ENDLESS CHATTER

Charlotte Blythe left the first of October for Durham, N. C., where she will enter the Duke School of Nursing. We shall follow your career with interest, Charlotte, and luck to you.... Jeanette Nattsman is visiting friends in Baltimore and New York City. Here's hoping she doesn't decide to prolong that visit indefinitely.... It is nice to have Exie Hollifield back at work after being out for a tonsil operation.... Hazel Ledford and Jettie Bruce were visitors in Spartanburg last week-end.... Mary Sue Thorne attended the wedding of Margaret Deland and Bob Collier at the Episcopal Church in Greenville on Sept. 20.... The Social Club in Endless Belt is proving quite a success. Each member pays dues of five cents per week. This fund is used for flowers in case of sickness or death, for wedding presents, birthday presents, etc.... Hazel Boyd spent last week-end with her parents in Waynesville, N. C.... The newest bride in Endless is Frances Nelson. She is now Mrs. James Galloway.... Among the new faces in Endless are those of Daphne Rice, Jewel Rackley, Myrtle Rogers, Joyce Rhodes and Myrtle Atkins. Hope they are happy with us.... Inspector Jack Davies is still receiving congratulations on the birth of a second heir.... Blanche McCrary and Faye Plemmons visited Exie Hollifield at her home in Chesnee, S. C., last week-end.... We wonder why the draft hasn't caught Bob Clayton?... The only complaints we have to offer on the new cafeteria are the result of adding a few ounces of avoidupois.... Dr. Fritz Brauer found a warm welcome awaiting him upon his return from a vacation in New York and New Jersey.... We know cold weather is just around the corner by the pretty multi-colored sweaters the girls are donning.... Do you s'pose Jerry and Margaret Wirtz are really serious about going back to Panama to live?.... Our personel compliments to the author of the poem, "You-All" in the August issue of the ECHO.... Gloria Ann Wilson went on a shopping spree in Asheville last week.

Did you hear Doris Thorne's broadcast from Greenville last Monday night as guest artist on the Student Theatre Program?... A number of Endless Belters give a thrilling account of the motorcycle races at Caesar's Head last Sunday afternoon.... Seen at the Hendersonville Fair, various faces in sundry places.... Sid Beecher has returned from a mysterious trip to Chicago. P. S. Anything is mysterious that we don't know all about.... Sorry our picnic was a bit late this year but we just couldn't get around to it earlier.

REFINING "A" ADOINGS

Strange as it may seem Isaac Eckeurod is paying "pole" tax to Duke Power Co.... Jim Mills would like to know how his shoes get tied in knots when his locker is locked.... We would like to know what has happened to the baseball team. We haven't heard "Chesty" White since the Beacon game.... It seems as if wedding bells will be ringing soon for Devere Hardin and "Tuff" Raxter in Asheville. Hey, boys, how 'bout taking "Speedy" over one time?... Red Harbin's wife tells us that they never have to rock their baby to sleep. Red just starts on one of his tall tales.... C. Nickolson tore up the transmission in his car last week. He must have thought it was a heater.... Jack Rhodes (not Tony's boy) is talking about moving back to Brevard. His neighbors in Hendersonville must not be buying any coal.... Jerry Mann has been trying for some time to grow a mustache but he is having the same trouble as Bud White has with his chest.... Why do the boys call Marlowe "The Junk Man"?... Arthur Orr has just installed a water pump in his well. Imagine a man that is too lazy to get up on a cold morning and go out for a bucket of water.... John Ball has given up trying to cure his stomach trouble. He says he had too much trouble blowing the foam off his medicine.... We would like to know why Harold McNeely is so much interested in Champagne. Whatcha know, Joe?... Winter will soon be here. It's about time for Ote McCall's Ford to hibernate.... Gardner Shipman would like to have his electric jack as soon as the boys get through playing with it.... Clarence Cochran has asked E. Camenzind and Duckworth up to see him anytime after dinner.... We welcome Harold Moss, Gardner Shipman, Ronnie Jarvis, Candle Bryson, Calvin McCrary, Isaac Eckeurod, and Oren Marlowe to our midst. Wonder what Mr. Wells had against you boys?.... We on shift A think the world revolves around us. It usually does one hour after we get off graveyard.

BLUNDERS OR WIT?

We are told that the following quotations were found on children's examination papers. Whether they are blunders or the creations of some wit, we think they're pretty good.

A cypher is a bottle that squirts.

A Senator is half-horse, half-man.

Christians are only allowed one wife; this is called "monotony".

A monologue is a conversation between two people, such as man and wife.

A stethoscope is a spy-glass for looking into people's chests with your ears.
