

We Salute Our Men Now In Service

At Camp Wheeler

Sergeant Allen Smith, formerly employed in the Finishing department at Ecusta, is now with the Quartermaster Corps at Camp Wheeler. Sergeant Smith left Ecusta March 19, 1942.

★ ★ ★

Is Corporal Now

Corporal James Boyce Simpson, formerly employed at Ecusta as an Inspector, took basic training at Camp Lee, Virginia and is now at Fort Bragg in the Ordnance division. Corporal Simpson left Ecusta February 6, 1942.

★ ★ ★

At Tyndall Field

Sergeant Howard C. Galloway, formerly employed at Ecusta as a Third Hand, volunteered his services January 22, 1941, and was stationed for a while in a tent city at Maxwell Field, Alabama.

AT FORT BELVOIR, VA.

Pvt. Houston W. Kitchen, formerly employed at Ecusta as a Filter Plant Operator, is now at the Engineers Officers Training School, Fort Belvoir, Virginia. Pvt. Kitchen left Ecusta June 21, 1942. Houston wrote that he is enjoying his training.

Kitchen

★ ★ ★

IN COMMAND SCHOOL

Pfc. Edward Vincent Drake is now in the Fighter Command School at Orlando, Florida. Private Drake was formerly employed at Ecusta as a Backtender. He left on January 30, of this year. He wrote a nice letter to the paper recently.

Drake

★ ★ ★

IS NOW ON SEA DUTY

Pfc. Carlos Clinton Morris, formerly employed at Ecusta as a Chemical Helper, volunteered his services December 30, 1941 and was first stationed at Paris Island, South Carolina. He is now with the Marines on sea duty in parts unknown.

Morris

★ ★ ★

AT CHANUTE FIELD, ILL.

Pvt. Arthur J. Loeb, formerly of California Central Fibre, was first stationed at Keesler Field and was recently transferred to Chanute Field, Illinois. Pvt. Loeb entered the service August 31, 1942. Recognize our lean mt. fisherman?

Loeb

★ ★ ★

AT AUBURNDALE, MASS.

Pft. Melvin McCormick, formerly employed at Ecusta as an Inspector is now with the 32nd Ordnance company, Auburndale, Mass. He was formerly stationed at Aberdeen, Md. and Fort Bragg, N. C. Pfc. McCormick left Ecusta Sept. 29, '42.

McCormick

★ ★ ★

A PETTY OFFICER

First Class Petty Officer Rufus Michael Myers, formerly employed at Ecusta as an Inspector, enlisted February 13, 1942, and is now on sea duty. Mike was home on furlough in July. Let us hear from you soon, Mike.

Myers

IS NOW AT SEA

Seaman Harold W. Orr, formerly employed at Ecusta as a Chlorinator Operator, is now at sea. Seaman Orr left Ecusta January 9, 1942. How about a word to the home-folks, Harold? Let us know if you receive your copy of the Echo.

Orr

★ ★ ★

AT MINNEAPOLIS AIRPORT

Cadet Edward L. Williams was employed as a first helper in the Refining Room and completed his pre-flight training at the Navy Pre - Flight School, Iowa City, Iowa, on October 15th. Cadet Williams volunteered April 30, 1942.

Williams

★ ★ ★

IN BOMBER SQUADRON

Staff Sergeant John DeWitt Souther, formerly employed at Champagne in the Machine Booklet Department, volunteered December 11, 1941. Recently at Keesler Field, Mississippi, he is now stationed at the army air base in Topeka, Kansas.

Souther

★ ★ ★

STATIONED IN KENTUCKY

Pvt. Albert Grindstaff, formerly employed at Ecusta on the Landscape crew, is now at Fort Knox, Kentucky. Private Grindstaff left Ecusta on July 28, 1942. This picture of Albert was taken when he was standing in front of a huge army tank.

Grindstaff

★ ★ ★

WITH U. S. MARINES

Pvt. Fulton Holliday, formerly employed at Ecusta as a First Helper, is now with the U. S. Marines. Pvt. Holliday graduated from the Keesler Field Air Corps Technical School in June. Pvt. Holliday left Ecusta December 26, 1941.

Holliday

★ ★ ★

IN BALLOON BATTALION

Pvt. Robert J. Huggins, formerly employed at Ecusta on the Clearner Crew, volunteered his services February 1, 1942. Pvt. Huggins is now with the 302 Balloon Barrage Battalion, at Camp Tyson, Tennessee, where he teaches the manufacture of gas.

Huggins

IN TRANSPORTATION

Pfc. Robert Raines, formerly employed at Ecusta in the Fibre Warehouse, entered the army May 17, 1942. Bob was stationed a short time at Keesler Field and in only two months after entering the service went over seas with the Transportation Corps.

Raines

★ ★ ★

WAS AT PEARL HARBOR

Seaman Lester J. Rash, formerly employed at Champagne in the Shipping Department, is now somewhere on the Pacific, but was recently stationed at Pearl Harbor. Seaman Rash left Ecusta July 17, 1942.

Rash

★ ★ ★

AT FORT JACKSON, S. C.

Pvt. James S. Smith, formerly employed at Ecusta on the Cleaner Crew, is now stationed at Fort Jackson, South Carolina. Pvt. Smith left Ecusta July 15, 1942. Let us know if you are receiving your copy of the Echo.

Smith

★ ★ ★

AT CAMP HOLABIRD, MD.

Pvt. John C. Sprouse, formerly employed at Ecusta on the Yard Crew, is now at the Motor Base, Camp Holabird, Maryland. Pvt. Sprouse left Ecusta April 7, 1942. His father is foreman of the Yard Crew here at Ecusta.

Sprouse

★ ★ ★

CORPORAL IN MARINES

Corporal John B. Bishop, formerly employed at Ecusta in the Finishing Department enlisted in the Marines May 27, 1941. He is now on sea duty, 8,000 miles from home. John says that there are three W. N. C. boys in his squadron who enjoy the Echo.

Bishop

★ ★ ★

ON DUTY IN PACIFIC

Pfc. Gordon R. Black, formerly employed at Ecusta as a Machinist is in the Field Artillery, now on sea duty out from San Francisco. Pfc. Black left Ecusta April 5, 1941. Let us hear from you sometime, Gordon.

Black