

BAND NOTES

Ecusta Band's long proposed... Saturday night, Oct. 10th, in old band-stand adjacent the house in Brevard. Previously had been rained out, blessed out, played out in preparation for the... However, once the jinx was broken and the program was actually in progress, we enjoyed playing for an inspiring and appreciative audience who lined the curbs and corn-

In the early hours of Sunday morning, October 25th, a fire was discovered in our warehouse, which started from a cause so far unknown to us.

I take this opportunity to thank all of those who gave their services in fighting this fire and helped to keep it under control.

We know it was hard work, and only through the combined and full cooperation of everyone did we succeed in extinguishing this fire during the afternoon.

Such cooperation and interest on the part of our employees here is deeply appreciated by me and I want to again express to all of you my thanks.

Sincerely yours,

HARRY H. STRAUS
President

rels? . . . This month none of our boys left for the service; neither have we seen any of those who have gone but to those who're in—remember, we're all back of you and we're proud to say that we're in the 10% Club for Victory. We'll do our best to "Keep 'em flying, rolling, and sailing." Let's not forget to buy our share of freedom today.

the floor again the other afternoon . . . We will have to make sure that Jessie McGee comes to our square dance so she can show us how she rated getting her name in the Asheville paper. Here's hoping you win the War Bond in the last round . . . Come on H. B. D.: Now that we are working five days again, let's make it a 100% bond drive.
