Bond Rally Speaker Lunches at Ecusta

Looking like a statesman and wearing a smile of contentment that comes after a man has enjoyed a good meal, standing in the photo shown above is D. Hiden Ramsey, general manager of The Asheville Citizen-Times Company, who delivered the principal address at the big bond rally in Brevard when the army invaded the county to help Uncle Sam's treasury department. Seated to the right is Mr. Word.

Ecusta War Bond Honor Roll

A total of 160 employees have had their war bond deductions increased since the last issue of the Echo, and this list does not include any company officials.

This shows that employees are responding to the government's urgent request for every one to buy more war bonds.

The honor roll is as follows:

Supt. Bennett Makes a Powerful Speech

The photographer caught him right in the middle of a strong appeal to the people of the Selica community to buy War Bonds and to help the county go over the top this month. At the Selica rally Mr. Bennett delivered the main address. He has attended all of the War Bond rallies in the county and deserves a great deal of praise for this patriotic service.
