

WIFE-SAVERS

Here are a few housekeeping tips that will not only save your time and temper, but your family's as well. While they're not guaranteed to make household chores sheer pleasure, they will help speed up your routine work in these busy days.

Next time you dust, try using twin dust-cloths, one in each hand. Suds them both after each using, of course.

One of the most efficient and quickest ways of dusting bric-a-brac, figurines, etc., is with a clean paintbrush. This is also a good method for dusting book-tops and window-sills.

When making beds, do you have trouble centering the spread and bed-clothes? Sew tiny French knots (to match the color scheme, of course) at points even with the bed posts on each piece. You'll find this will save you many steps to the other side of the bed to see how far down each piece hangs.

Hang wrinkled garments in the bathroom and run scalding hot water into the tub so that the steam will smooth the wrinkles as a substitute for pressing. Incidentally, this saves clothes, also, as too many pressings shorten the lives of most articles. This "steam bath" is an excellent travel trick, too.

Does your family insist on tracking-up your clean floors on a rainy day? Try nailing a scrubbing brush, upside down, outside the door so anyone can wipe their shoes thoroughly on it before coming inside.

And did you know, by the way, that your cleaning cloths and dust-ers will last much longer if they are hemmed to prevent ravelling?

Schedule Of Movies

Movies scheduled for May are as follows:

MAY 3—Swing with Bing—a movie you won't forget. Bing Crosby — yes — Bing Crosby in PENNIES FROM HEAVEN, with Madge Evans and sho' nuff Louis Armstrong and his band, plus comedies and WILD BILL HICK-OK.

MAY 10—A truly gay "laugh" picture is BRINGING UP BABY with Katherine Hepburn, Cary Grant and Charlie Ruggles. The "baby" will surprise you, to say the least. With Hepburn an heir-ess, Grant in the male roll, could there be a dull moment? SHORTS and the SERIAL fill the bill.

MAY 17—Ah! Ah! Ah! Don't go way. It's that quartet again, Blondie, Dagwood, Baby Dumpling and Daisy in their craziest, most lovable picture—BLONDIE TAKES A VACATION, in addition to WILD BILL HICKOK and selected shorts. See you there.

MAY 24—You haven't seen the comedians, Olsen and Johnson, for ages? You will on May 24 in CRAZY HOUSE. It needs no explanation, does it? THE GREAT ADVENTURES OF WILD BILL HICKOK and COMEDIES complete the program.

NOTICE

FOUND — between Cafeteria and Gate House, a pair of spectacles with white gold rims. Owner may recover these by calling for them at the Recreation Dept. office in the Library.

IMPORTANT WAR BOND NOTICE

A number of employees are letting their War Savings Bonds accumulate in the Bond Department.

Four, six, or eight bonds do not seem to be many to an individual; but when you multiply these by several hundred employees it makes a good many to keep in our files.

If an error has been made in your bond it will save you trouble and time to get this corrected in the same month it is issued. Otherwise, it is necessary that any correction be made through the Federal Reserve Bank at Richmond, Va.—with time consuming "red tape".

For your sake and ours it will be appreciated if each employee will make an effort to get their bonds as soon as possible. Shift workers considered!

While we're on the subject! We know a lot of addresses have been changed since your last authorization card was made out. Is yours correct? We will gladly correct our records if you will notify us!

over Machine Room 2 to 1.

Assuming that Champagne wins the second half, this team will play Control a play-off match to determine the season winner. The losing team will have second-place honors and Machine Room third place. All three of these teams would then be eligible for trophies.

Control has the distinction of having high team match and high team set scores. These scores are 2,441 and 924. Callender, of Control team, has highest individual score, 227 and Walter Straus, captain of Champagne, has high individual match score, 575.

Other individual honors are as follows: Bruce Reynolds has the highest average for the season, 169; Walter Straus second, 167 and Paul Simpson third, 164.

Ecustans Praised For Contributions To Red Cross Fund

Employees and the Company have been highly commended for their contributions to the 1945 War Fund campaign, which amounted to a total of $6,000, with the three corporations matching the $3,000 given by all employees.

Frances Simerville, regional director of Chapter Service of the Southeastern Area of the American Red Cross, Atlanta, Ga., wrote Mr. Straus as follows:

"I have heard you and your organization highly praised for the contribution you have made to the successful 1945 War Fund campaign in the Transylvania chapter.

"It must be a matter of pride to you, as it certainly is to all of us, that your employees responded so magnificently in the Red Cross drive. It is people like yourself that make Red Cross the great organization it is.

"It is a pleasure to congratulate your generosity."

The fine co-operation on the part of employees and the Company helped Transylvania to go way over its quota. Since many employees live in Henderson county, $900 was given to this chapter.

ADVICE TO NAZIS

An exchange tells of a quick-witted Copenhagen bookseller who displayed an English grammar with the sign: "Learn English before the Tommies come." The Nazis warned him to take down the sign, or there would be trouble. He took down the sign, and exhibited a German grammar with this sign: "Learn German before our friends leave."
