Johnnie Walker Marries Marine

Miss Jean Lane Davis, of the Marine Corps (WR), daughter of Captain Edgar W. Davis, captain of U. S. Navy, and Mrs. Davis of West Philadelphia, Pa., became the bride of John Samuel Walker, USNR, son of Mrs. Mary McCrary and the late Hugh Walker of Brevard.

The vows were spoken before Captain Guy L. Moon on June 9 at the navy yard chapel in Philadelphia.

After a honeymoon in Brevard and High Hampton, the couple returned to Philadelphia where they are making their home at present. Johnnie was an Ecusta 3rd class sailor in the Maintenance department before entering the navy.

THEL SNELSON IS ENGAGED TO WED

The engagement of Miss Sarah Thel Snelson to Charles E. Tinsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Tinsley of Brevard, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Snelson, also of Brevard.

The couple plan to be married in an informal ceremony in late summer.

Miss Snelson is a graduate of Brevard high school and is now employed in Ecusta's Pay Roll department.

Mr. Tinsley, who attended Brevard high school, recently received discharge under the Army's demobilization plan, having 109 months in the ETO as a member of an army motorized

TIME SAVERS

DRESSER PROTECTION — A piece of wax paper placed directly beneath the dresser scarf will protect the wood from many a permanent spot.

LET DEW DO IT—In summer when there are heavy dews, wash clothes outdoors on the line in the evening dew dampens them. They take down, roll up, and pack in a basket. Saves sprinkling.

WINDOW - WASHING HINT—Wash an up and down stroke on the outside of the pane when washing windows, and a side to side stroke on the inside. If a mark is left, you can then easily tell which side needs additional polishing.

QUICK CREAMING — When creaming a cake, heat your mixing bowl before putting in the shortening. It makes creaming quicker and easier.

CLEAN VASE—Use discarded newspaper leaves to clean inside of flower vase. Moisten leaves with vinegar and let stand in vase overnight. Next morning, wash with warm soapsuds to complete the work.

Weds In Pretty Church Ceremony July 7th

MRS. CARL J. AVRA, above, was before her marriage Miss Jean Arline Bennett, daughter of Supt. and Mrs. Raymond F. Bennett. The beautiful ceremony was performed at Brevard Presbyterian church Saturday afternoon, July 7, at 4 o'clock.

Miss Jean Bennett Becomes Bride Of Carl J. Avra In Brevard Church

Daughter Of Supt. Ray Bennett Married To Young Man From Ohio

Miss Jean Arline Bennett, attractive daughter of Supt. and Mrs. Raymond Bennett, became the bride of Carl J. Avra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl D. Avra, of Lockland, Ohio, in a beautiful and impressive ceremony at the Brevard Presbyterian church on Saturday afternoon, July 7, at 4 o'clock. The vows were spoken before Rev. Ashby Johnson.

A number of Ecustans participated in the beautiful wedding and a much larger number witnessed the ceremony.

Garlands of spruce, tall baskets of gladioli and shasta daisies in effective arrangement decorated the church. Candelabra bearing eight tall white tapers flanked either side of the altar.

Mrs. Charles Glass, organist, and John Eversman, violinist, played the wedding music and accompanied a quintette of young ladies who sang several selections. The quintette, Naomi Ashe, Felicia Edwards, Lucille Heffner, Helen Kimzey and Gladys Teague wore tafetta dresses of harmonizing pastel shades, made in the same fashion.

Before the ceremony the quintette sang four numbers and during the ceremony, they softly hummed "I Love You Truly." The traditional wedding marches were played as the processional and recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown of mousseline de soie with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending with ruffles over the hand. The full-length skirt was trimmed in double ruffles. Her finger-tip veil of bridal illusion was attached to a tiara of mother-of-pearl. She carried an arm bouquet of elongated cascade made of individual blooms of Pride of Orleans white gladioli, interspersed with white of silk maline tied with white satin ribbon.

Miss Jean Avra, sister of the bridegroom, of Lockland, Ohio, was maid of honor. Her dress was of white silk jersey with embossed marquisette skirt with short sleeves. She carried a bouquet of mixed garden flowers, wearing a tiara of the same variety of flowers.

Bridesmaids, all schoolmates of the bride at Duke university, were Dottie Cox, Miami, Fla., Jean Harmon, Vienna, Va., and Patricia Ann Corwin of Harrisburg, Pa. Their dresses, of blue, yellow and pink net, respectively, were fashioned with puff sleeves, fitted bodice, full skirt and sweetheart neckline. Each carried a bouquet of mixed garden flowers and wore a tiara of the same variety.

Wayne E. Conn was best man, and ushers were Walter Ashworth, Tom Galloway and Lt. James Bridges of Brevard.

NEW AND BETTER MATCHES

—A match which resembles a piece of chalk and is good for about 500 lights has been developed. Also, there's a new waterproof match which is supposed to strike even after it has been soaked in water for more than eight hours.

WORLD SHORTAGES

— You will have a better understanding of what shortages to expect if you keep in mind that the major world shortages for the next several months will be: SUGAR, MEATS, FATS and OILS, TEXTILES, LEATHER, COAL, LUMBER, PAPER and all TRANSPORT FACILITIES.

is a wonderful thing, but doctors caution that it is not a cure-all, and won't be, even when it is generally available in cosmetics, ointments, special chewing gum and lozenges. Use it, they say, but don't expect it to solve all your health problems.

which promises to lay 200 eggs a year rather than the present 40-60 is assured for the future. This means turkey eggs eventually will be so plentiful you can have them for breakfast. Also on the way is a tougher-shelled chicken egg which will stay fresh longer and travel better.

FLORENCE J. HYDER MARRIES PFC. STEPP

Miss Florence Jeanette Hyder, daughter of Mrs. Laura Hyder, of Hendersonville, became the bride of Pfc. James Curtis Stepp, U. S. Army Air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaither Stepp, also of Hendersonville, in a quiet ceremony on July 12 in Spartanburg, S. C., by Rev. C. O. Lamoreux. The marriage was solemnized in the Calvary Baptist church.

The bride was attractively attired in a white eyelet dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of blue delphinium.

Pfc. Stepp is stationed at an air base in Pyote, Texas. Mrs. Stepp, who is living temporarily with her mother, is an employee of the Machine Booklet Department, where she has been employed since 1943.

Following the reception, the couple left for a short wedding trip and for Cincinnati, Ohio, where Mr. Avra will continue his studies at the University of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Avra is a graduate of Brevard high school, Brevard college, and received her A. B. and M. A. degrees from Duke university, Durham. She is a member of Delta Gamma sorority and the honorary French, German and Spanish fraternities.

Mr. Avra is a graduate of Lockland high school. He was discharged from the Army Air corps after receiving 10 medals, including the Distinguished Flying Cross.
