

State College Students Make Inspection of Plant

Pictured above are 75 members of the State College Plant Textile School who visited the Chatham Plant on May 2nd, making a complete tour of inspection. The boys' club officers and members served as guides on the trip through the plant.

SUBSCRIPTION CONTEST ENDS

Boys Are Winners Over Girls By Close Margin; Campaign Is Considered Big Success

The contest for new subscriptions for the Blanketeer, conducted by the Lucy Hanes Chatham clubs and the Thurmond Chatham Unity club, closed April 27, with the boys' club winning by a close margin. The staff is pleased with the success of the campaign. There is practically one hundred per cent. of the employees subscribing to the paper. (If you have not subscribed, then turn your subscription in to the reporter of your department.)

The following will be reporters for the coming year:

Leonard Shepherd, Circulation Manager, Woolen Dept.; Weaving, Red Eller, Lois Couch, Bill Pardue; Warp, Pauline Pardue, Etta Mathis, Reba Bauguess; Wool, Beach Bell, Russell Burcham,

(Continued on page eight)

State College Textile Students Visit Plant

Tour of Entire Plant Is Made By 75 Members of Textile School; Are Entertained At Clubhouse by Thurmond Chatham Unity Club; Are Invited To Make Visit To Mill An Annual Event

Seventy-five seniors in the Textile School of North Carolina State College, accompanied by Professors T. R. Hart and A. H. Grimshaw, spent Thursday, May 2, visiting the entire Chatham plant. Immediately upon arrival the group was taken to the clubhouse where they were entertained by the T. C. U. Club.

Later the group was divided into smaller groups of seven or eight and each group was taken through the manufacturing plant. The boys' club officers and members served as guides for the interested students.

During the noon hour the students were the luncheon guests of Mr. Thurmond Chatham, at Hotel Elkin. At this time the guests were welcomed by various executives of the company and were given an invitation to make their visit here an annual affair.

Following the luncheon the students were shown through the finishing plant and the scouring and carbonizing plant.

Each year the seniors of the Textile School make an inspection tour of the prominent mills in the South. Previous to coming here the students had visited the

(Continued on page eight)

STAGE BANQUET AT HOTEL ELKIN

Members of Blanketeer Staff Gather In Honor of New Reporters Added To Staff

Members of the Chatham Blanketeer staff enjoyed a banquet at the Hotel Elkin Tuesday evening, April 30. The dinner was given in honor of the new reporters who have recently been added to the staff. Miss Claudia Austin, editor of the Blanketeer, acted as toastmistress. Forty persons were present.

Interesting and constructive talks were made by C. C. Poindexter, C. J. Hyslup, Walter Burcham, Russell Burcham and others. The object of the meeting was a bigger and better publication. Miss Austin stated that everyone was pleased with the progress of the paper since its organization in 1933. Each member of the staff was introduced.

Mr. H. F. Laffoon, editor of the

(Continued on page eight)