

AROUND THE MILL

CARDING

A Shift

Marshall says Harvey Parks purchased a "rat terrier" in Washington, D. C. We wonder why?

Joe Dobson started to the fire last Friday night with his little nephew's fire truck. He drank up all the water before he got to the scene of the fire. Reported by R. L. Hayes.

Mrs. Bill Moore and daughter, Carolyn, left Wednesday for Glendale, Calif., after visiting Mr. Moore all the summer. Mrs. Moore will resume her duties as music teacher in the school there.

John Barker wants a motor put on his stock buggy since he has to haul stock from No. 51 bin to No. 1 card.

We are glad to hear that Arthur Southard has recovered from a recent illness and is now able to return to work and resume his duties as deputy sheriff.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Dula spent the past week-end in Charlotte visiting.

James Frye seemed to have a little trouble getting through the bus zone last Friday night.

Someone ask Dan about his two for three in the game between Mount Airy and Chatham.

The Chatham soft ball team reached the quarter finals in the recent Journal-Sentinel tournament. We hope to do better next year.

B Shift

Mr. Wade Sparks says he likes some sunshine once in a while. He helped his father pull fodder last week.

Judge Eye Fred Pardue can't stand "jacking" in the card room, but his bull dog can.

Martin Gray was seen out Saturday night. He looked like he might be in love. He was sick Sunday. Maybe he was love-sick.

Noah Miles says he sure likes his wife—for she is a good cook (peas) and has a good car (T-model).

Mr. Raymond Southard has a nice pack of bird dogs for the season.

Roy Shoemaker says he doesn't like sports, but we noticed he looked out the window every time there was a ball game this summer.

We are proud to see Mr. Clay Burcham back to work after three weeks of illness.

Mr. Thurmond Gentry seems to be very hearty these hot days. He must have a chicken leg about nine o'clock every night.

Mr. Wiley Weatherman and family motored to the Blue Ridge Parkway Sunday and enjoyed a nice picnic.

Paul Boyd is out sick, suffering from sinus trouble. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Clarence Key likes his new job very much.

For Sale: Five room bungalow. Located in Jonesville. See Carl Cockerham, Card Room.

BINDING

Evelyn Carter is a new one added to our sick list this week. We wish for them all a speedy recovery. Hurry back to work.

Louise McGhee, we welcome you back to work following your illness.

Charlie Ferguson, one of our boys from Winston, has joined Uncle Sam's Army. We wish for him much success.

Maude Luffman and her quartette sang at the Goodwill Baptist church in Lexington Saturday night, Sept. 7.

The Labelers and Wrappers wish to thank the Company for the new shades.

Nell Bates was out Tuesday attending the funeral of her brother-in-law at Spartanburg, S. C.

Bolejack spent last week-end at Morehead City, on a fishing trip. He says he caught two blondes.

Someone ask Katherine Whitener about the new 41 Packard she came to Elkin in Sunday night.

Sue Barnett has moved up with us. She is now living in North Elkin.

Pauline Chitty spent last week at the World's Fair in New York.

Deaver Shell and Henry Smith left us last week to go back to school. Deaver will go to Guilford and Henry to Duke.

Ann Lineback had a bad dream Thursday night. She fell off the bed, hurting her jaw.

Linda McIlwee entertained her bridge club last Tuesday night.

E. D. Lane has a new name. It is now Fireman Lane. He had more water on him than they had on the fire.

Maurice Gordon had company from California on Thursday.

Erline Mayberry celebrated her birthday recently. She is wearing a beautiful birthstone ring.

WEAVING

A Shift

We are glad to have Duella Burch back to work. She has been on our sick list for some time.

Finn Haynes wishes to find out exactly what Rat Darnell feeds his dog. Rocks and wood was all Finn could see.

Curt Hall attended the Fair in North Wilkesboro Wednesday night. What kind of show was that? Did she really make you leave?

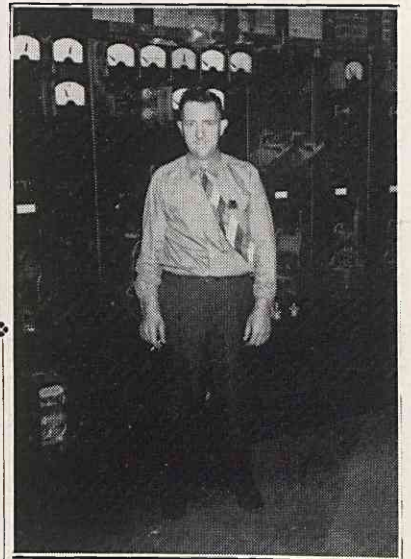

Tishie Rose visited Eva Hol-

New Turbine Goes In At Window

Top photo shows Mr. Morgan supervising the unloading of our new steam turbine that has been installed at the power plant and is now in operation. This machine is carrying the whole load of the entire mill at the present time.

Lower photo shows Vascoe Whatley, electrician, as he stands in front of the switchboard for the new turbine. Mr. Whatley was responsible for the wiring.

comb Wednesday night. Who else was along? Theo?

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Adams and daughter, Jessie Lee, visited in Burlington the past week-end. They also attended the homecoming at the Glen Hope church.

Mrs. J. B. Chapman is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Parker.

Miss Wilda Mae Mathis, of Washington, D. C., is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Free Pardue at their home in Arlington.

Alvis Swaim, son of Mrs. Julia Wagoner, has joined the U. S. Marine Corps.

Mrs. Clete Simmons returned Friday from Decatur, Ga. She was accompanied home by her daughters, Fraulene and Katy Lee, who had been spending some time there.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Beulin and family, of Mount Airy, and Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Wishon, of Walkertown, were the Sunday guests of Miss Ina Beulin.

Mr. Will Emerson, of Norfolk, Va., spent the past week-end visiting his family in Arlington.

Your uprising reporter had his fortune told Wednesday night, but I don't believe what she said. The passion of a lifetime turned into a mere friendship, however, I am to be plentifully supplied with money and find great happiness after Nov. 4th. Oh, happy day.

Bee Burcham had her's read also. She liked it too. The dream of a tall blond husband is coming true. No fair guessing. Let nature take its course.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoy Shepherd and son, Wylie, of Bradshaw, W. Va., were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Wall at their home near State Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray Scott, of Jonesville, had as their guest last Tuesday, Mrs. Norman Wilkinson, of New Castle, Ind.

The Japanese do not like fat men. Therefore all the great powers select thin men as ambassadors to that country.

The hood of an Arab's garment protects him from the morning and night cold and the heat of the midday sun.