

REFINING "C" CHATTER

The C shift of the refining room is proud to announce that one of its most promising young men, Mr. William C. McClung, has been promoted to beater-man's helper on battery No. 7. Mr. McClung is bearing up splendidly under his new responsibilities. . . . Mr. Morgan (Rulie to the boys) has changed his address. It is now Brevard instead of Etowah. . . . The boys on the boxes have received another lamb for the slaughter, one Kay Blankenship. He was formerly of Graham county (God's country) but now is a resident of Henderson county. . . . Gee, folks, we almost forgot to tell one of the most important happenings on C shift. Mr. Jesse Stalcup has been promoted to electric truck operator. It is worth one's time to stand back (way back) to watch Mr. Stalcup operate the thing. . . . Clinton Green wishes to inform his many friends of his new residence. It is located near the city hospital in Brevard. . . . Edward Mackey, a draftee, was visiting in the refining and machine rooms this past week. Mr. Mackey is stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C. . . . Mr. Robt. Lethers, one of the outstanding members of C shift, was out a day or so last week with what was thought to be chicken pox. There has been quite an argument as to whether he caught it from a blonde or brunette. . . . Elwell Boyd has been promoted to conveyor operator. It is amazing what this promotion has done to Mr. Boyd. He now moves around with that old do-or-die look in his eye. The old one was just a lack-lustre stare. . . . Mr. Robt. Rhodes, since his latest promotion, has purchased a new automobile. Mr. Rhodes is fast climbing the ladder of success according to this correspondent. . . . "Speedy" Jones wishes the readers of this sheet to keep on the lookout for a valuable hound. Description: pure Red-bone, about five years old, well kept appearance, answers to the name of Sot. Mr. Jones can't state definitely how long the dog has been missing. The last time he saw it was late last fall. Mr. Jones wishes us to say that he will pay well for the return of the dog or for any information leading to the return of this hound. If no further news is received from this department the readers may expect the worst.

CHAMPAGNE PRINTING DEPARTMENT

J. Tinsley is the proud father of a baby girl. . . . If you want to age a year in one evening just take a ride to Hendersonville with Troy Drake. My, my, how anyone can fly around corners on two wheels and live to tell the tale is something we'll never know. Wonders never cease. . . . We regret the absence of R. Ramsey but Uncle Sam needs men and Russell filled the bill. . . . Squirrel hunting

PULP "A" ACTIONS

Harry Laughter, shift A's soldier boy at Camp Croft, reports that army life is ok. . . . B. Meixell is back at work after two weeks off with an injury. He is sporting a big smile since he got his Private Aviator's license while off. . . . G. Chastain returned to work after a week's rest with an infected foot. . . . W. Morris is getting his gun oiled and his dogs in shape for the opening of the quail season. . . . M. Baynard reports that the deer are about to take his apple trees. Looks like plenty of steaks on Turkey Creek this year. . . . Glad to see Nat Townsend, our electrician and Paul Smith, our Millwright, back at work. Both have been on the sick list. . . . Fleenar, shift A's real estate wizard, has sold his country mansion and has moved back to town. . . . The St. Louis Cards sure had Cooper in the dumps. . . . L. Holt has been whistling all week since his recent wedding trip to S. C. . . . If you want to get the war situation see Sam Passmore who gets the very latest news from G. Leslie. They say G. Hardin saw one side-show at the W. N. C. Fair six times. Bill Bryson only saw it five. Mr. Straus was very nice To fix a place to eat No squawk about the price They say the food's a treat. The ones who get off for lunch Are certainly most lucky They dine in a happy bunch On food, I'm told, that's ducky. As they take trays down the line, It's "That stew's right from the pot" And a voice chimes in from behind, "No need to hurry they'll keep it hot". But with us it's about the same, Not caring much when eating time comes, For our meal still has the name, Hot dopes, cold hamburgers, and a package of Tums. So come on lunchers, don't eat it all, Leave a little food in the pot, So the 3rd shift can make a call For something that's good and hot.

season is open now. I feel a bit sorry for those helpless little animals but you can't shoot them unless you see them and sometimes that's just as hard as a good aim. William Ball will bear witness to that act. . . . How to get rich in one easy lesson (providing there are soldiers around, gas in the tank, and one is able to stay awake after a night's work), is a question that Jesse Gillespie will have to answer. Peace reigns again in the maintenance division of the Printing Department. Fritz Haehnel's nerves are 100 per cent improved since Sam McCullough ceased his rendition of "Precious Jewel".

DRAFT CALLS

The next call will be for October 20th when it is expected that about five more employees will have to go. These include Walter Ashworth, Victor Raymond Cooke, Robert G. Taylor, Robert Henry Tritt, and George D. McCormick.

While some of these boys are leaving, Hubert Batson who was drafted on June 16, 1941, but who was over twenty-eight years old, has been released from military service and has returned to his old job in the Inspection Department.

During the past month a number of draftees paid visits to the plant. Ed Runnion, formerly of the Finishing Department, was with the unit of the army which spent a couple of days in Pisgah Forest last month. While he was here he visited the plant. Others who have been home on furloughs include Horace Smith, Ed Mackey and "Coot" Moore. All of these men expressed a surprise at the progress that has been made on the expansion program. Many of them remarked that the appearance of the plant certainly had changed and all are anxious to get back to their old jobs.
