

ECUSTA EMPLOYEES ENJOY BIG

"The Boss" Looking Over The Picnic

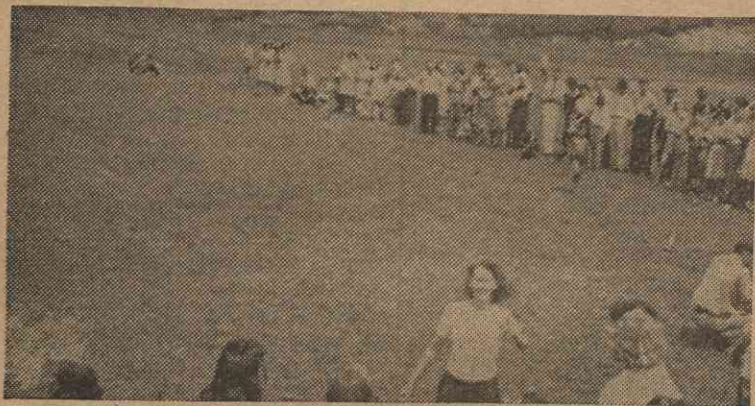

Here they are climbing that greasy pole and on the right is a general view of the crowd watching the races. Below are the judges who had a hard job.

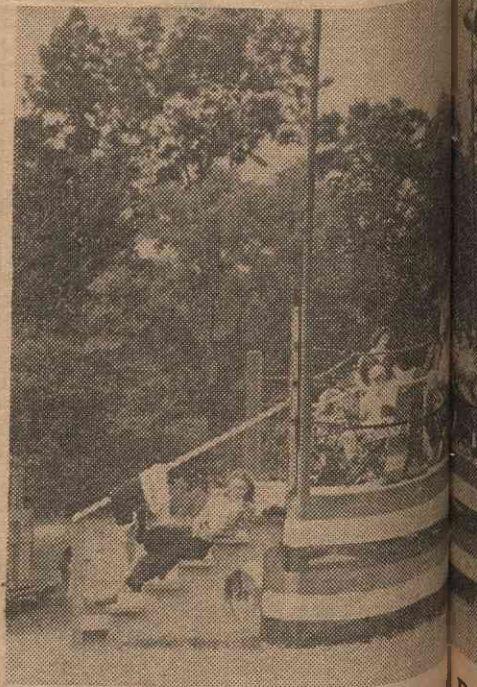

THEY

From 10 o'clock in the afternoon hundreds of Ecusta employees had a lot of fun watching the thing going on at the picnic. There were plenty of refreshments spread and many of the races were graphed that day.
