

Entertainment And Recreational Center

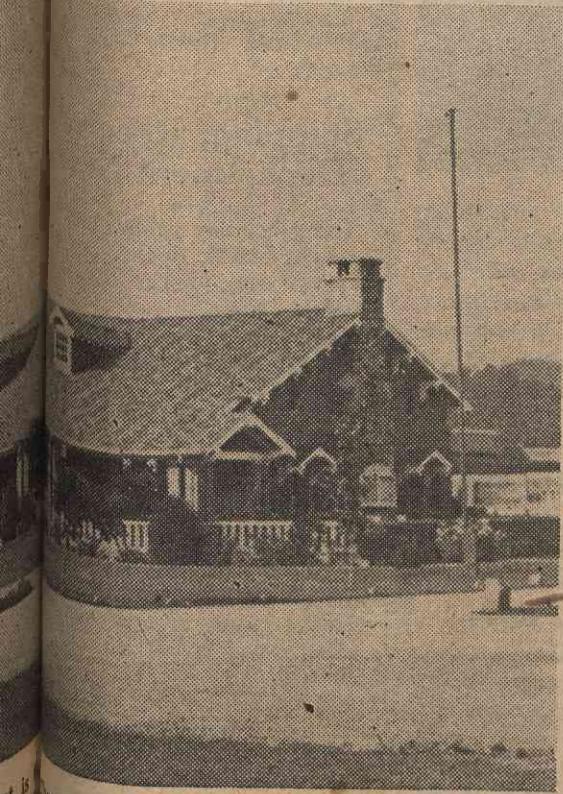

Supt. Raymond Bennett Delivers Annual Christmas Message

...e Pass, Floor
...Movie In This
...Ed Center

...eam practice in
...an enter checkers are
...center and ping pong
...in which
...ia is really a
...and this pro-
...ams, plus the athletic ac-
...us must be expanded from
...n gives
...are shown that "all work
...rehab Jack a dull
...modern ed at Ecusta.
...ning st policies of the

CAFETERIA BUILDING

Ecusta Sextet Sings At Various Functions

...nt is
...e and
...to par
...and
...es and
...essful
...the
...ccess
...le do
...take
...the
...and an
...to s
...work
...s en
...rsel
...show
...ntar
...s, al
...y wo
...own
...Inte
...t so
...han
...at has
...also won
...steria as their

... Cafeteria
...used as a re-
...all of Ecusta's
...ns. The band
...Tuesday night
...over two hours.
...serves a most
...ats at Ecusta
...community meet-
...city-wide bond

...s, which has
...erent occasions
...y at Christmas
... Cafeteria for
...ic Makers, or
...at has also won
...steria as their

...y night now you
...with the mem-
...Dance team
...coming Folk
...be held next
...Page Twelve

Ecusta's Outstanding String Band And Square Dance Team

They'll again enter the Folk Festival soon. Reading from left to right, first row—Walter Wood, Marvin Simpson, Carl Patterson, Rhett Talley, Blaine Emory, Rupert Gordon, Hal Keener, Vance F. Shook; second row—Louise Dishman, Hazel L. Arrowood, Nell Gallamore, Sue Allen, Dot Rogers, Lucille Dockens; third row—Clyde Galloway, Karl Kilpatrick, Markley Jones, Lloyd McGaha, Waverly Morris, Walter Ashworth, Rufus Orr, Cris Rogers, Ott Whitesides; fourth row—Wilma Henson, Callie Talley, DiVola Cogdill, Anne Morris and Margaret Collins.