Finishing Touches

First we wish to correct a monstrous error which occurred in the last Echo concerning the former Aileen Frizzell who was married Sept. 19th, 1942. It was Frizzell and not Trizzell. She married Mr. Lloyd Daulphiner Orr and Not David Orr because that man was already married . . . Edith Morris she was but Morris she aint no more. Yep, she got her a man too. She is now Mrs. Vance Evans . . . Velma Stepp is displaying one of those delicate little objects known as a diamond. He is in the U. S. Army, of course, but Christmas might change her name . . . Where did Cecil Smith get that sweet smelling after-shave lotion? Boy! It really made some of the girls turn around and take notice . . . Why does Willa Faye B. hate to be called "Bill"? . . . Juanita Osteen really can think of the most hair doos. How does she do it? . . . What on earth do Virginia and Pearlecn find to talk so much

Dear Mr. (Walter) Straus:

I have just received your letter and thought it would be a good idea if I answered it right off before I put it off too long. I was very glad to hear from you.

I am very pleased to know that the Champagne Boys won the cup again this year. I felt sure they could do it. The only thing that displeased me was the simple reason that I was not there to get in on the "kill". I sure hope how soon I can be back there. But at this time I am in on a big game and as usual, it will be the winning team. You mentioned something in your letter about my "dad" seeing the game, that is a slight mistake, the fellow you thought to be my "dad" was my brother. You will be sure to see him at a ball game if it is possible for him to get there. He sure is a great sports fan. I suppose that he and I inherited that from our father as he was a ball player himself when he was a young fellow.

I received the Echo several days ago and from what I got out of the box-score, it must have been quite an interesting play-off. I sure would like to have been there to have seen it even if I couldn't have played. As I have said before, I am hoping that it won't be too long until I am back there taking part in your athletics along with the other fellows.

As it is nearing "Chow Time" and Mail Call too, I suppose that I will have to "Halt" for this time. I am Mail Clerk along with my other duties and had better get the mail out or I am liable to have the whole gang on my neck. In closing I wish to congratulate you and the entire ball team for their victory.

Wishing you and the entire "outfit" the best of luck and success.

Sincerely yours,
ROY E. CARTER, Cpl.
