

REYNOLDS, FOWLER ARE TOP BOWLERS

The final statistics of the men's Ten-Pin and Duck-Pin Leagues reveal that the fellows who came through with top honors had to do some excellent bowling during the entire season. Averages show that Bruce Reynolds of the Maintenance Team was the most consistent bowler of the group. Both Ralph Morris and Jimmie Dunne performed well enough to have their names in two different brackets. Bruce Reynolds and Frank Israel were tied for second high set but since Bruce had won one prize he automatically dropped his claim to second prize.

The Duck-Pin League leaders were topped by performances of G. Fowler and G. Loftis, these men winning two top positions. Pete Hooper crashed through with a 152 game to lead the field.

Women's Softball League To Be Organized

The organization of Women's Departmental Softball has begun. Those who are interested in playing on a team and are not as yet a team member, are requested to report to the following:

Hand Booklet Dept.	Byrd Barley
	Hazel McKinney
Endless Belt	Blanche McCrary
Chem. Lab.	Marie Sprinkle
Main Office	Petie Colwell
Champagne Office	Thelma Alexander
Engineering Of.	Sarah H. Jackson
Health Service	Louise Morris
Machine Booklet	Mary C. McIntosh
Metateria	Hazel Barrett

In the event that some depts. are unable to make up a full team membership, such depts. may combine with other depts.

A meeting will be called on Tuesday, April 28th at 5:00 P. M. in the Recreation Office. The girls listed above are requested to attend this meeting for the purpose of organizing an Ecusta League.

Consideration must be given the problem of transportation since practices and game schedules will, in some cases, conflict with bus schedules. At this point some thought before assuming the responsibility of team membership.

Softball equipment is located in the Recreation Office and is available at any time to girls who wish to start practice games.

Baseball Season Opens

Baseball practice started off with a bang on Wednesday, April 8th when eighteen men made their appearance on the field. Since the opening day, a number of job seekers has increased to twenty-seven. The majority of this number are newcomers which will be an extra incentive for the regulars of last year's team to do a little additional hustling for their positions this year.

To date, Ecusta has lost only one regular from last year's team, that one being David Sams, lost because of an operation undergone during the late winter months. The draft has not as yet affected the team personnel.

The WNC Industrial League will open its season on Saturday, May 2nd. The schedule has not been fully completed. This schedule will be announced in the very near future. The league will function this year with six clubs instead of eight. Entries are Hazelwood, Belfour, Beacon, Sayles Bleachery, Canton and Ecusta.

In March the managers of each team met and elected as officers Mr. Raymond F. Bennett of Ecusta as President, Mr. Charley Munday as Vice-pres., and Mr. Vernon Morton as Secretary and Treasurer.

Since Manager, Jack Alexander, left for the Navy duty on April 22nd, a new manager will be appointed in the very near future.

Where The Strong

When the members of the Apalachian Mountain Club go off on snowshoe trips in the White Mountains, the strongest and most skilled snowshoers are placed at the head of the line to break out the trail. That is hard work. Oftentimes, after a heavy snow, it is necessary for the lead man to drop back after taking less than a dozen steps and let the second man break for an equal number of steps. Working that way it is surprising how much half a dozen men can do. The weaker hikers travel easily up the smooth trail made for them by their stronger associates. The strong utter no complaint because they are called on to do the hardest work. They know they are chosen to break trail because they have what the majority do not have. They are proud because they are strong enough to render special service.

In the Eskimo country it is said that in times of emergency a strong man and a weak man are paired off. That seems fair to them. The strong man is glad to share his strength with a weaker companion. Apparently the Eskimos have a practical religion. They accept the cooperative life as the best life for all of them. They think in terms of sharing and find such thinking natural.

How long will it take us so-called civilized people to learn what the Eskimos already know?

There's a philosophy of life expressed in the actions of the snowshoers and the Eskimos that may yet save the world.

HAND BOOKLET "B" COP LEAGUE HONORS

Hand Booklet B, this season's Champs and a first place contender from the beginning, came through to the finals with a 9 game lead. This team, undoubtedly the neatest performing and most consistent team in the league, has the single honor of placing two of its members on the "All Star Team" which consists of the five high averages at the end of the season's bowling. Those girls are Captain Ann Morris and Sarah Avery. Ann finished with an average of 90.18, Sarah with an even 88.

The dark horse Endless Belt team watched many a chin fall as they whipped up from a tie for 3rd to a 2nd place tie. This was way back in the middle of January. Well, Machine Book A took a tumble shortly after and slid to 3rd with Endless up in 2nd all by herself. About that time, Petie Rotah Colwell acquired a "dead eye" for lonesome one pin stands and Sarah Hester Fowler started her career with the Office Team, result being a swift ascent to a snug 3rd position. The two Machine Booklet teams broke their 4th place tie, Machine B ending in 4th place, with 32 wins, Hand Booklet A in 5th with 30 wins and Machine A in 6th with 29. A change in shifts at the middle of the season over in Finishing meant a mad scramble for team members and a consequent tail position for both Finishing Teams. However, (and if you don't believe this ask Ed McCoy) not a team in the league can beat Finishing when it comes to harmonizing. We like your spirit, Finishing!

And so Ecusta's Bowling Season has come to a close. Over 90 girls participated in the eight team league matches which opened Oct. 15th and closed March 31st.

As was previously announced in the Transylvania Times and the November issue of the Echo, Abercrombie Furniture is awarding a bedspread for high average, Plummer's, a pair of hose for high single game, Farmers Supply Co., a casserole for high set, Varner's Drug, a box of candy for 2nd high game, Long's Drug, a box of candy for 2nd high set, Macfie's Drug, a box of candy for 2nd high average, Scott's Grocery, a 10 lb. ham for captain's high average, The Carlton Jewelry Store, a trophy to the winning team of each league, and the Coca Cola Co., a carton of coca cola to the girl with the high average on each team.

The Ecusta Bowling Leagues wish to thank the merchants of Brevard, the Coca Cola Co., Mr. Ed McCoy and the Board of Directors of the Centennial Bowling Alley for their interest and fine spirit which has contributed in great measure to a successful and enjoyable bowling season.

A definition of a good sportsman is what all of us ought to accept as a definition of a good business man: "One who plays fair; who scorns to do anything illegitimate or to accept victory won by unfair advantage; who loses without rancor and wins without gloating."
