

SOCIETY

Girls' Basketball Team Entertained

Members of the girls' basketball team and a few additional guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Plaster, at their home in Winston-Salem, March 22. A buffet supper was served following which Chinese checkers, bridge and pick-up sticks were enjoyed, with Mr. R. W. Harris winning the prize in the checker game.

Guests included members of the team, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meinung, Jr., and Miss Annie Smith.

L. H. C. Clubs Sponsor Parties

As a courtesy to the new girls moving to Elkin, members of the L. H. C. Clubs entertained in their honor on Thursday, March 14, at St. Patrick Day parties. In the afternoon at 1:30 members of the L. H. C. Club No. 2, entertained the girls working at night at a lovely party. Guests were received by Estelle Caudill and Vena Darnell, president and vice-president of the club. Games were in charge of Hallie Haynes and Ethel Adams. "Get-Acquainted" Bingo was played and attractive prizes given. At the close of the party, dainty refreshments were served, consisting of moulded shamrock ices and cakes. Bessie Gilliam, Katherine Day and Maude Barnette had charge of refreshments.

Invitations were in charge of Lexa Cummings and Lorene Roy-all.

The Lucy Hanes Chatham Club No. 1 entertained at 7:30 o'clock at the club house for girls working on the morning shift. Misses Violet Pardue and Beatrice Burcham received the guests. Games, contests and dancing were enjoyed throughout the evening. Attractive prizes were awarded to those winning the contests. The club house was attractively decorated in the St. Patrick Day motif. Katherine Brannon and Ruth Johnson had charge of games. Fae Reavis and Violet Pardue served delicious refreshments. Others serving on committees were Pauline Masten Pardue and Mary Etta Yorke.

Approximately fifty girls enjoyed the party.

Miss Day Bride of Russell Casey Saturday Afternoon

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Shelton Irene Day became the bride of Russell Casey at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. David W. Day. Rev. Mr. Day, father of the bride, performed the ritual. Only immediate relatives and a few close friends witnessed the ceremony.

In the living room an impro-

Views of New Commissary

Above are two photos made in the new commissary. Left photo shows Acey Hamby, left, and Clay Felts, with two of the commissary's five wagons which make regular rounds through the plants. In right photo is pictured Gene Hall (behind counter), who has charge of the commissary, and Acey Hamby.

vised altar was arranged with greenery and spring flowers.

Miss Bernice Welborn rendered the wedding music. The traditional wedding marches were used as a processional and recessional and during the ceremony Miss Welborn played "O Promise Me."

The bride wore a spring suit of poudre blue with accessories of dusty rose and black. Her shoulder bouquet was of white carnations and valley lilies.

Following the ceremony the guests were directed to the dining room by Misses Marie Casey and Gertha Collins and Mrs. Joe Cockerham, where a handsome two-tier wedding cake was sliced and served with moulded ices.

Mrs. Casey is the only daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Day and was graduated from Elkin high school with the class of 1938. Mr. Casey is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Young Casey, of the Cool Springs community. He is employed with the Federal Furniture company.

At present Mr. and Mrs. Day are making their home with the bride's parents.

CHATHAM PLACES THREE ON ALL-SOUTHERN

Girls

Forward—Whitlock, Drayton.

Forward—Brown, Enka Rayonettes.

Guard — Babe Poole, Chatham Blanketeers.

Guard — Janie Sherrill, Chatham Blanketeers.

Guard—Reynolds, Enka Rayonettes.

Boys

Forward—Anderson, Dixie Aces.

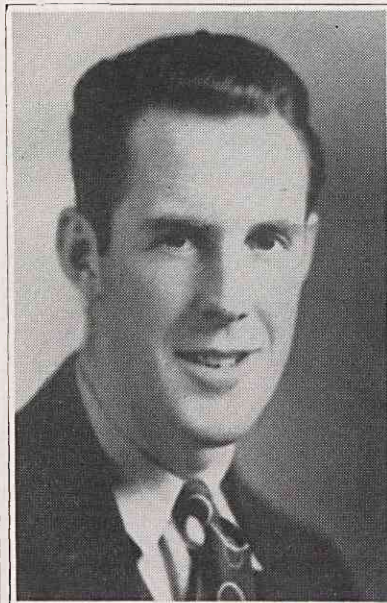

Forward — Wilson, Southern Bleachery.

Center—Norman, Peerless Woolen Mills.

Guard—Davis, Dixie Aces.

Guard—Hill, Southern Bleachery.

Foreman Passes

Tom Correll, above, night foreman of the Napping Department, who passed away March 11, after a long illness.

CLUB SPONSORS DUTCH SUPPER

Members of the Lucy Hanes Chatham Club No. 1 sponsored a Dutch supper at the club house, March 21, to which members of the club brought their boy friends. Girls and boys of the Finishing department were invited. Each girl brought supper for herself and her boy friend. Following the supper, dancing and games were enjoyed. About 35 boys and girls attended.

Corn that grew to a height of 20 feet was exhibited recently at the Los Angeles County Fair.

T. W. CORRELL PASSES AWAY

Deceased Was Foreman in Napping Department of Finishing plant; Funeral March 14

Monday afternoon, March 11, Mr. Thomas William Correll, 32, passed away at his home, Chatham Heights, Winston-Salem. Prior to his illness he was a foreman in the Napping department of the Finishing Plant. He was ill for one year, seriously ill for the past six months.

Mr. Correll was born July 20, 1907, at Greencastle, Mo., the son of D. F. and Maude Riley Correll. He was married to Miss Natley Wood, March 30, 1929. He came to Winston-Salem in 1928 and since that time he has been connected with the company. He was a member of the Church of the United Brethren.

Survivors include the parents; the widow; a daughter, Betty Lou Corroll; one brother, Ralph C. Correll, Eldora, Iowa; one sister, Mrs. Paul T. Foley, Kansas City, Mo.

"Tom" as he was affectionately known by officials and employees was well-known and liked by everyone. His passing will be regretted by many. He bore his suffering with patience and when the end came it was not unexpected.

Funeral services were held from the Wall Funeral Home, Thursday, March 14, with the Rev. D. H. Wilcox, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church, in charge. Burial followed in the Forsyth Memorial Park. Pallbearers were foremen and assistant foremen of the Finishing department.

T. C. U. Club to Sponsor Dance

In its first attempt to engage in entertainment open to the public, the Thurmond Chatham Unity club will sponsor a public dance at the school gymnasium on Friday evening, April 5, from 9 'til 1. Music for the dance will be furnished by Claude Little and his 11-piece orchestra from Mooresville.

Proceeds of the dance will go to the welfare fund of the club.

A committee composed of Leonard Shepherd, Hugh Salmons, Henry Woodruff, Red Eller, Clay Felts and Russell Burcham is in charge of all arrangements. Bids for the dance may be secured from any member of the committee.

The price of admission to the dance is $1.00 per couple.

Electric light bulbs were so short-lived a quarter of a century ago that they were sold in cartons of 50 or more, and they cost 3 times as much as they do today.