Chatham and Jim Young are going to the medicine show very often this week.

We are glad to announce that Ral Hayes and Newt Chappel are friends again. Ral is going to Newt's for dinner Sunday.

Luther Hemric said that the bears were getting tame in the west since the bear-hunter Jones Wagoner left.

It has been told that Dewey Mason can't sleep well these nights.

We are very sorry that Fleming Shore has left this department. He is now working for the Greyhound Bus Co.

Wade Williams is still tearing the seat out of his trousers.

Alex Chatham III, has a weakness for red heads.

Hugh Chatham reports a pleasant week-end spent at Carolina Beach. From the looks of him Monday morning he must have had a blistering good time.

WOOL DEPT.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Parker spent the past week-end in Raleigh with the former's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Masten of Charlotte, spent the past week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Masten at their home on Elk Spur street.

We welcome Garland Talton of Oxford to this department.

The wedding bells are soon to ring in the Wool Dept. again providing Heber Mounce's girl doesn't back out on him again.

Anyone who wants to see something off come over and watch Hoyt Hambricht make a batch. He sure is sweating up a storm these hot days.

Mr. John Clair, government inspector, is soon to leave us. We sure will miss him as he has been real nice to the members of the Wool Dept.

Watson Cheek made a business trip to North Wilkesboro Monday night.

Anyone who likes catfish, see Pete Holcomb or Harvey Stockton. They keep a supply on hand all the time.

Mr. Hatch and a party of friends left Friday for Morehead City on a fishing trip. We are looking forward to a fish fry when they return.

This department wishes to extend our heartfelt sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brannon on account of their recent marriage. May they have a long and happy life and may their troubles be "little ones."

Fat Laffoon, custodian of the Wool Room water cooler, wants it clearly understood by the second shift that his electrical device is for cooling water and not milk.

(Continued on page six)