

All Ecustans Extend Cordial Welcome To Senators And Guests

QUALITY FIRST
THEN
QUANTITY

NOT HOW MUCH
BUT HOW WELL

Vol. 7; No. 6

PISGAH FOREST, N. C.

June 194V

SENATORS VISIT ECUSTA

To Hold Big Annual Picnic July Fourth

PLANT WILL SHUT DOWN FOR EVENT

Full Day's Program Planned. A Large Attendance Is Expected For Picnic.

Next Wednesday, July 4th., is the big day and a record crowd of Ecustans is expected to attend the big annual picnic to be held at Club Sapphire. The plant will make its annual shut-down on that day so all Ecustans and their families can be there. A full day of activities has been arranged beginning with a band concert at 8:30 in the morning and finishing up with a big street dance in Brevard that night.

Free Popcorn, Lemonade And Ice Cream

The Cafeteria gang will be on hand to serve free ice cream and lemonade to everyone and Ward Harrison's pop-corn machine will be there to pop corn for everybody. All those who take part in the pie-eating contests will be able to have all of the pie they can eat. However, everyone is asked to bring his own basket dinner and since the picnic will last from early in the morning until late at night, it is suggested that picnickers bring enough food in

N. L. R. B. HEARING REPORT RELEASED

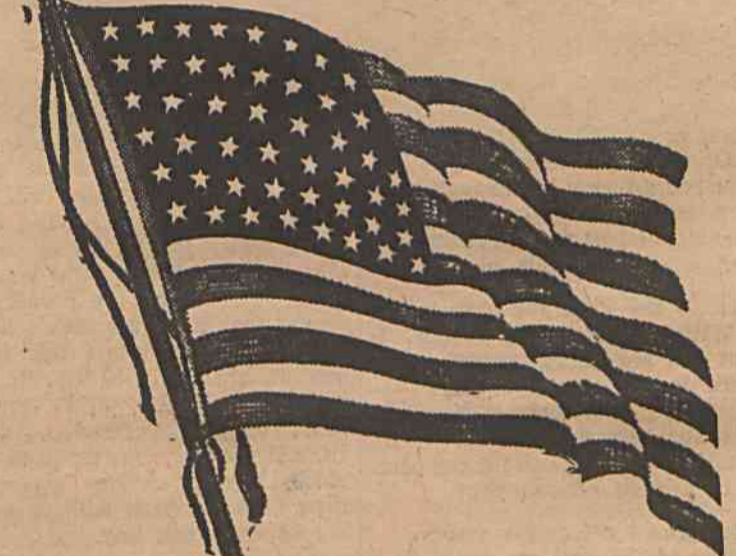

Trial Examiner Denham Submits Report And Makes His Recommendations

The intermediate report of R. N. Denham, trial examiner of the National Labor Relations board, who held a hearing last March on charges filed against the Ecusta, Endless Belt and Champagne corporations by the International Brotherhood of Paper Makers (A. F. of L.), was released a few days ago.

The report and recommendations, which will be filed with the N. L. R. B. in Washington, recommended dismissal of most of the charges made against the three corporations by the union. With respect to the union's charges that the companies had

—Turn To Page Twelve

LONG MAY IT WAVE OVER THE LAND OF THE FREE AND THE HOME OF THE BRAVE

On this Fourth of July, 194V, Americans everywhere have much to be thankful for and at the same time a big job in the Pacific remains to be done. In celebrating the Fourth this year, let's resolve to renew our efforts to lick the Japs and to bring the boys back home before another Fourth comes around, and then we'll have the biggest observance in history!

Camp Sapphire To Be Opened To All Ecustans And Their Families Soon

ECUSTANS INVITED TO USE CANNERY

Invitation Is Extended By Supt. J. B. Jones To All Ecusta V. Gardeners

All Ecusta Victory gardeners are being invited to use the facilities of the Community Cannery that is located in a building next to the Brevard high school.

This cannery is modern in every respect and was in operation last season for the first time.

The cannery is now open one day a week and in the near future it will be in operation at least five days a week. Meats, fruits and vegetables are canned in it.

"I have been observing the Victory Gardens near your plant and through you I wish to congratulate all those in your organization who are participating in this program," Supt. J. B. Jones wrote President Harry Straus on June 27.

—Turn to Page Eight

Work Is Underway, But Employees Can Now Use Lake And Grounds

Beautiful Camp Sapphire, which was recently purchased by the Company as a recreational center, will be opened to all Ecustans and their families every day, starting next Wednesday.

This means that every employee and his or her families will have the privilege of using all of the available facilities at the camp this summer. These facilities include the large lake, grounds and picnic centers. All employees who use the camp will be expected to register.

Employees are privileged to enjoy fishing, swimming, diving, picnicking and so on. Life guards will be on duty at the lake. Lewis Surrette is caretaker at the camp.

Many splendid suggestions for development of the camp into an ideal recreational center were made by employees in the recent contest conducted by the Company.

—Turn To Page Eight

WILL LUNCH AND INSPECT PLANTS

Approximately 300 State Senators And Guests To Lunch In Cafeteria Sat.

Ecusta will be host Saturday to the North Carolina State senators and distinguished guests who are holding a special one-week summer session this week at Hendersonville.

Approximately 300 senators and guests will attend a luncheon in the Cafeteria at one o'clock and following the luncheon they will make a tour of the plants.

The luncheon program will be brief in-so-far as speech-making is concerned and will feature music and entertainment by the Ecusta band, quintette and John Eversman, recreational director.

Raymond Bennett, general superintendent, will preside at the luncheon and words of welcome will be extended by President Harry Straus and Mayor Verne Clement. Monroe Redden, of Hendersonville, will give the response. George Wheeler, president of the Brevard chamber of commerce, will talk briefly about the assets and attractions in the county.

At 5 o'clock the senators will return to Hendersonville for a bond

—Turn To Page Eight

MACHINE ROOM IN FIRST PLACE

Still Undefeated As Baseball Season Reaches Half-Way Mark. Results Given.

As the baseball season reached its half-way mark this week the Machine Room boys are still an undefeated team, having won all of their first ten games of the season. Pulping moved into second place and Maintenance and Control were tied for third place.

In Thursday's games, Machine Room beat Control 10 to 7 and Maintenance licked the Pulping team 17 to 8. Payne tossed for Machine Room and Corn for Control. Cagle pitched for Pulping, while Newbury was on the mound for Maintenance.

The line-ups for Thursday's

—Turn To Page Five