

AROUND THE MILL

BURLING ROOM

Mary Wilkins had as her guests for the week-end Mr. and Mrs. John D. Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Minton, of Winston-Salem, and Miss Viola Wilkins, of Brooks Cross Roads.

Theodore Webster, son of Caroline Webster, is now in Porto Rico, and reports he is enjoying the Marines just fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvil Myers and son, Bobby, of Knightstown, Ind., spent the past week with Mrs. R. G. Myers, Mr. Myers' mother.

We are all sorry that Charlie Gough had to lose his service station. Maybe the next one Charlie gets will be on solid ground.

Myrtle Ray has been on our sick list, but is now back at work.

Army blankets have claimed two victims in this department. They are Ethel and Ruby who are at present on upholstering.

Dear Santa:

We want the following things for Christmas:

Charlie Gough—a new station.
Eva Armstrong—a new beau—former one drafted.

Carney Shugart — new sewing machine.

Charlie Freeman—package of razor blades.

Ruby Vestal—strong pair of back braces.

Ethel Myers—more sleep.

Theo Barber—a bundle from Heaven.

Ed Freeman—more time to make pillows.

Carson Freeman—a dark room for camera outfit.

Al Boles—lessons on how not to turn a car over.

Ruth Teague—more dock tickets.

Gladys Checks—new pair of work shoes.

Mick Brown—bed room shoes.

Preston Baity—some good toilet soap.

Pearl Pardue—a didie doll and (Juice) harp.

Maude Hayes—a top that plays a tune.

Emma Burcham — more time for courting.

Fred Cockerham—says he is his own Santa Claus so Fred won't get anything.

B Shift

Ester says it is getting too near Christmas to express her feelings.

Laura Lee, Jess, Buck, Fred and Sam attended the funeral of a fellow employee, John (Footeye) Sampson, in Winston-Salem Tuesday.

Ruby Binkley wants to know if her new knee length socks are becoming.

The Shaders wish to apologize to Ruth Shermer for not inviting her to their Thanksgiving supper.

What is wrong with Iris? The other night she turned on the light to see if the fire was burning.

It takes Ruth Long to tell us how she feels.

Buck says he passed through "Hootsville" the other day, and it was a quiet village, has cows, chickens and everything.

Laura Lee, Ruth and Grace say that if Buck doesn't change from the Shaders to Picking sometime, they will never get to rest any.

Does anyone know where the house is? A lady called the Mill the other night, and said to tell Buck to call the "House." Esther inquired for him, and not being able to locate him, calls his home and who should answer but Buck. He seems to know nothing about the call. Just what is this all about, Mr. Shore.

NAPPING DEPT.

Dear Santa,

We, the members of the Napping Dept., have been very wide awake for the past year and especially for the past two weeks. So, we are giving you an idea of what each of us would like to find in our stockings Christmas morning.

Jannie Sherrill would like to find WEDDING BELLS; Jennie, her carbon copy, wants a "FEL-LA." Mrs. Martin a DI-DEE DOLL. Mom Poole, AN ELEC-

New Citizens

Left, Emily Jane Wooten, 2-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jene Wooten. Right, Sara Jane Cockerham, 6-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Folin Cockerham.

TRIC IRONING MACHINE. Mabel Sparks, who is very sincere, needs a JOKE BOOK. Ester Norman, with the delicate stomach, needs a DIET BOOK. She also wants Yadkinville Decorated. Margaret Sprinkle, A ONE WAY TICKET TO FLORIDA. Dot Norman, A POPPA. Joe Masten, a TOUPEE. Fannie Hartsell, WATCH. Jake Homnan, pair of BOXING GLOVES, so it won't be so hard on his hands next time. Frank Duncan, a BOMBER. Ray Shamel, a BEAUTIFUL SWEETHEART. Mac, a pair of ROLLER SKATES, to eliminate so much walking. Longworth, a BOY FRIEND. Woodrow Conrad, a LITTLE RED WAGON. John Swartzel, a bottle of HAIR RESTORER. Perry Lawson, a SCOOTER. John Livengood, a POT OF GOLD. Dal Wagoner, AIR CONDITIONER. Sugar Daddy, A CALENDAR WITH A PRETTY HORSE ON IT. Gilliam, pair of BINOCU-

LARS, so he can tell what the neighbors are doing without venturing out. Ethel, a PERMANENT like Shirley Temple. Lawrence, a V-8 FORD. Grace Masecup, LICENSE (for her car). Blaine, a MONTH'S VACATION, WITH PAY. Freck Tuttle, A POSITION, one which does not interfere with his Night Life. Greenwood, the ELEVENTH CHAPTER. Pervy, an ELEVATOR, because he never gets to ride one. CLETUS RATLEDGE, OVALTINE, so he may grow strong. Zeb, who is so quiet, needs a HORN to toot. Edd, a SIX SHOOTER, so he can be a Lone Ranger. George wants the bath tub filled with water and frozen, so he can SKATE. Oscar, a little bit of KICKAPOO JUICE. Harvey Sparks, STILTS, so he won't be called Shorty. Harvey Wagoner, A JACK-IN-THE-BOX. Jimmy, a CURE FOR COLIC, so he can get one night's sleep. Raymond, a FRAME for the picture he carries in his wallet. Dwight Phillips, a LITTLE FIDDLE. Den Norman, FIRE CHIEF'S SUIT. Jack Shoaf, a good looking SPOT WASHER. Sammy wants some MISTLETOE.

Santa, that's all we want for this year.

WEAVE ROOM

A Shift

Dear Santa,

It seems funny, dear Santa, though we think of you little during ten months of the year, for the past two months we have thought of you constantly, and with much joy.

I wonder if you would do something for me? I want you to please see that Shorty Wall and Zenus Harris get Toupees for Christmas. They are never going to have any more hair than at present, and they are nice fellows.

For Emma Emerson, a nice new voice. The one she is now using is all shot.

Please bring Carmel Tucker some pencils that, though sharpened much, will never grow short.

Could you see that Crazy Cockerham gets the strength of Atlas? He needs it for those Khaki lots.

I could go on about the needs of others for a long time, but I must get this into print if you are to get it at all.

As for me, all I ask is that you remember all of my friends in this department and give me only the joy of continuing the friendship of those whom I hold very dear.

That's all, Santa,

"RED"

Even Steven

Maid: I'm sorry, but she said I was to tell you that she is not at home.

Caller: Oh, that's all right. Just tell her that I'm glad I didn't call.
