

BULL DOGS WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

As a climax to its first softball tournament, the Thurmond Chatham Unity Club last Monday night presented awards—gold softballs—to the members of the winning office force team and to two other friends of the club.

Presentation of the awards was made at a supper immediately following the fifth and deciding game of the series between the spinning room and the office force. The office team won, 4 to 3.

The meeting of the organization was held in the clubhouse on the hill behind the factory. President Clyde Cothren presided.

Those receiving the awards were: Clyde Cothren, S. M. Beale, Raymond Chatham, Mont Jones, Sam Neaves, Bug Page, John Sagar, Clay Felts, Gavin Dortch and Ab Crater. Members of the winning team not present were: Hugh and Dick Chatham.

A softball was also presented to C. J. Hyslup for his interest in the club and his assistance in promoting the tournament. Bob Boles received an award for back-team, and Gene Hall, a member of the club, was given one for his activity as field manager.

Frank Spencer, sports editor of The Twin-City Sentinel, was the main speaker. He briefly reviewed the history of softball and told of its growing popularity.

Officers of the T. C. U. Club, in addition to President Cothren, are: Henry Woodruff, vice president; Hugh Salmons, secretary-treasurer; Ab Crater, assistant secretary-treasurer; and C. J. Hyslup, director.

GARY FLOYD'S CAR DESTROYED BY FIRE

Gary Floyd, of the Napping Department, had the misfortune to lose his 1938 Willis automobile which was destroyed by fire early Friday morning, June 16. The car became ignited from a can of gasoline which Mr. Floyd was taking to a car which was out of gas. The car was burned on the Country Club Road near the golf course. The car was not covered by insurance.

Scotland is considered the cradle of golf but the Scots were importing balls from Holland as early as 1618.
