

T. C. U. Club Members Enjoy Trip

The above pictures indicate the wonderful time had by the members of the T. C. U. Club during their recent trip to New York. In the center picture the boys are seen escorting the hostess of the Chatham Exhibit at the World's Fair.

ALL-STARS WILL ENTER TOURNEY

Picked Softball Team Will Represent Elkin Plant in State Championship Play

Fifteen players, comprising the Chatham All-Stars, will represent the Elkin plant in the 1939 State Championship Softball Tournament. In order to qualify for the finals which are to be held in Raleigh on August 24, 25 and 26, it will be necessary for the All-Stars to win the District Tournament which will be held in Winston-Salem on August 13. Although definite information has not been received from the state commissioner relative to the teams entered from this district it is believed that our team will meet teams from Winston-Salem, Mt. Airy, and Statesville. The winner will represent the district in the finals.

The Chatham All-Stars are composed of players selected by the managers of the three teams which have been playing since the T. C. U. Club Tournament

(Continued on Page Eight)

T.C.U. Club Members Enjoy New York Trip

Group of Ten and Their Leader, C. J. Hyslup, Visit New York City, the World's Fair, Philadelphia and Washington. They Take in All the Sights and Report Having a Wonderful Time

A party of ten T. C. U. Club members and their leader, Mr. C. J. Hyslup, recently returned from a week's visit to New York, Philadelphia, and Washington. In interviewing the various members of the group upon their return your reporter gathered enough interesting material to fill this issue of the Blanketeer. but an attempt will be made to give only some of the highlights of their trip. For additional information, one should converse with members of the party.

The group drove to Norfolk in cars, and, after visiting the Naval Base and Virginia Beach, boarded the boat for New York. After the first hour aboard the boat the boys finally convinced themselves that they would not allow seasickness to spoil their trip, and, therefore, began to take charge of the social life on the boat. Many of the fairer sex were enthusiastic about the attention that they received from the young swains, so at night several of the party were kept busy trying to meet the demands of the ladies.

Arriving in New York at three o'clock Sunday afternoon the party was met at the boat by ten young men from the Bankers Trust Company who were entertained by the T. C. U. Club during their visit to the Elkin plant last May. Our young men were

(Continued on Page Eight)

ALL-STARS WIN PRACTICE GAME

Defeat Statesville Team by Score of 9-2 in Contest Monday; Return Game August 7

Meeting their first outside competition at Chatham Athletic Field Monday afternoon, the Chatham All-Stars of the Elkin mill defeated a Statesville softball aggregation 9 to 2 as their first step toward participation in the State Championship Softball tournament, finals of which are to be played in Raleigh the latter part of August.

The Statesville team, representing the Duchess Fibre Co., was unable to cope with the Elkin team, which took the lead in the second inning and continued to add runs throughout the game.

A return game will be played next Monday afternoon at Statesville, it has been announced.

Proceeds of the game were used toward the purchase of uniforms for the team. Approximately 300 fans attended.

The game was sponsored by the T. C. U. Club.