

1945-'46 Bowling Season Comes To A Successful Conclusion

CONTROL FINISHES IN FIFTH PLACE—These boys won nearly many games as they lost. Reading from left to right, front row, Doyle Wells, Randall Lankford and Marjorie Bevaqua, captain; back row, Bill Long, Charles Colwell, Bob Matthews and Joe Lavell. Ramsey and Lloyd Harris were absent.

FINISHING ROOM BOWLERS FINISH IN BASEMENT—Even though they finished the season at the bottom, these boys in sports-ship were right up around the top. Left to right, bottom row, Cairnes, Bill Henson and Roy Beddingfield; top row, Thad New-enerman, Jack Rhodes, and Speedy Jones. Absent were White, Ship-ethon and Reese.

MACHINE BOOKLET FINISHES SECOND—This team had a close finish for second with Finishing. Reading from left to right, they are: Charlotte Cox, Eileen Nelson, Inez Summey, Louise Myers and May-operations Reynolds, captain. Absent were Argyle Wells, Ruby Roland and rules and Smith.

FINISHING PUSHES BOOKLET FOR SECOND SPOT—This was a scrappy team. Let to right, they are, bottom row, Virginia Burrell, Ruth Hollingsworth, Bobbie Marona; back row, Margaret McKinney, Alberta Watkins and Gladys McKinney, captain. Maxine H. Bryson was absent.

OFFICE FINISHES NEXT TO BOTTOM—These fellows had a big time, winning 22 and losing 33 games. Left to right, bottom row, Charlie Cook, captain, Hank Newbury and Pete Eberle; top row, Arthur Lindley, George Huskamp, Ray Cook and Jack Alexander.

CHAMPAGNE ENDS SEASON IN THE MIDDLE—With 27 wins and 27 losses, the Champagners are balanced in the center of the league ladder. Left to right, bottom row, R. Blankenship, Walter Straus, Chris Rogers and Lewis Meece; second row, Frank Israel, James Avery, W. Ball and Buck Albert, captain.

Trophies And Prizes To Be Awarded Bowlers In April

The season is over, but the final party is yet to be held at which time trophies will be presented to winning teams and prizes to individual players. The 1945-46 season was a grand success in every way.

ENDLESS BELT GIRLS IN FOURTH PLACE—These are a bunch of fine sports, too. Left to right, bottom row, Gladys Arnette and Lottie Tinsley; top row, Miriam Poor Degnan, Eloise Kinsey and Nell Gallamore, captain.

MAINTENANCE NEARLY WON FIRST PLACE—Won 33 games and lost only 21. Left to right, bottom row, Bub Thompson, Bruce Reynolds and Jim Aycock; top row, Emil Vassey, captain, Waverly Morris, Tom Conley.

OFFICE BOWLERS WIN 18 GAMES, but lost 33 to finish the season next to the bottom. Left to right, bottom row, Leah Pettit and Margaret Collins, captain; back row, Gladys Burnette, Felicia Edwards, Hicks Scruggs and Virginia Steppe. Absent were Thelma Alexander, Ina Mae Lyday, Mildred Carpenter, Ethel Tinsley and Eunice Waldrop.

MACHINE ROOM ENDS IN THIRD PLACE—These boys really put on the steam. Left to right, they are, bottom row, Spencer Macfie, Arthur Shook, L. E. Callender, captain; top row, Lefis Bagwell, Robert Head and Paul Simpson. Absent Jimmie Poteet, Vance Shook and Walter Wood.

INSPECTION ENDS UP IN THE CELLAR—Yes, they won 4 games and didn't mind losing 47, not badly. Left to right, they are Peggy O'Conner, Donna Ruth Galloway, Hazel Arrowwood, Wanda Smith, Lois Holbert and Gladycce Teague.