WASH ROOM

Several of the boys have found the time and money to have vacations at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Long, and son Clyde, Jr., have returned with a good sun-tan from a week spent at Carolina Beach.

E. B. and Margaret Huffman enjoyed a week at Myrtle Beach—those cards you sent made us all want to be at the beach, Margaret.

"Dynamite" Perry is at Myrtle Beach this week, and already some "stories" have drifted back up here telling us of the fun he is having.

Worth Davis has taken a trip to Texas which will keep him away from his work about three weeks.

If Carolina Beach had a newspaper with a "social section" we would probably find therein the following: Among the visitors from Winston-Salem are Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McIlwee, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Trotter. These charming visitors are staying at "The Red, White and Blue"—and Saturday nite the boys seemed to be enjoying themselves to the fullest.

From what we hear Hub Longworth is not having so much luck with his gigging these nites. He took Shep Transou with him the other nite, but Shep lost interest and started out thru the corn field when a snake wrapped itself around his leg.

We are glad to have Mr. George Phillips back at work again after his prolonged illness.

Bob Reynolds and a party of friends did a tour around thru the mountain country last Sunday. He included Blowing Rock, Linville, Spruce Pine and the Scenic Parkway Drive in his round.

We hate to hear that Olean Deal is going to leave us. It seems that he is going back to the mountain country.

NIGHT FORCE

Mrs. Dennis Norman is out sick with an infected eye. We hope she will soon be able to return to work.

Mr. Dawson Cozart has been on the sick list, but is now able to be on the job. We heard he had too much Fourth of July.

Gary Floyd says he stays tired all the time. We wonder what ails him anyway.

Several new folks have joined the night force. Among them are Mrs. Jack Shoaf, Ambrose Stone-man and others. We hope you will like us.

So far as we know none of the night folks have taken a vacation, but we hope to sometime.

Anyway it is thrilling to listen in on some of the plans, especially week-end trips.

Luther Orrell says he knows why M. Brown is sick so much of late.

Two ladies are right now planning a big week-end trip but there seems to be some mountains in the way. If they make the trip I will let you know.

Tucker spends every week-end in Elkin. He sure seems to like the town or the girls one, we can't find out which.

Thomas Smitherman you seem to be getting up in society since you have a chauffeur to drive your car.

Evander Fishel says he feels tolerably good these days and Evander we wonder just how good someone else feels.

Hugh Ladd was the cake good or did you eat any of it?

Somehow we can't get much news from the third shift boys. They seem to be keeping themselves pretty much out of the news.

Luther Hanks and R. G. Gentry have changed shifts. We wish them both good luck.

Naomi Wooten and Pauline Gentry seem to both be in the same boat and the sailing has been very rough. Fair sky has begun to show once again and they seem to be out of danger.

Miss Naomi Wooten spent the week-end of July 24th with her father at Harmony, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurmond Chatham and their son, Hugh, spent several days at Hot Springs, Va. attending the skeet meet held at that place. Hugh and his Daddy are some shooters and made excellent records during this meet.

Our good friend Mr. Ralph C. Getsinger spent several days with us last week and happened to show your reporter a letter from his little daughter, which letter I am going to quote below. By way of introduction I will say that Doris is the little girl's name and Mickey the dog. They live in Detroit but Mrs. Getsinger and the children are spending the summer in Ocean City, N. J. and this letter was written to her Daddy in Detroit.

"Dear Daddy:
"I have read your letter and I took particular notice in the paragraph about Mickey. I think we should have him down, so do the boys. Half of the summer is practically gone and very fast and I think we should have Mick down for the rest of the summer. He makes such a nice playmate. Naturally Mickey is happy there because he does not know where we are. If he knew he could come down here his tail would be like this (and she draws a picture of Mickey and says that he is supposed to be wagging his tail), instead of like this (and she draws another picture of his tail between his legs). Barbara sent me a picture of Mickey that she had taken and it certainly made me feel good to see him sitting up. This is me begging you to send Mickey down (and she draws a picture of herself down on her knees.) You don't know how glad I would be if you would bring Mickey down. Put him in the baggage car when you come down.

From
Doris (Cockie Spaniel) Getsinger.

P. S. Don't forget about Mickey. I miss you a lot too."

Maybe when Doris gets back to Detroit she will send us a picture of her taken with Mickey and we can have it put in The Blanketeer.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Jarvis, Misses Hazel Jarvis and Levada Hanks together with a party of friends enjoyed a picnic supper at the Greensboro Recreation Park last week. A good time was had by all.

Ogie: "Oh, you are just trying to make me look dumb."

Hazel: "Now, I didn't have a thing to do with that."

SHIPPING DEPT.

I guess you all wonder why Bessie Forbus has been singing all these hill-billy songs lately. Well,
