

CLUBS SPONSOR HOLIDAY PARTY

Both Winston and Elkin Groups Enjoy Gay Doings in Parties Shortly Before Christmas

The Lucy Hanes Chatham club of Winston-Salem held their Christmas party at the club house on Tuesday evening, December 19. The living room was attractively decorated with the Christmas colors, and a large Christmas tree was in the center of the room. Refreshments were served from a prettily appointed table with a centerpiece of holly and mistletoe. At each end of the table there were two beautiful pots of poinsettias. Games and contests were enjoyed throughout the evening. At the close of the party gifts were distributed. Each club member received a bottle of perfume from Mrs. Thurmond Chatham. Miss Erline Mayberry and Mrs. Esther Norman received prizes for being present every time during the past club year. Mrs. Thurmond Chatham was present as a special guest.

The Lucy Hanes Chatham clubs of Elkin enjoyed a Christmas dinner at the Hotel Elkin, Thursday evening, December 21. The dinner was served from a table which had been beautifully decorated in red, silver and white. Place cards were hand-painted by Mrs. Jack Caudill. In the corner of the dining room was a huge Christmas tree.

Special guests included Mr. and Mrs. Thurmond Chatham, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Neaves, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Poindexter, Mr. and

BURCHAM NAMED HEAD OF CLUB

Amel Eller Is Elected President of T. C. U. Group; Standing Committees Appointed

With the election of Russell Burcham as president for the coming year the T. C. U. club held its final meeting of 1939 at the clubhouse on the night of December 18. Reports were made and all business for the past year was brought to a close.

Amel Eller was elected vice-president and Hugh Salmons succeeded himself in the office of secretary and treasurer. Henry Woodruff was elected assistant secretary and treasurer, and Walter Worth was elected parliamentarian. Featured solely by business of importance to the members, the club met on New Year's evening with Russell Burcham presiding.

For the beginning of the year's work several standing committees were appointed by the president. The chairmen of the committees
