WEAVING

A Shift

Mrs. Frank Finney spent the past week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Watson Finney, of Jonesville.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Fannie Talley is on our sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Wall spent Saturday in Winston-Salem shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott and little daughter, Doris, spent Monday in Greenville, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Murray, Pansy Wall, Mrs. Ethel Barnette and John Swaim visited in Lenoir Sunday.

Mrs. Will Hudspeth and Miss Sue Ann Crouse spent Friday in Winston-Salem shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Freeman and children visited Mr. Harvey Petree at Forsyth County Sanatorium Sunday.

Mrs. Gene Couch says she intends to spank Rat Darnell. That is news. Need any extra padding, Rat?

Hope Brown is a lucky loom fixer. None of his weavers chew, dip or dissipate otherwise, "but" they all vote a Republican ticket. I'm sure Hope should wear a "Willkie" badge. Anybody have one?

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Davis, Misses Anna, Estelle and Nell Carter spent a few days at Carolina Beach recently.

Miss Lola Yarborough and Miss Agnes Transou spent the week-end with Miss Anna Carter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Davis, of North Elkin.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shore and Mrs. Clete Simmons spent the past week-end at Norfolk, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wilkins, Mozelle, Bill and Jessie Alexander and Foley Layell spent Sunday in Winston-Salem visiting Mr. Hershall Masten.

What's become of Henry Cockerham's broad belt, and where did that much leather come from, to begin with? He couldn't have worn it for the same reason George Washington wore red and white suspenders.

If Mozelle Alexander, Fannie Henderson, Zenas Harris, Garn West, Emma Emerson or Annie Baker ever admitted having news the shock would be so great that we would never be able to get it on paper.

Fatherly advice to some of my young friends. Henry, dating the same girl fourteen nights in a row, is sticking your neck out too, too far.

Our hats off to Vallie Harpe. She was an angel of mercy during the recent flood. Her home was opened to her neighbors who lost their homes in the flood. It has been reported that she cared for four families for several days.

Davis Osborne, the next time your girl wants to play Amazon, send for me. I like them rough.

Curt Hall, chaperones may be old fashioned but you would be much safer, if you kept within yelling distance of one.

DYE HOUSE

We are glad to have Lee Roy Rogers with us from the wet finishing department.

Hub Durham and family visited relatives near Pea Ridge recently.

We regret that Woodrow Hooper has left us. He has moved to Asheville to live with his father.

Guy Hinson enjoyed a chicken stew at a tobacco barn Wednesday night.

Shorty Blevins and family visited relatives in Wilkesboro Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewyer Pennell spent Sunday in Lenoir visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hemric spent last week-end at Roaring River visiting Mrs. Hemric's parents.

Carley Anderson cut his foot while in swimming and was out a few days, but is back on the job now.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phillips visited relatives in Yadkinville last week.

WARP DEPT.

B Shift

Mr. and Mrs. Junior Kennedy spent Sunday in Thomasville. They were accompanied home by Misses Ruth and Ruby Lyons, sisters of Mrs. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Caudill spent Sunday in West Jefferson the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. J. W. Caudill.

The girls all say they miss Mr. Lewis very much. He is a patient at Long's hospital in Statesville.

Miss Lucy Mathis, of Clingman, spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Mayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaither Martin, of Cumberland, Md., spent their vacation the guests of Miss Nannie Belle Martin and her mother.

Mrs. Ila Hayes seems very happy since her husband came home from the World's Fair.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. David Darnell, a son, Leonard Dale, August 2, 1940.

Quite a few in this department are out sick. We wish for them a speedy recovery.

CARDING

C Shift

I think this is the first time we have been heard from on this shift. Not many of us go anywhere except home to bed and back to work.

We wonder what went with the cabbage John "Barker" Hamm bought for someone?

How does Andy Key expect to eat corn on the cob with his teeth up in Dr. Fox's office?

Andy says he can manage all right if the corn is condensed into a liquid.

We could tell you why Pres Southard, Frank Stroud and Clay Burchette had to buy glasses, but maybe you had better ask them.

Ab Crater's all smiles now. Someone is coming back from a vacation soon.

Fred "Speed" Vestal attended the motorcycle races at Boone last Sunday.

When you want something good to eat at a low price, drive over and look for the snappy lunch. Lon's place in Jonesville.

Motor vehicle accidents in this country last year resulted in non-fatal injuries to 1,150,000 persons.
