

POPULARITY OF MOVIES GROWING

Fine Program Of Pictures For Next Month Is Announced. Details Given.

The popularity of our Thursday night movies is growing by leaps and bounds. We promised better movies; here they are: May 31 brings one of Selznick's greatest movies to our screen, co-starring Marlene Dietrich and Charles Boyer in GARDEN OF ALLAH. It is the romantic adventure of two hearts who flee to the Arabian desert. It's a "must". There will be selected shorts and Chapter 15 of WILD BILL HICKOK.

June 7—Dancing in a delicious musical are Fred Astaire and Joan Leslie. It's THE SKY'S THE LIMIT. Bob Benchley adds his two bits. You'll love Astaire and Joan Leslie is "out of this world." Don't miss it! Selected shorts and the serial fill the bill.

Can you think of anything nicer than listening to melodies sung by Tony Martin or just feasting your eyes on Rita Hayworth? We'll have both plus Andre Kostelanetz and his music in Columbia's MUSIC IN MY HEART, on June 14. Also selected short subjects.

She may be a gambler but you'll be the loser if you miss a LADY TAKES A CHANCE—with Jean Arthur and John Wayne. Jean, a New York clerk, tours the West, meets adventure and—you guess! Or better still see the movie, June 21st in the Cafeteria, plus selected short subjects.

A picture every American should see! A drama of Civil War days with thrills and a glorious love story, is HEARTS IN BONDAGE starring James Dunn and Mae Clark. We'll see comedies and short features. See you there, June 28th.

Bullock Wins War Bond In A Contest

R. C. Bullock, Pulp Mill superintendent, has just been notified by the John W. Bolton company that he had been awarded the second prize in the Southeastern division of the Superintendents' Association for his article on "The Part a Superintendent Should Play in Developing And Sponsoring a Harmonious and Co-Operative Employer-Employee Relation." The prize is a $100 war bond.

The contest was open to paper mill men throughout the country, and Mr. Bullock is to be congratulated upon winning against such competition.

will aid greatly in the overall plan for development.

Award Prizes July 4th

Prizes will be given for the three best entries. First prize will be a $100 war bond, second prize a $50 war bond and third prize a $25 war bond. Contest judges have been appointed by our president, Mr. Harry H. Straus, and their decision will be final. Winners will be announced and the prizes will be awarded at the annual Fourth of July picnic to be held at Club Sapphire.

Rules Of The Contest

Only employees of our companies may compete. All entries must be signed by the contestant, and must have attached the name of his or her department. Make your suggestions ORIGINAL. Do not use more than 600 words. Ideas may be presented in any form the contestant chooses, but flowery language and literary style will carry no weight. Clear, simple, original ideas will most likely win the prizes. Do not include in your plans suggestions such as repairs to buildings or grounds, since these are obvious things already planned. You should include in your entry the following general points: (1) Your suggested plan of development and operation. (2) Your reasons for believing that your plan will appeal to your fellow workers and their families.

MUSIC-HUNGRY

A true lover of music is a man who, upon hearing a soprano singing in the bathtub, puts his ear to the keyhole.

Ecustans interested in this activity are inviting other sportsmen of the county to co-operate in a movement to form such a club association.

In other sections of the state similar clubs are accomplishing a great deal for their counties for themselves.
